

OCIAL

22

The event of the week was the Charity ball on Thursday night, the affair collpsing any other social one ever given at the Salt Lake theater. The decorations were elaborate and beautiful. the costumes notably brilliant, the supper a most elaborate one, and the entire affair a complete success, 1. 1. 1.

A prelty affair of the week was the morning bridge party given by the Misses Dora and Eyelyn- Daly on Thursday, the contest being followed by a luncheon. The decorations were in La France roses and ferns, and covers were laid for about a half dozen. Prizes in the contest were awarded Miss Stingley and Miss Kervin.

Mrs. Arthur Shepherd entertained at a bridge tea on Thursday, her guests numbering about 40, and Mrs. J. Caine and Mrs. D. C. Roberts assisting in entertaining. The prize winners were Mrs. William Reld and Mrs. Elbridge Thomas.

The Misses Fitch were hostesses at a dinner at their home on Thursday night preceding the ball at the theater, about a dozen guests being entertained. Pink chrysanthemums were the deco-. . .

Mrs. A. H. Eird gave a roller skating party yesterday at the Wasatch rink.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Shannon gave a card party last night in honor of Mrs. H. Pettinger, the rooms being effective-ly decorated and about 35 guests enjoy-ing the evening.

The Canadian club gave a delightful entertainment last night at the Ladies' entertaining club.

Mrs. W. F. Adams will entertain at a bridge tea next Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Fitch has issued invitations for two bridge teas to be given next Wednesday and Thursday after-. . .

Mrs. C. H. Blanchard will entertain at a tea next Friday afternoon at her home on east First South street.

Mrs. W. F. Adams gave the first of a series of funcheons at her home yes-terday, the decorations being in chrys-anthemums and about a dozen guests being present.

Mrs. W. F. Beer entertained at cards on Tuesday night, the affair being in honor of Dr. Beer.

L. H. Farnsworth and C. A. Quigley gave a dinner at the Commercial club on Tuesday in honor of J. J. Judson, who leaves shortly to make his home in Los Angeles, the decorations being in chrysanthemums and carnations, and covers being laid for about a dozen.

Mrs. B. C. Lockwood entertained at a bridge party this afternoon and will give a second one on next Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Baker was guest of honor at a dinner on Wednesday given by Mrs. Walter Filer.

The marriage of MIss Allce Cannon and J. L. Cheney will take place next Wednesday, the ceremony to be per-formed in the Temple and a dinner Mrs. A. L. Hammond of Provo is visiting with friends in the city for a couple of weeks. to follow at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. M. C. Ellis, which will be attended only by members of the her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Ell Price, for a few days. two families.

. . . . . The engagement of Miss Lydia Weiler and Frank W. Brazier is announced, the wedding to take place in December

Another interesting announcement of the week is that of the endagement of Mrs. Victor Clement formerly of this city and Captain Cloman of Ohlo, the latter being a graduate of West Point and having been recently appointed military attache at the American em-bassy in London, the post being con-sidered one of the prize military assignments of the service. Con-gratulations from Salt Lake friends have been dispatched, and great inter-est will attend the wedding which takes place in December. Mrs. Sol Siegel left on Thursday for Baltimore and New York to spend a part of the winter. Miss. Sallie Leonard of Los Angeles is expected in the city shortly to be a guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Behle.

place in December.

Mrs. J. H. Richards will leave about the first of December for Los Angeles to join her mother. Mrs. George T. Odell, who will leave for that city to-morrow to spend a part of the winter. A pretty event of the week was the wedding of Miss Henrietta Lazarus and W. A. Baker on Wednesday night, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, the rooms being beau-tifully decorated and a large number being present.

mer.

returned from the east, where Mr. Wood went to take her two nicces to enter college. Later Mr. Wood joined her and they went to visit relatives in New Orleans. to New York, where they will make their home, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Foisom left Wed-nesday evening for Los Angeles, where they will spend a couple of weeks.

. . .

. . .

Mrs. George Small is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Snow have returned from California.

