THE DESERET NEWS.

ACREGRED LAND LINE BERTHING

NO. 17.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26, 1861.

THE BORDER STATE CONVENTION.

A CALL FOR A SUSPENSION OF HOSTILI-TIES.

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

THE LAST APPEAL.

There was no telegraphic dispatch received by Pony on Saturday last, but by the politeness of Abel Gilbert, Esq., of this city, we have been furnished with the following, serve the Union unimpaired. received by Pony fromSt. Joseph:

To the People of the United States.

vention of the Border Stave States, assembled adopting an amendment to the constitution for We desire to remind you that you are con- erful and prosperous nation. in the city of Frankfort, desire to address you in relation to the present condition of the country.

None of us have ever expected to live to see the spectacle now exhibited in our distracted land. The cry to arms resounds of such a settlement. throughout our borders, and in a few short weeks we have seen all over the land the marshaling of troops ready for the conflict. The pursuits of peace are neglected and abandoned, and the fell spirit of war has seized almost every heart, until even gentle and tender woman yields to the fierce impulse and encourages the strife, and the maternal eye scarce gathers a tear as the son seizes his arms, and rushes towards the field of carnage and of death.

-were displayed in preparing to meet the legions of an invading enemy, our hearts would exult in the exhibition of the martial spirit of our countrymen; but, alas! the com- the minds of the free States may be lost by a nothing but a divine interposition now can batants are descendants of sires who stood side by side in the day of battle, to maintain the independence of our country, and in the the rights of minorities. approaching conflict brother is to fall by the hand of brother.

Can we hope, in this day of fierce passion, that our voice, crying for peace, will be heard? Will any portraiture of the horrors of civil war, that we can give, have any influence with those who are rushing madly on to destroy each other? We fear not. States voice would have increased the potency of our demands for peace, have been seized with the prevailing madness, and have rushed to arms. Still we feel bound to make our voice to be heard, with the hope that our words will have their influence at some day, when men shall behold the wasting and desolation that their madness has produced.

All the slave States except four are arrayed in hostility to the general government, and are demanding that the confederation which they have formed shall be recognized a sepathey have attempted to form themselves into a distinct nation has been, for each State by forming a confederation among themselves.

that they find no warrant in any known prin- excitement. ciple of our government, and no justification in the facts existing when they seceded.

eignty as a nation shall be recognized, and Inentioned by such constitutional guarantees address into your own consideration. Act have collected armies to make good their as shall render them secure against future with the energy and decision of a free people. claim, the government of the United States legislation in times of excitement. Our dis- In you and you alone we have confidence. insists that the ordinances of secessica are tinguished fellow-citizen, the Hon. John J. You have the intelligence and the power to utterly void, and that the constitution and Crittenden, for the purpose of securing by rule this fearful crisis. Make known your laws of the United States are still in force constitutional guarantees rights already pos- will in some emphatic form that shall give within the seceded States just as they are sessed, presented to Congress certain propo- authority with your representatives every- but Cairo in Illinois-who are blockading the within any of the other States and to maintain sitions to amend the constitution, which met where. this position armies are gathering on the bor- with general approval, and were satisfactory May we not earnestly hope that you, the

ders of the seceded States. the shedding of blood and desolation of civil lent would be now satisfactory, and would a settlement of the national difficulties, and biggest kind of this fresh-water species of the sense of the American people might discover in the minds of real friends of the Union, and ing a cessation of present hostilities, so that mental mess of the garrison is thus waggishly both the contending parties. But while one side demands the recognition of its sovereign- tees would have the effect of reconciling any We venture to suggest for your considera- Some fried catfish. 6th. Catfish "omlet," ty, and the other insists that such recognition of the seceded States to the government from tion and action, two specific propositions as mixed. 7th. Scrambled catfish -- a great vais a constitutional impossibility, it is manifest | which they have torn themselves away, we | most likely to lead to pacification: that there can be no arbiter but the sword, cannot say, but we allow ourselves to hope 1st. That Congress shall at once propose very small catfish, a la Francaise. 9th. A tional, shall interpose, arrest the strife, and were greatly exaggerated, and that they will allay their apprehensions in regard to possible enforce a settlement without bloodshed. If then be disposed to listen to the calls of inter- encroachments in the future. any terms of adjustment would be satisfactory est and of patriotism, and return to the fami- 2d. If this should fail to bring about the had killed two persons before, one of whom to both parties, which would fall short of the ly from which they have got out. One effort results so desirable to us and so essential to was a catholic priest. recognition of the sovereignty of the seceded of giving such guarantees, certainly, will be the best hopes of our country, then let a States, and still satisfy them, and short of the to prove to the world by the frank recognition voluntary convention be called, composed of obedience of the seceded States to the consti- of the rights of the few slave States adhering delegates from the people of all the States, in tution and laws of the United States, and to the Union, that the States which have se- which measures of peaceable adjustment may still satisfy the people of the United States: ceded have abandoned the best government be devised and adopted, and the nation resit is the duty of each party to notify the other in the world without any good or sufficient caed from the continued horrors and calami- vertised for at Savannah for the Confederate of such terms as would be satisfactory, so cause. that an attempt at adjustment might be made.

