

INDEPENDENCE PARTY PLATFORM

Will Contain a Decidedly Radical Declaration on the Subject of Injunctions.

WON'T PUNISH CONTEMPT

Such Opinion of Majority of Delegates Already Arrived—Sentiment Regarding Financial Plank Divided.

Chicago, July 26.—The platform of the Independence party, which is to meet in national convention tomorrow night, will if present plans are carried out, contain a much more radical declaration on the question of injunctions than was embodied in the platform of either the Democratic or Republican party.

From present indications the temper of the convention will be in favor of a declaration doing away entirely with preliminary injunctions in cases of labor disputes. The majority of the delegates who have arrived also believe that there should be no punishment for contempt of court until after a trial by jury.

The sentiment of the convention, so far as it can be forecasted, is somewhat divided concerning the financial plank of the platform. The majority seems to favor a declaration that all money should be issued directly by the government, without an intermediary. Others incline to the view that the money should be issued through national banks.

Another declaration which will likely be in the platform will be in favor of giving to the interstate commerce commission the power to initiate changes in railroad tariffs, and that no rates shall be increased without the permission of the commission.

An amendment to the Sherman act will be favored, adjusting that statute in such a manner that it can be made to apply only to such combinations as are clearly acting in restraint of trade or tending towards monopoly. Over capitalization of corporations will be condemned.

A strong and specific declaration will also be made in favor of the restriction of Asiatic emigration.

The delegates to the convention continued to arrive in considerable numbers throughout the day and the representation from the eastern states was proportionately stronger than from other sections of the country.

It was confidently asserted that when Mr. Hearst, as temporary chairman, begins his address tomorrow night, fully 200 delegates will be in the hall. Much less than that number, however, arrived today.

It is asserted on all sides that the contest for the nominations will be free and open.

Of the candidates now in the field, Thomas L. Hilsen of Massachusetts has a strong following, and he is apparently in the lead. W. M. Howard of Alabama has many friends who are making a strong fight in his interest. The Indiana delegation is pushing Charles F. S. Neal of that state, although Mr. Neal himself said today that he hardly expected his name to go before the convention. Other candidates are John Temple Graves of Georgia and Howard S. Taylor of Chicago. The name of Charles A. Walsh of Iowa, secretary of the national committee, and who for many years acted in a similar capacity for the Democratic party, is also mentioned.

William Randolph Hearst, who is to be temporary chairman of the convention, arrived today after spending several hours in company with friends, tonight began work on his speech.

Mr. Hearst today reiterated the statement he had made in New York that he was not a candidate for the presidential nomination and that he would adhere positively to his declaration that he must not be considered in that light.

Mr. Hearst was asked if, in his opinion, there existed any probability of fusion with the Democratic party or endorsement of Mr. Bryan. He replied: "It has been my understanding that the convention will name its own candidate and that we will conduct a campaign independent of the Republican and Democratic and all other parties. Since coming to Chicago I have heard no sentiment other than this and I do not believe there is even a remote possibility of fusion or the endorsement of any candidate except our own."

"I have neuralgia headache right over my eyes and I am really afraid that my eyes will burst. I also have neuralgia pain around my heart. "I have awful spells of neuralgia and have doctored a great deal without getting relief. For the last two years I have been taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and they always relieve me. I have been so bad with neuralgia that I sometimes thought I would go crazy. Sometimes it is necessary to make two or three boxes, but never more than two are sure to relieve me."

sibility of fusion or the endorsement of any candidate except our own. On the question of the presidential nomination, Mr. Hearst declared he had no particular preference, but that he would cheerfully support any strong man who might be named by the party.

At a conference held early in the evening it was decided that Charles A. Walsh should be the permanent chairman of the convention.

Thomas L. Hilsen, whose candidacy for the presidential nomination is strongly favored by many delegates, arrived in the city today. He made the assertion that there was no possibility of fusion with the Democratic party, adding:

"There are many of us who like Mr. Bryan personally, but we cannot agree with some of the things he advocates, nor do we fancy some of the men upon whom he seems to lean most strongly. Personally, I lost my interest in the Democratic party when it failed to nominate Mr. Hearst four years ago. I am full of confidence in the future of the Independence party and know it will be more virile and more aggressive than either the Democratic or Republican organizations."

BOX CAR THIEF SHOT.
Pursued by Officer and Would Not Surrender.

Denver, July 26.—Special Officer Frank L. Wood today shot and fatally wounded Harry Glasgow in the Denver & Rio Grande freight yards. Before the shooting Wood found that the seals on about 20 cars had been broken and that some packages of shoes were missing. While making his rounds he discovered two men carrying packages, trying to conceal themselves in the yards. He called upon them to stop, but they threw away their plunder and started to run. Wood pursued Glasgow, at the same time shouting to Freight Agent Meredith to follow the other man. Meredith captured his man, who gave the name of John Liddy, but Wood was compelled to shoot Glasgow before he would surrender. Both men have criminal records.

KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

Plattsburg, N. Y., July 25.—J. E. Dodge of Malta, Mass., and Lockwood Reid of Port Henry, N. Y., were killed in a shocking automobile accident six miles west of Port Henry Saturday night. B. E. Titus of Syracuse, who was also in the car, was thrown in the bed of a creek and escaped injury. The men, who had been to Port Henry for provisions, were returning to their summer camp.

LIVELY TIMES IN WILLEMSTAD

Dutch Inhabitants Make a Demonstration in Front of Venezuelan Consulate.

NO ACTUAL ATTACK WAS MADE

Diplomatic Relations Between Venezuela and People of Curacao Strained Almost to Breaking Point.

Willemstad, Curacao, July 26.—The relations between Venezuela and the people of Curacao, Dutch West Indies, are strained to the breaking point. Following a long series of what the residents of Curacao regard as antagonistic actions on the part of the president, Mr. Castro, directed against themselves and the Dutch government, mobs gathered in force at this capital last night and today, and expressed their resentment in an attack upon the home of a Venezuelan, who had published statements in Venezuelan papers derogatory to the island, and later held demonstrations in front of the Venezuelan consulate, surrounded the German consulate, where he had taken refuge, and compelled the ordering out of armed troops so that the consul might be protected from injury. The demonstration before the residence of the Venezuelan consul, Senor Lopez, occurred late last night, and although no actual attack was made, it is stated that two shots were fired from the consul's house, no one, however, being injured.

Prior to this, about 10 o'clock at night, a mob numbering about 1,000 gathered in front of the dwelling of a Venezuelan resident, who, it is alleged, had insulted Curacao in the Venezuelan papers; broke down the doors of the house, and, seizing the man, compelled him to sign a paper which set forth an elaborate excuse for the publication of the statements with which he was charged.

The leaders of the populace also forced him to make a public apology from the balcony of his home, while the crowd below shouted "Down with Castro; long may Wilhelmina live." The police were entirely unable to cope with the demonstrations, and their efforts in this direction were somewhat feeble. No bodily harm was done to any one, but the shouting and cheering continued for a time, and then a procession was formed and a march made upon the consul's house.

This morning it was noted that there was a shield on the building occupied by the Venezuelan consul. It is not known whether it was removed by the Curacao natives. There was a gathering again of the mob in the morning, and when it was learned that the Venezuelan consul had proceeded to the German consulate this building was surrounded by an ever-increasing mob. The attorney-general made a determined effort to quiet the populace, which was becoming more and more excited all the while. A small military force attempted to check the demonstration, but for a time that was found impossible.

It became necessary eventually to call out additional troops, and these at once proceeded to patrol the streets and stop the rioting. Consul Lopez was escorted to the Venezuelan consulate by an armed force, and he gathered up the official documents of his office and was escorted back to his home. The troops that accompanied him were compelled to force their way through the crowds that had gathered and were jerking on every hand.

An armed guard was left to protect the Venezuelan consulate, and another guard was stationed at the consul's residence. Other troops continued to patrol the city.

ONLY A LOCAL AFFAIR.

Washington, July 26.—The state department has received no advice concerning the anti-Venezuelan demonstration today in Willemstad, but it was said by Acting Secy. of State Adee that if such a demonstration took place it was purely local and that the Dutch government could be expected to act in accordance with international law. He said that the government of the Netherlands is regarded by Americans as most unusual in the observance of international law, and the Venezuelan consul is as safe in Curacao as he would be in his own country, in spite of the strained relations between Holland and Venezuela.

"Willemstad," said Mr. Adee, "has always benefited by the trade carried on by other countries with Venezuela, and since President Castro has practically stopped this trade, the people of Willemstad have been greatly dissatisfied. As a result they have probably shown their ill feeling toward Castro's government. There is no evidence, however, to indicate that the Venezuelan consul took refuge in the German consulate. It may add to his residence, and then, too, he would probably not care to go to the consulate of some other country where he might not be as welcome, but where he would nevertheless be protected."

Elías K. Cheney, the American consul at Curacao, who is now in the city, is expected to make a report of today's events at Willemstad.

The measures taken by the Venezuelan government against the Dutch government and directly against the island of Curacao, brought about depressed business conditions in that island, whose people asked Consul Wilhelmina of Holland to take steps to improve the relations between the two countries in a permanent manner. Curacao people complained of the seizure by Venezuela of Dutch vessels on the high seas, and of the imprisonment of the crews; the opening of official correspondence by Venezuela, the seizure of the ship, and the prohibition of the transshipment of freight at Curacao and of many other antagonistic measures.

The culminating act of hostility to the Dutch government, which was the dismissal by President Castro of J. H. De Reus, the minister resident in Curacao, of the Netherlands. The minister's passports were sent to him by Senor Paul, the Venezuelan minister of foreign affairs. Senor Paul sent a letter to the foreign minister of the Netherlands in which he said:

"This indispensable measure affects only M. De Reus. It will not alter the existing friendly relations between Venezuela and the Netherlands." Queen Wilhelmina's government has replied to this by sending the warship Gelderland to Puerto Cabello for the purpose of taking M. De Reus away. At Amsterdam on Saturday the council of ministers took the Venezuelan question under discussion, and although no measure against Venezuela has yet been announced by the government, the newspapers foresee the possibility of a naval demonstration on account of President Castro's attitude.