Mrs. James Fennemore will return from San Diego, where she has spent the past two years, to spend the winter

All a listen

THE MARLEOROUGH SEPARATION.

.... Mr. and Mrs. Theron Geddes reached home yesterday, Mr. Geddes having gone east a few days ago to meet Mrs. Geddes on her return. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Parks and children are now at home to their friends at the Manitou. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holden and Miss Holden of St. Louis were guests in the city this week en route to Los Angeles, where they will spend the number of trisneds. Miss Elizabeth Thatcher of this city and Mr. Andrew McDonaid of He-ber, were married Monday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Thatcher in the presence of relatives, Bishop L, L. Nelson officiat-ing. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McDonaid took the train for Sait Lake City. They will reside in Heber. Mrs. O. H. Kister will accompany. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rood and their par-ty on their trip to Europe early in the new year: ....

Mrs. Russel Lowry, who has spent the past two months in Gibson City, Iil., with relatives, will be home within $ Mrs. B. A. M. Froiseth of LogN: who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Percival O. Perkins for a couple of days, left for her home yesterday. few days;

PROVO.

Provo-The Nineteenth Century club met Friday with Mrs. W. B. Scarle. Mrs. Thornhill had the topic of the day. "Jane Adams and Her Work in the Slums," which was treat-ed in a very interesting manner.

The week's session of the Pallas club was held with Miss Mamie Beesley. An interesting program was rendered and refreshments were enjoyed. 2. 2. 2. 2.

Miss Alice isely and Miss Edith sherman delightfully entertained about 30 young people at the home of the latter. Thursday evening. Games, music and recitations made the hours pass merrily. Delicious re-freshments were served. The Sixth ward M. I. A. met with Mrs. Ralph Poulton, Thursday. After the program was carried through re-freshments were served and a social Mrs. J. G. Dust of Salt Lake return. ed home the fore part of the week after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Gilispie and friends in this city. Mrs. Pitkin was the guest of Mrs. Joseph Fausett at dinner Sunday. time enjoyed.

The Card club met Thursday night with Mrs. Grant C. Bagley, and pass-ed a delightful evening. Delicious re-freshments were served.

Miss Hattle Young is at Fort Leaven-worth visiting her aunt, Mrs. Guy Pal-

Saturday afternoon the Misses Lydia and Pearl Jones gave a china shower at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Jones, in honor of Miss Hazel Elliott. Towards evening, after singing, music and games, the guests, paraboring about 20 young ladies, ed with friends in Provo Thursday. Mrs. Hattie Sutton was the pleas-Mrs. Hattle Sutton was the preas-ing young hostess at an evening so-clal at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lizzle Sutton on Friday. Thirty young people passed the hours merrily with singing, games and recitations. A dainty lunch was served. On Thursday Miss Mary Stevenson and Mr. Parley Young were married, the ceremony being performed at this home of the bride's parents, and an in-formal reception following for the fami-lies and intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Kerwin will leave during the week for Reno, Nev., and during her absence, Miss May Kervin will be

Mr. R. H. Porter, for some months a resident of this city, left Friday afternoon for the east, where, he ex-pects to remain for a month visiting relatives and friends.

Hon. and Mrs. A. C. Smith enter-tained a large number of their friends at their home Friday evening. A pleasant social evening was passed, clicious refreshments were served.

Saturday evening Mrs. N. B. John-

Saturday evening Mrs. N. B. John-son was given a surprise party at her home in the Second ward, the oc-casion being Mrs. Johnson's birthday anniversary. A delightful social be-ing passed with music, song and games, and the discussion of de-licious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cluff announce the engagement of their son Jesse, to Miss Dalsy Burles, the marriage to take place Thanksgiving. Mr. Mack Dougal of Springville, visited friends in this city Thursday. The members of the Pallas club formed a party of skaters at the Eld-red skating rink Friday evening.

Mr. S. A. Kenner of Salt Lake visit-

The clerks of the R. R. Irvine & Sons Co., enjoyed an evening skating at the Eldred skating rink Wednes-day evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Theriot en-tertained at dinner at their home Wednesday. Covers were laid for 12.

