WASATCH WHEAT COAL.
If you want FIRST CLASS COAL at $3.00 per ton, and a No. 1 article of BALED HAY at $27.00 per ton, call on
GEO. NEBEKER,
d 331-7 South of U. C. Depot.
Our fair and brilliant contemporary, Miss Lagrange, of the Santa Barbara Press, makes the following observation: "Our modest metaphorical allusion to our 'shaking figure,' which we thought very pretty at the time, (the allusion) has brought as several sympathies from brother editors. We regret having said so, for we do not think any more, and we don't like to see so much good sympathy for a phrase which would naturally cause, after a while—Ogden Transcript."
NOTICE.—On and after January 1st, 1874, Merchandise Orders issued by Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution will be received only by its Retail Departments.

An English lady recently valued a card from a lady's hand at seventy-five cents. It was burned off by a heater who used a curling iron which was too hot.
COAL! COAL! COAL!—The celebrated Crismal Coal, the best in the market, at $3.00 per ton at Depot. Leave orders at Yard, south of Depot, Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, residence 14th Ward, and P. O. Box 909. Stop our wagons and give orders to teamsters. d 31-1m
Two clerks of DeKalb County, who have been keeping accurate account of the expenses of their ladies, with a view to ascertain the exact amount required to supply an ordinary card, with good plain Indian, they differ ten cents per week in the amount. One puts it at sixty cents and the other at one dollar a week. So says the Syracuse (N. Y.) Herald.
GIANT "Lurleyberg" Matinee to-morrow, Saturday.
JEWELRY AT COST.—We understand that Mr. Carl C. Amussen, because of declining health, wishes to withdraw from business. He has gained a high reputation for fair and honorable dealing and for keeping the best class of goods in his line. Give him a call and secure bargains. See his advertisement. d 13-5-6
Boston lawyers are trying to "opinion" out of their positions those ladies who have been in the school committee in that city. Public opinion is the best criterion in such cases; and as a relative indifference to the school declared that there is no law preventing the election of women to such places, the school will probably be left to the care of their end of the line. N. Y. Herald.
LAST NIGHT of the "Nymph of the Lurleyberg" at the Theatre to-morrow, Saturday, night.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.
THERMOMETER 38 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p. m. to-day. Dull.
The Mortality.—According to the statistics given in the mortuary report of the sexton, for 1873, in to-day's News, the mortality of this city was at the rate of 2.155 per cent, or 21.55 per thousand, allowing 20,000 for the total population of the city.
The Matinee.—The Theatre presented a gay appearance yesterday afternoon. The audience was very large and mainly composed of fair ladies and beautiful little beauties. The parquette and first circle were filled to overflowing and there was also a large sprinkling of people in the second circle. The performance was as good as given of evenings, which is generally the case at the matinee now-a-days, and a knowledge of this fact brings out the ladies on afternoons.
Horticultural.—At a recent meeting of "The Domestic Gardeners' Club," at the residence of Mr. Jos. Harman, the name of the organization was changed to "The Deseret Horticultural Society."
Thomas H. Woodbury was elected president, John Reading corresponding secretary, and J. L. Maxwell, treasurer. John Reading, J. L. Maxwell, T. H. Woodbury and S. Stanford were appointed a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws for the government of the society. The next meeting will take place on Tuesday at the same place.
A Bad Flight.—Mr. K. S. Myers was staying at the Salt Lake Hotel last night. This morning he found himself in a pretty fix. During the night some individual of thievish proclivities had crept into his room, the result of which was that he found himself on waking up minus coat, pants, and boots, and had to remain in bed until a pair of unmentionables and other articles were brought to him.
Mr. Myers was on a brief visit to Utah, having come for the purpose of settling up the affairs of his deceased brother, Horace W. Myers, late editor of the Corinne Reporter.
Those Grand Parties.—On New Year's eve the members of the Pioneer and Eagle hook & ladder companies had a complimentary ball, held in the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms, and last evening the Vigilance, Wasatch and Alert hose companies enjoyed a similar entertainment.
On both evenings dancing commenced at seven o'clock and ended at one o'clock.
