speech in the closing debate, and touched the marrow of the question when he argued that the bill assalled that freedom of speech and worship to which the nation owes its liberties, and that a "Mormon" has as much right to proclaim his faith as an infidel has to proclaim his unbelief. Senator Morgan exposed the determination of the promoters of the measure to rush it through without giving lits opponents a proper chance to study it. That was the method by which the first Edmunds act of oppression was hustled through Congress, and the same tactics will be resorted to, no doubt, when the bill comes up in the House. And considering the rash and upreasoning mood of the public on the "Mormon' question, it will not be surprising if a measure to take private. property for public uses in direct hostility to a constitutions; restriction, with a number of provisions in the nature of wholesale rob bery and a lot of sections repealing laws that have no existence, will be hurriedly passed without deliberation in the spirit of passionate haste to join in unorthodox religious system.

But mark this: "Mormoulsm" will live on, all the same, and the shameful measures adopted for its suppression will rekindle and keep alive the fires of zeal and faith in the hearts of its adherents, and win for it such sympathy and influence among thinking people everywhere, as will aid in its spread and hasten the day of its triumph over bigotry, oppression and the false traditions of many centuries.

THE TWO CHARGES.

In another column will be found the charge of Judge Powers to the jury in the second Snow trial. The first was, published in the DESERET EVENING NEWS of January 2nd. We give these charges in fall because twe want them on record, and because we do not wish to depend for our arguments upon a synopsis, nor do injustice to any one. Errors sometimes occur through the jury we find some differences which are important. At the first trial Judge Powers charged the jury that it was "not necessary that the evidence should show that the defendant and these women, or either of them, occupled the same bed, slept in the same the intention of the Legislature, it is pled the same bed, slept in the same room or dwell under the same roof."
