amers La Bourgogne and Cromartyshire in Collision in a Fog Off the Newfoundland Coast—La Bourgogne Sinks
in Ten Minutes.

It was the worst of all disasters. The British liner La Bourgogne, bound from New York to Havre, was wrecked off the Newfoundland coast in a fog. The ship was carrying over 400 passengers and crew. The ship was seen by the Cromartyshire, a small Scottish steamer, and the two vessels collided. The La Bourgogne sank in ten minutes.