produce.

that purpose, for such an amendment would tending about a question of principle upon. Indications have already been afforded that have the support and acquiescence of the se- which we would fain believe that you are on a Divine power is ready to interpose and preceded States. But we leave that for the de- each side convinced that you are right. It is vent brethren from slaughtering each other. cision of the people and their representatives, no longer a question of party politics, no While the bombardment at Fort Sumter conwhen they shall feel the imperative necessity longer a question about the right to hold tinued no life was lost. When a Providential

by their fathers.

rights. We do not fear any immediate en- bility to any human power, withdraw from tracted country to His hands who can bring croachment upon our rights as slave States. her connection with the government and claim forth peace and order out of strife and con-The amendment to the constitution proposed to be sovereign as a separate nation. It will fusion, when man's wisdom utterly fails. by the last Congress gives assurance that at be readily seen that this, as a question of If this warlike spirit-this terrible energy will be assailed. But we are few in number, States that have withdrawn.

which might be perverted to our injury con- and of the bigh civilization of the age, strip trary to the spirit of the instrument, and still this war of the horrors that generally attend the letter of the grant claimed to authorize such civil strife. the injurious legislation. Such are the power | Our States desire, and have indicated a pur-"to regulate commerce between the States," pose to take no part in this war, and we bewhich should have been with us, and whose the District of Columbia" and "over forts, best serve the interests of our common coundockyards, and arsenals in the several try. It is impossible that we should be indif-States." It would not now be claimed by ferent spectators; we consider that our inter-Congress that these grants authorized an inter- ests would be irretrievably ruined by taking the following letter by Pony: ference in the sale of slaves between the peg- part in the conflict on the side where the ple of different States, nor would it be c'aimed strongest sympathies of our people are, and that they authorized the abolition of slavery that our sense of honor and of duty requires JAMES E. BROMLEY: in the District of Columbia while Maryland that we should not allow ourselves to be and Virginia remained slave States, nor the drawn or driven into a war in which other like abolition in forts and other places within States, without consulting us, have deliberslave States. But what will be claimed in ately chosen to involve themselves. Our also a large number of the Snakes' ponies the future we cannot know. So, also, in re- safety and our dignity as among the most from the upper crossing of Sweet Water. The lation to the territories belonging to the powerful of the slave States demand of us that Snakes followed the Cheyennes and had a rate sovereign nation. The process by which United States. While we are aware that all we take this position. the territories, then mnorganized by acts of If the time shall come when our friendly Beaver, in which the Snakes had four men the last Congress which contain no prohibi- mediation may arrest the further progress of Itself to declare all connection with the gen- tion of slavery, and while we know that this the strife, our most earnest and strenuous eral government terminated, and then unite in was the action of a Congress in which the efforts shall not be wanting to bring about half of their own ponies, free States had the control at the time the peace, and it is by such efforts that we hope also the principal portion of your mules and Our present purpose does not require us to acts were passed, still these are but acts of to serve the interests of our country. discuss the propriety of the acts of these Congress, subject to repeal or alteration, as And now, in conclusion, we make our sol- Reid. States, yet it may be proper for us to say, public feeling may change under temporary emn appeal to the people of the United States.

States, now in a small minority of the whole and you are the rightful arbiters of its fate. While these States claim that their sover- States, should be guarded in the particulars We hope you will take the subject of this

Whether any such constitutional guaran- your constitutional authorities.

But we repeat, if the recognition of the soy- sufficient number of States acting in the sire to say, discard that sectional and un- allowed for grog." So says the advertisement.

ereignty of the seceded States continue a sine Union to ratify any such constitutional amend- friendly spirit, manifested by teaching and que non, and if the government continue to ments as will furnish the guarantees we re- action, which has contributed so much to indisclaim the constitutional power to make quire. But it is to be remembered that there flame the feelings of the Southern people, and such recognition, there is no peaceful solution is no time fixed by the constitution for such justly create apprehension on their part of inof the difficulty possible, other than such as ratification, and if they should be ratified by jury to them.

