

GERMANY'S GREAT NAVAL INCREASE

It Will Have Its Influence on United States' Policy.

TO BE THIRD SEA POWER.

Naval Board Preparing Program for Secretary Long to Recommend to the Next Congress.

New York, Oct. 18.—Germany's great naval increase will play an important part in the determination of the recommendation for new vessels which the naval board on construction will submit to Secretary Long, says a Washington correspondent of the Herald. This board has commenced an informal discussion of the program which the secretary is to submit to Congress and views expressed by several members showed that they are taking into consideration the navy Emperor William is building. All of the members desire that this government shall have a navy at least the size of that of Germany, and some favor a fleet which shall make the United States the third naval power of the world. It is appreciated that it is impossible for the government to provide a fleet superior to the navies of Great Britain and France, but they hold that it should be the equal of Russia and Germany on the sea.

During the discussion some of the members urged that battleships only be recommended for construction, and that enough be provided to make the increase equal to Germany's force. At least three members of the board favored battleship construction. One member is said to have strongly advocated the authorization of twenty gunboats for service in the West Indies, the Philippines and China, and in support of this he pointed out that there were eighteen gunboats, armored cruisers and protected cruisers under construction and projected and the shipbuilding facilities of the country would be exhausted in completing them.

From present indications the board will favor the authorization of three battleships and twelve gunboats of about 1,600 tons each. There is no intention of recommending armored or protected cruisers, as the board seems to think the United States wants very large and very small vessels and none of an intermediate class.

MASSACRE OF MISSIONARIES.

Yanchoo, B. C., Oct. 17.—The Hongkong Daily Press publishes well-authenticated details of the massacre of missionaries and native Christians in Shan Si, China, who were admitted to the province by the Chinese government, and were declared to be directly responsible for the Shan Si massacres. The story begins with the murder of Miss Whitechurch and Miss Sewell, whose house was surrounded by boxers. Their applications for protection to the local magistrate were greeted with the statement that his soldiers were busy with the protection of the Chinese and not for such as they. This reply being made, the missionaries were crowded through the mob, the crowd then broke into the house and looted it. Miss Whitechurch and Miss Sewell were then seized, stripped and clubbed to death.

Miss E. Combs of the Baptist mission was burned to death in her own house, the mob setting her as she attempted to escape, and flinging her back into the burning building. All the other missionaries, numbering thirty-three, fled to the mountains, but were arrested and sent back, laden with chains and iron collars. They were driven on foot to the governor's yamen, where the boxers were allowed to torture them until they slowly expired.

TRANSAVAL LOYALISTS.

The Netherlands Railway May be Confiscated for Indemnification.

New York, Oct. 18.—South Africans explain the investigation in progress regarding the Transvaal railway as a preliminary measure for the confiscation of the Netherlands railway and other properties, says the Tribune's London correspondent. They assert that some resources must be found for meeting the indemnity claims of Natal and Cape Colony for the destruction of their property and the loss of their cattle and horses. Land taxes will yield little when the new colonies are impoverished and the mining industry cannot be bled until it is reorganized and in a flourishing state. The railways are the only assets that can be made available at an early day as the basis for an indemnity of the indemnity claims. The state railroad of the Orange River colony, South Africa, say, can be confiscated by military conquest and the Netherlands company's property, they believe, will share the same fate, as it was subsidized by the Transvaal government and was the base of the Boer line of military defense.

TO EDUCATE MORMON CHILDREN

Caleb T. Simmes of Lancaster, Mass., Leaves Money for that Purpose.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 18.—The will of the late Caleb T. Simmes, of Lancaster, Massachusetts, makes public bequests to the amount of $4,000, $5,000 of which goes to the American people and the same amount to the Salt Lake City academy for the education of Mormon children. Mr. Simmes, in life, was a great devotee of universal peace, and was deeply interested in the Hague conference.

ITALIAN ANARCHIST ARRESTED

Is Charged with Plotting Against the Life of Brazil's President.

New York, Oct. 18.—The police of Rio Janeiro, according to a dispatch to the Herald, have arrested an Italian named Angel Manetti, who is known as the "king of assassins," who assassinated President Carnot of France, and of Bresci, who killed King Humbert, of Italy. Manetti is charged with plotting to take the life of President Campos Sales of Brazil. One new case of plague is reported. One death occurred.

CALEB POWERS

HENRY E. YOUTSEY.