Dr. and Mrs. George Heindselman entertained at dinner Sunday after-noon. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. Showalter of Panguitch is visiting relatives and friends in this city this week.

Mrs. Judd of Mexico has moved her family here and will spend the winter in our city.

The following program was given yes-terday afternoon at the Ladies' Literary club: Paper, "Arts and Crafts," Mrs. R. W. Fisher, "Life and Work of Wil-liam Morris," Mrs. A. J. Gorham. The musical part of the program was given by Mrs. Stella Fancher Robinson of Denver and Mr. Will Sibley.

The Spirit of Liberty chapter, Daugh-ters of the American Revolution, met this week with Mrs. Henry LaMotfe at her home in Popperton, Mrs. Frank L. Parker being chairman of the after-

SIMPLE MODE FOR EVENING FROCK

A charming little evening frock of white chiffon taffeta is portaged with a dainty lace over-dress shawl shared, and suggestive of the incomng vogue of the polonaise skirt. The decolletage is edged with a had of white mousseline heavily embroidered with white slik, while the day puffed sleeves are edged with dainty lace. The featherbone girdle as shoulder knot of crabapple pink velvet are en tone with the delicate par of the sedo silik slip over which the gown is built.

As the rolling snowball that grows with every increasing volume with each succeeding revolution, has been the history of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate, for over fifty years. Year after year the demand for it has increased by greater and still greater bounds, necessitating frequent increase in factory capacity.

That's evidence conclusive that the peculiarly rich flavor, which is preserved by the Ghirardelli process of preparation, pleases, and that's why we say you will like it.

Ask your grocer for it. Be sure that you get it.

Ground Chocolate

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker enter-tained at dinner on Monday for Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood, the decorations being in yellow and covers laid for 10 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alexander en-tertained delightfully at bridge on Monday night. . . .

Mrs. W. F. Jennings has issued invitations for an informal afternoon affair on next Monday.

Mrs. F. U. Leonard entertains her Sewing club this afternoon.

Among the many pleasant affairs giv-en for Mrs. Fred Baker, who has been here visiting with friends a short time, was two box-parties at the Orpheum was two box-parties at the Orpheum and supper following, at which Mr. and Mrs, H. M. Wells were hosts. The party included Mr. and Mrs. W. Mon-tague Ferry. Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Ferry. Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Benner X. Smith, Mrs. Frank Jennings and Clem M. Schramm.

Mrs. Baker was guest of honor at an claborate dinner at the Alta club given by Mr and Mrs. E. O. Howard the table being bright with yellow carysanthemums, and the other guests being Mr. and Mrs. Walter Filer, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. Benner X. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Heber M. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Montague Fer-ry." T. Ellis Browne and George Lawrence. . . .

Miss Katherine Geddes entertained at Miss Katherine Geddes entertained at luncheon on Monday, the table being decorated in drysanthemums and ferns and covers being laid for nine. The guesta were Mrs. Harry Irwin, Mrs. Er-nest Bamberger, Mrs. Walter G. Filer, Mrs. Robert Gould Smith, Mrs. W. H. Cumingham, Mrs. A. V. Calaghan, Mrs. Anna McCornick and Miss Addie Zane.

Mrs. J. Jungk entertained her card club on Monday.

About a dozen guests enjoyed an informal musical evening with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Armstrong on Wednesday, the program being given by Mr. Brines and Mrs. J. T. Reith.

Miss Allee Cannon, whose wedding takes place next week, was guest of honor at a delightful evening affair on Thursday given at the home of Miss Kate Folsom by members of the Y. L. M. 1, A. of the Fourieenth ward, of which Miss Cannon has been for the past two years president. The rooms were bright with chrysanthemums, and a delicious supper was served, and a nost delightful feature of the affail was the presentation to the bride-elect of a o note. . . . Charles S. Bigelow of Boston is guest in the city for a few weeks. Miss Bancroft of Denver is the guest of Miss Spaiding for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Homer are now at home at 255 weat Third South street. the presentation to the bride-elect of a handsome cut glass sugar and cream set by those present. Progressive games were played, and about 40 guests enjoyed the event.