the people themselves may by their action the free States, then, at the end of the present To our fellow-citizens of the South we decivil war, terminate as it will, either in the sire to say: Though we have been greatly in-It is proper for us to say that, in our opin- restoration of the seceded States to the jured by your precipitate action, we would ion, the constitution delegates to no one de- Union or in the establishment of their separ- not now reproach you as the cause of that partment of the government, nor to all of them ate national existence, there will be the num- injury, but we entreat you to re-examine the ment itself, as would be done by the division | Fellow citizens of the United States, you if you find that it has been taken without due of the country into separate confederacies, are about to be engaged in a war in which the consideration, as we verily believe, and that and that the obligation exists to maintain the horrors that ordinarily attend that state are the evils you apprehended from a continuance constitution of the United States, and to pre- likely to be aggravated by the fact that you in the Union were neither so great nor so unare of the same family, and have long lived avoidably as you supposed, or that Congress It has been suggested in quarters entitled together in intimate intercourse and infriend- is willing to grant adequate securities, then to the highest respect that the independence ly relations. The kind feelings that once ex- we pray you to return promptly to your conof the States which have seceded might be isted have been changed to bitterness, soon to nection with us, that we may be, in the future, slaves in Territories, or to retake them when interposition was no longer needed to prevent We now turn to the consideration of what they escape; the question now to be settled the effusion of blood in civil strife, several ought to be done for the purpose of quieting is, whether we shall live in the same Union lives were lost in the performance of a mere apprehension within the few slave States as formerly, or whether our fathers formed a ceremony. We would invoke the presence which still adhere to the Union established government upon such principles that any one and aid of that power to prevent our fellow-State may, at her own pleasure, without the citizens, on both sides, from slaughter, and We ask no concession of new or additional consent of the others, and without responsi- we would commit the interests of our dispresent there is no danger that our rights principle, is not affected by the number of and the preponderance of the free States is It would have been well if this question continually increasing. The security to our could have been solved in some other mode rights now afforded by the sense of justice in than by a resort to war; but it may be that change of popular feeling in the future. One determine it by other means. A war upon great object in constitutions is to protect such a question ought not to produce any higher exasperation or excite any greater de-In the constitution there are general grants gree of animosity than is incident to all wars. of power to the Congress of the United States In the meantime let the spirit of humanity to us and to our people, and those propositions people, the whole people, without regard to tions, have a lively time eating catfish. The If there could be any intervention by which as originally offered, or any that are equiva- parties or sections, will be able to command Ohio and Mississippi, at Cairo, abound in the war could be avoided, that practical good quiet apprehensions that exist, to some extent, will see the propriety and necessity of hav- genus squalus. The bill of fare of the regisome mode of adjusting the difficulties, which | which are industriously excited by those who | the measures of pacification which your wiswould be alike honorable and beneficial to are enemies of the Union and of the people. dom may devise, can be calmly considered by with catfish sauce. 3d. A small catfish stuff-

unless the people themselves, acting upon and that the masses in those States will in time such constitutional amendments as will se- few catfish. 10th. Some more catfish. through their representatives, State and na- learn that the dangers they were made to fear cure to slaveholders their legal rights, and ties of civil war.

combined, the power to destroy the govern- ber of States required for the ratification. | question of the necessity for such action, and FELLOW-CITIZENS:- The delegates to a con acknowledged by a National Convention degenerate, it may be, into deadly animosity. as we have been in the past, one great, pow-

J. J. CRITTENDEN, President, JAS. GUTHRIE, H. R. GAMBLE, of Missouri, WM. A. HALL, J. B. HENDERSON, WM. G. POMEROY, R. K. WILLIAMS, ARC'D DIXON, F. M. BRISTOW, JOSHUA F. BELL, C. A. WICKLIFFE, G. W. DUNLAP, J. F. ROBINSON, JNO. B. HOUSTON, Rob'T RICHARDSON, JOHN CALDWELL, of Tennessee.

Difficulties on the Plains.

We are indebted to J. Bromley, Esq., Superintendent of the Eastern Mail Division, for MILLERSVILLE, U. T., June 21, 1861.

DEAR SIR:-On last Tuesday your Mail mules and Express animals were stolen by the Chevenne Indians from Strawberry creek, fight from Rock creek towards the head of killed and two very badly wounded. They, however, succeeded in getting eight Cheyenne Express horses, which they will deliver to

You may depend upon the above, as I was This is your government-its preservation is an eye witness. Reid got shot through the It is but just that the rights of the slave your preservation-its overthrow is your ruin, shirt in following the mules, but fortunately not hurt.

> Yours, very obedient, W. S. GILBERT.

BILL OF FARE .- The following fishy article

we clip from an exchange:

The garrison at Cairo-not Cairo in Egypt. Lower Miississppi by stopping all down-going boats loaded with provisions and war muniset forth: 1st. Cathsh. 2d. one large carfish ed. 4th. Several catfish not stuffed. 5th. riety-very good. 8th. A large number of

-- Jackson, who killed Col. Ellsworth, as reported, was a brutal, reckless fellow, who

-- Lawyers, doctors, preachers and old maids belong to the non-producing classes in the States. He deserve and which some al Hausen

-Two hundred able bodied seamen are adnaval service. The principal inducement ap-It may be urged that there are not now a To our fellow-citizens of the North we de- pears to be that "four cents per day will be