HENRY YOUTSEY AND HIS SENSATIONAL TRIAL.

The trials of his imprisonment and trial seems to have affected the mind of Henry Youtsey, who is accused of having had a hand in the killing of William O'Connell. The first trial in connection with the case was that of Caleb Powers, who was convicted and given a life sentence. The second trial was that of James Howard, who was sentenced to death. The Youtsey trial is the third on the list.

PRINCE HOHENLOHE RESIGNS.

CHARACTERISTICS OF NEW DEFENDER

Berlin, Oct. 17.—The Klonische Zeitung asserts that Prince Hohenlohe has tendered his resignation as imperial chancellor, and it has been accepted. According to the same authority, Emperor William has designated as the retiring chancellor's successor Count von Buelow, minister of foreign affairs.

Although rumors had been current for several days that Prince Hohenlohe intended to retire, little credence was given to any of them, since such reports had returned periodically for several years past.

The fact is that neither the foreign office nor any other government department in Berlin knew until this evening of Prince Hohenlohe's retirement and Emperor William's approval of it. The reasons which induced the prince to insist upon retiring were, according to the Klonische Zeitung, his steadily growing infirmities and his distinct disapproval of the emperor's personal policy in China. To his intimate friends, Prince Hohenlohe, during the last three months, has repeatedly expressed strong criticisms upon what he has called the kaiser's "sentimental and impulsive interference in the troubles in China."

Since Chinese matters assumed a threatening aspect in June, Prince Hohenlohe has virtually abandoned the duties and prerogatives with which the constitution clothes the chancellor, having vainly endeavored to inculcate more sober and dispassionate views regarding the China outrage.

Nearly all summer Prince Hohenlohe was away on his German, Russian and Austrian estates, leaving the emperor and Count von Buelow to conduct the policy of the empire to suit themselves. This figureheading, of course, could not long endure. Moreover, in addition to increasing and prolonged fits of somnolence, the prince has recently displayed exceeding physical weakness.

The members of his family have all along been strongly urging him to retire from official life and to pass the remainder of his days in quietude. The final parting with the emperor was cordial. At supper last evening in Hamburg, the emperor, after toasting the prince, thanked him warmly for the services he had rendered and blessed him on both cheeks.

The Klonische Zeitung asserts that Count von Buelow has also been appointed Prussian minister, president of the Reichstag and foreign minister. Prince Hohenlohe's successor, although general credence is given to the assertions of the Klonische Zeitung respecting Count von Buelow's appointment, Tageblatt mentions Prince Eulenberg, German ambassador at Vienna, Prince Hohenlohe's Lauenburg, the stadholder at Saxeburg and Duke Treubenberg as possible successors of the chancellor.

Count Haffelberg, German ambassador in London, is also named. It is suggested that if Count von Buelow becomes chancellor, Prince Eulenberg might be assigned to the foreign office.

PAUL KRUGER'S COMING TRIP.

Reforms in the Spanish Army.

Madrid, Oct. 17.—General Linarias, to whom the premier, Senor Silveira, has offered the portfolio of minister of war, as a condition of acceptance that he shall have perfect freedom to introduce sweeping military reforms and reorganize the entire army. He also stipulates that his method of reaching these ends must rest solely with himself. Senor Silveira, it is understood, has accepted these conditions and the nomination of General Linarias is therefore practically assured.

RUSSIANS IN MANCHURIA.

They Met Very Strong Opposition from the Chinese at Schachow.

Their Right Enveloped by Mongol Cavalry, Who are Finally Driven Back.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 18.—Detailed reports to the war office of the occupation of Mukden, Manchuria, show that the Russians met with strong opposition at Schachow, where the Chinese, with thirty batteries, twenty field guns and Krupps and Maxim guns, occupied the railway embankment and heights.

The fighting continued from 9 o'clock in the morning until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The Chinese cavalry enveloped the Russian right flank and endeavored to take it in the rear. They were repulsed, but returned repeatedly to the attack. Finally after artillery preparations, the whole Russian column was thrown against the Chinese, who by evening were in full retreat. This result was only reached when Gen. Pleksher's column, which had been resting after the fatigue of a long march, was called into action.

The next day the Chinese made a less stubborn stand in a strong position on the mountain in front of Liaojau. The position was captured at noon, but the Russians were unable to pursue the Chinese owing to the extreme fatigue and difficult nature of the country.