Last Wednesday night Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Rindfleisch gave a recention in ionor of the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to John Beck, the affair be-ing a most delightful one throughout.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rudy enterained at dinner on Thursday in honor if the 80th birthday of the host, the nembers of the immediate family being nembers of the immediate family being present. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of red and white car-nations and chrysantherours in white and yellow, the table at which the party sot having a centerpiece of American Beauty roses with vases of hrysanthemums and carnations on ther side, while sprays of ferns, and were strewn over the cloth. Afterward a social evening was spent, the affair being most enjoyable. The grassis of it, and Mrs. Rudy were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. John Rudy, Mrs. Sarah Canning, Mr. and Mrs. Orson Rudy, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rozd. Mr. and Mrs. Trank Rudy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles ionsing.

Mrs. Lucian Smyth and Mrs. A. H. Miller have returned from a visit of two months with relatives and friends in Missouri and Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Morgan left this week for a month's pleasure trip to the east, which will include Chica-go, New York, Washington and other Mrs. Harry Goodwin has returned rom Omaha, where she spent the past month. . . .

Mrs. A. M. Howard will leave this week for British Columbia, where she will spend a couple of weeks with her sister . . .

Mrs. Leelle L. Savage of Goldfield is the guest of Judge and Mrs. C. C. Good-win. ...

Mrs. Henry Siegel is in St. Louis, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lazarus, San Francisco and Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Ferguson and children have taken apartments at the Maniton for the winter. Miss Edith Shearman, who has been visiting in Helena. Mont., has gone now to Portland to spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Alma D. Katz.

Dr. Luella P. Miles left Tuesday att-etnoon for Los Angeles, where she will spend the next six months. Mrs. Simon Bamberger and Mrs. Ar-thur Behal left this week for New York.

Mrs. W. E. Read left yesterday for

8 2 4

Contraction of here,

a few days.

Mrs. Joseph Slegel, who has spent the past two months at the Knutsford, left Thursday for the east. She will spend the winter in New York and Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor are at home, 574 Second street.

Mrs. Fred Baker left on Thursday for her home in Washington after a yisit of a few weeks with relatives Mrs. W. T. Dinwoodey and her sister, Mis. Kindlespire, are expected back from Chicago, where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Snerwood Bird. They will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dinwoodey. Miss Beatrice Cheesman will leave today for Bingham, where she will be the guest of Mrs. C. Lewis Gates for-

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Odell will leave today for Los Angeles and San Francisco to spend some weeks on the Miss Felle Blythe of Evaneton, Wyo., has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jack Keith, at the Keith apartments. oast. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Behal have good . Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wood have Is visiting relatives in this city.

The Cleofan met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Junius F. Wells. Miss Em-meline Well gave the paper of the aft-ernoon, "Paris at the Time of Henry IV-The Luxembourg."

The Wasatch Literary club met Tues-day afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. L. P. Judd. 1165 Princeton avenue. The club women of Pittsburgh have a juvenile court association, and the propaganda committee is an active one. The most recent campaign has been with the ministers of Allerhow court propaganda committee is an active one. The most recent campaign has been with the ministers of Allegheny county. Pastors of churches have been asked to interest their congregations in the sub-ject as a branch of home missionary work, and are further asked to preach one sermon a year with juvenile court as text. It is proposed to raise $10,000 for the payment of probation officers.

tailon will hold their regular monthly meeting at the residence of Mrs. Marcia H. Hyde, 1059 Third street, on Nov. 12, at 3 p. m.