RIOT CALL TURNED IN.

Meeting of Depositors of Busted Market St. Bank, S. F., the Cause.

San Francisco, July 27.—A meeting at which 1,500 depositors of the Market Street bank of this city, now in the hands of a receiver, gathered to discuss the bank's affairs Saturday night, became so turbulent that a riot call was uttered and 10 police officers responded, ejecting two men before peace was restored.

The depositors discussed the advisability of taking legal steps against the bank officer in charge, and they appointed a committee of 15, including two women to make a thorough investigation.

BRYAN HAS QUIET SUNDAY.

Chicago, July 26.—William Jennings Bryan spent the greater part of today quietly in his rooms in the Auditorium Annex, where throughout the day he received a number of visitors, chief among whom was Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican national committee, who called to pay his respects to Bryan, the candidate. The two men spent some time in a pleasant conversation which was apparently enjoyed by both. Politics was not mentioned during their talk.

In the morning Bryan attended services at the First Presbyterian church at Twentieth street and Indiana avenue, where he listened to a sermon on "Civic Duty," by Rev. John A. Morrison.

After his return to the hotel he met informally the members of the subcommittee of the Democratic national committee, who have been here for the last two days. The plans of the coming campaign were discussed, but no definite action resulted, the conference being entirely of a general character.

HITCHCOCK NAMES EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Chicago, July 26.—Announcement was made tonight by Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican national committee, that the following will constitute the executive committee: Charles F. Brunker, Connecticut; T. E. Coleman, Dupont, Del.; William E. Borah, Idaho; Frank O. Lowden, Illinois; Charles Nagel, Missouri; Victor Rosewater, Nebraska; William L. Ward, New York; Edward C. Duncan, North Carolina; and Boies Penrose, Pennsylvania.

Chairman Hitchcock declined to adopt the plan of having the executive committee made up solely from the membership of the national committee. Before selecting the gentlemen named, Mr. Hitchcock consulted with the party leaders throughout the country, that being one of the objects of his recent conference. The deliberations of the members of the executive committee, as between the eastern and western headquarters, and other details of organization, will be announced later.

TAFT HAS CALM SUNDAY.

Cincinnati, July 26.—As the calm before the storm, was the Sabbath observance of William H. Taft today in presidential candidate will work at the trade of politics tomorrow, attending the meeting of the state central committee, meeting informally the members of the notification committee, lending his aid to the local entertainment committee and placing himself at the disposition of the national and state leaders. And on Tuesday he will deliver his speech of acceptance, and then surrender himself completely to the vagaries of a riot of political enthusiasts.

With Mrs. Charles P. Taft and her daughter, Miss Louise, the candidate attended the morning services at Christ Episcopal church. The ancient edifice is undergoing repairs, and the services were held in the basement, the capacity of which was tested by the attendance.

Mr. Taft joined heartily in the service, and at its conclusion was made the center of an admiring group of acquaintances and friends, many of whom he greeted by their first names, and with all of whom he shook hands. With his two escorts he walked half a dozen blocks, viewing the decorations, which even then were being put in place. He retraced his steps to the home of his brother, where he is staying, and remained there until late in the afternoon, when he paid a visit to the bedside of former Sen. John W. Hearon, father of Mrs. Taft, who has been ill for some time.

Then You'll Know

The best way to know Mapl-Flake is to use it. So we offer to buy the first package, to let the food itself show you how much you've missed. Let us do it now.

These are not good days for fad foods. Hot weather is the time for whole wheat.

Wheat is the food of the ages. The time will never come when other cereals can take the place of wheat.

It is doubly important now, because it produces the minimum heat. And it gives the maximum nourishment.

Heat-producing foods, in summer, should be sparingly employed. At least one meal a day should be Mapl-Flake and fruit. Comfort and health demand it.

But wheat uncooked would be indigestible. And wheat half-cooked would only half digest.

The particles must be separated by a fierce heat so the digestive juices can get to them.

Else part of the wheat goes to waste. Worse than that, it ferments and causes digestive disorders.

Even mere economy requires that the wheat be prepared in the proper way.

So we spend 66 hours to make Mapl-Flake. It could be prepared, as some flakes are, in 18 or 20 hours.

We steam-cook the wheat for six hours. Then we cure it for days—a partial digestive process.

Then we flake each separate berry so thin that the full heat of our ovens can attack every particle.

Then those thin flakes are toasted 30 minutes in a heat of 400 degrees.

And the wheat is cooked in pure maple syrup, to give it that enticing flavor. We want children to like best the food that is best for them. So do you.

So we make this perfect food more delicious than any inferior food. Those who eat it once never will go without it.