Another Russian column met with strong resistance and only arrived at Liaojau at five o'clock in the afternoon. The Russians in the course of the two days' operations lost fifty killed and wounded. They captured several guns.

A DETERMINED WOMAN

Finally Found a Food that Cured Her.

"When I first read of the remarkable effects of Grape-Nuts food, I determined to give it a trial," says Mrs. C. W. Aldridge, of Salisbury, Mo. "At that time there was none kept in this town, but my husband ordered some from a Chicago traveler."

"I had been greatly afflicted with acute attacks of cramps, nausea, and vomiting. Tried all sorts of remedies and physicians, but obtained only temporary relief. As soon as I began to use the new food the cramps disappeared and have never returned."

"My old attacks of sick stomach were a little slower to yield, but by continuing the food, that trouble has disappeared entirely. I am today perfectly well, can eat anything and everything I wish, without paying the penalty that I used to. We could not and would not keep house without Grape-Nuts."

"My husband was so delighted with the benefits I received that he has been recommending Grape-Nuts to his customers and has built up a very large trade in the food. He sells them by the case to most of the leading physicians of the county, who prescribe Grape-Nuts very generally. There is some satisfaction in using a really scientific, health prepared food."

CORCORAN'S LONG RIDE.

From Denver to Boston on a Bicycle—Seventy Miles a Day.

New York, Oct. 18.—Thomas J. Corcoran, of Aspen, 300 miles northwest of Denver, who is riding a wheel from Denver to Boston, has arrived in New York after averaging seventy miles a day for thirty days. Corcoran starts for Boston tomorrow.

Corcoran left Aspen on August 14 and has made his ride alone.

A ten-pound baggage roll was his sole accompaniment, as he did not even carry a tool bag. The run to Denver was the hardest of his trip, it being over a steep mountain trail. This route has led him through Topeka, St. Joseph, Quincy, Springfield, Indianapolis, Detroit, Niagara Falls, Albany and down the Hudson river valley to New York.

Corcoran does not attempt to break or make a record for speed. He expressed his purpose from point to point, lived comfortably and rested whenever he felt tired. The longest day's run was 105 miles, made over the prairies of Kansas. He is going to ride back to Aspen after a four day's rest in Boston.

CRITICISMS ARE UPHELD.

Crocker Says that Lord Durham's Position is Correct.

New York, Oct. 18.—Several prominent race horses of the track decided upon Lord Durham's criticism in regard to American owners, trainers and jockeys. It is the main topic of conversation at the Morris Park course. "I do not think," said Richard Crocker, "that Lord Durham is right. English boys have the same chance to learn the American style of riding as our boys have. We would be quick enough to follow English style out here if English jockeys taught us anything. There ought to be no restrictions as to nationality. I suppose American trainers will not be able to get any more licenses to train at Newmarket. Superiority of American jockeys consists in putting the saddle forward and the crouching attitude, which offers less wind resistance, and that can be copied. Depend upon it, the English boys will have to come to it."

David Digson said:

"I think Lord Durham's criticism is entirely unfeeling. Any boy that does wrong should be punished, be he American or Scotchman."

Mrs. Durham must have facts to support him in such harsh criticism," said F. R. Hitchcock. "American boys have behaved no worse than English boys."

R. C. Hooper, who rides under the name of Mr. Chambliss, said:

"Perhaps if Lord Durham paid a little more attention to English jockeys he would not make such scathing remarks about others."

"I think Lord Durham's remarks are for effect," said T. Hitchcock, jr. "The best answer is that American boys are still in demand."

Arthur Featherstone said: "They have the color; if our boys do wrong punish them. Patriotic Englishmen do not like to be beaten. I think Lord Durham has made a mistake."

BROOKLYNITES SHUT OUT.

The Pirates Played in Good Old Time Form and Won.

Pittsburg, Oct. 17.—Pittsburg played fast in old-line form, and did not leave Brooklyn a leg to stand on. Phillips did excellent work in the box, and was given a great deal of support, the only error being a wild throw to first base in the ninth inning. Only one Brooklynite reached third, and he was killed at the home plate by a hard ball play of O'Brien on Dahlen's bunt. In no inning did Brooklyn make more than one hit, and their errors were responsible for the runs. One of the features was Tommy Leach's good work. He reached first every time he came to bat, made three hits, scored four runs, batted in two runs and made three nice catches in left field. Attendance, 1,800.