The Woman's club will meet with Mrs. V. Pease, 675 Fourth street, on Tuesday, Nov. 13, and Mrs. C. S. Kin-ney, president of the state federation, will review the work done at the recent meeting at Park City, and also the work shall aid general federations.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk during the past week to county clerk during the past week to the following parties: Leonard D. Hollister, Denver; Stel-la M. Wimmer, Chicago. Orlando Frenzel, Pittsburg; Flor-ence F. Paris, Minneapolis. Ernest LeRoy Luce, Salt Lake; Lil. He Kraut, Salt Lake. E. E. Cripps, Salt Lake; Libble Hay-wood, Salt Lake. Charles Hadley, Salt Lake; Maude Campbell, Salt Lake. David Yates, Park Valley; Eva J. Jones, Standrod, Idaho. Walter Scott, Stockton; Elva Wil-

This evening Mrs. Francis Hedquist

will give a bundle shower in honor of Miss Hazel ElHott. Mrs. Claire Reed was the hostess delightful Kensington Thursday

Walter Scott, Stockton; Elva Wil-llams, Stockton, William L. Bird, East Jordan; Anna . . . William L. Bird, East Jordan; Anna L. Lawson, Murray, John W. Pearson, Salt Lake; Mary
E. Peterson, Fairview, John P. Johnson, Hunter; Anna K. Anderson, Hunter, Herman Winzbach, Salt Lake;
Freida Zimmerman, Salt Lake, Lester M. Holman, Brigham City; Maude Hanson, Brigham City; Maude Hanson, Brigham City; Frank. D. Snook, Salt Lake; Addie V. McMahon, Salt Lake, Hyrum Larson, Vernon, Idaho; An-dra Theresa Sandvand, Vernon, Ida. L. J. Sanders, Salt Lake; Florence

Miss Mary Eldredge was the guest of Miss Chloe Smoot this week. Mrs. J. E. Armitstead entertained the Woman's Republican club Mon-day afternoon. An interesting im-prompta program was rendered and delicious refreshments were served.

IYOr. Church, .

Under the arrangement for a separation without resort to the courts

$100,000 a year, it is said, is settled on the duke. The duchess retains possession of the two children, the

Marquis of Blandford and Lord Ivor

Spencer-Churchill, who are nine and eight years old respectively. It is expected the former Miss Vanderbilt's friends will soon air the story of the duke's pecadilloes.

. . . The Relief society of the Fourth dra Theresa Sandvand, Vernon, Ida. L. J. Sanders, Salt Lake; Florence Lee, Wood's Cross, Thomas Speirs, Birmingham, Ida.; Ida Leavitt, Afton, Wyo. Bert L. Bartholomew, Basin, Ida.; Mary C. Tracy, Basin, Ida. Elmer A. Knudsen, Salt Lake; An-nie Marie Herdter, Salt Lake, An-nie Marie Herdter, Salt Lake, Danuar . . . Miss Lizzio A. Jones and Mr. Sam Alss Lizzle A. Jones and Mr. Sam-uck Robey were married here yester-day by County Clerk Dee. In the evening a reception was given in hon-or of Mr. and Mrs. Robery at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mr. Thomas H. Jones, attended by relatives, and friends. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served wedding dinner was served.

Friday night the lady students of the Brigham Young university gave the Brigham Young university gave their annual girl's party in the gym-nasium hall. The interesting social time usual on these occasions was enjoyed. . . .

Cards are out announcing the mar-riage of Mr. John Hoover of Provo, to Miss La Rena Brown of Charleston, to take place on Nov. 15.

Salt Lake City's Manufacturing Furrier . C. GLOSZ Wilson Hotel Annex, 24 E. Second So. FORMERLY AT 270 MAIN

Certainly you will buy them at GLOSZ'S-the only store in Salt Lake City that deals exclusively in Furs and manufacturers its stock. Our "from animals back to you" feature eliminates between profits and assures you of the lowest possible price on all FURS.

Our many years of experience has made our business an open book to the average Salt Laker.

We depend on the lip-to-lip testimonials of satisfied customers to sell our products, not printers' ink.

Sealskin Garments and other Fur Coats made to order, a specialty.

Remodeling, Repairing, Redyeing and Cleaning of Furs.

Any small deposit will secure your Furs until wanted. Everything in Furs and nothing but FURS.

At GLOSZ'S, 24 E. Second South Open Evenings Wilson Hotel Annex

ward entertained the members of the various Church organizations of the ward Friday evening in the ward house. An anjoyable program was endered and refreshments served.

af a delign