Chief Engineer McAllister and the committee deserve the thanks of the frames for the tasteful manner in which they decorated the dancing hall and wing. Various means of amusement, besides dancing, were provided, consisting of draughts, chess, and several other games, besides attractive books, pictures, etc.
During the exercises last evening a number of songs, comic and sentimental, were sung, and in both evenings those who participated appeared to enjoy themselves hugely.
A Comical Interruption.—While the trial of Freeman and Wheeler was proceeding in the Police Court to-day, a frowly-looking fellow entered the court-room and walked unceremoniously to the front of the Judge and, holding a torn shingle plaster in his outstretched hand, thus addressed that functionary: "Shudge, here is von pill, an I not cost understand vether dot vos von goot pill or von pad von. I got him vor mein vache. [Vil yoo shoot poole, your name to dot pill com den he shall go all right.]"
Follemman: "You go into that box with all this case lay on."
Intruder: "Vai layhtad go into dot oot door?" All right."
Judge: "That bill is good enough."
Intruder: "Ah, yav, I tink dot vash all right; yav he vash goot." Exit.
The circumstance created considerable merriment among the spectators, of whom there was quite a number in the court-room. The fellow had apparently been drinking.
Paroled by the Governor.—It has already been stated in the News that Charles Mingo, the colored man who shot and killed one Kinney, a railroad hand, at Ogden, a short time since, was recently tried in the Probate Court of Weber County, found guilty of murder in the second degree and sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for ten years. On Tuesday, Mingo was brought to this city by Sheriff William Brown and delivered to Warden Wood, on a mitimus directed to him from Judge F. H. Edwards.
On Wednesday Mingo was set at liberty, having received a full pardon from Gov. Geo. L. Woods. The pardon sets forth that Hon. Z. Snow, Territorial Attorney General, had recommended in writing, the action of the Governor, on the ground that, in his opinion, the evidence adduced at the trial of Mingo went to show that he killed Kinney in self-defense.
Mingo is the same man who engaged in a lively shooting affair in Commercial Street, of this city, some months ago, when his antagonist, who is now in the Penitentiary, received a shot in the side. It was shown then that he acted in self-defense at that time, the other party in the affray having been sent to the penitentiary for attempting to take his life.
Paigistic.—On Wednesday evening John L. Burns, of the recently defunct firm of Burns and McShane, of the Delmonico, made a statement to Mr. E. L. Simpson, of the Herald. The statement was to the effect that he had been arrested by a constable who appeared in that capacity and who had been arrested on him. We do not recollect whether the article in question referred to a man, which Mr. Burns reported had been purchased from him, or whether it referred to a woman, which Mr. Burns reported had been purchased from him.
On the Matinee.—Two mild days for the first in the New Year. The south wind has melted most of the snow in the valley.
The Last Chance.—To-morrow the public will have the last opportunity of witnessing that beautiful spectacular piece "The Nymph of the Lurleyberg." It will be presented at a matinee to-morrow afternoon, and its last presentation here will be given in the evening.
Statistical.—We learn from Mr. Joseph E. Taylor, City Sexton, that the total number of interments in this city during the year 1873 was 583. Of these 87 were of persons brought to Salt Lake City from country places, and 45 transients, deducting which leaves a resident mortality for the year of 431.
Mortality.—Sexton's report for December. Males 25; females 22; of these, adults 27; children 20. Causes of death, as reported—Lung disease, 9; fevers, 9; inflammation of bowels, 5; consumption, 4; child bed, 2; diphtheria, 2; old age, 2; heart disease, 2; throat, 1; apoplexy, 1; dropsy, 1; pleurisy, 1; marasmus, 1; cramps, 1; pneumonia, 1; ulcer, 1; measles, 1; lead poisoning, 1; not reported, 2; total interments 47. J. E. TAYLOR, Sexton.
On the Matinee.—Shortly after midnight this morning a man, accompanied by a young woman, knocked at the door of Bishop Hardy's residence, 12th Ward. When the Bishop came out to see what was the matter, the intruder, who was intoxicated, said he had come to get married. The Bishop said he was not in the business and referred the fellow to Justice of the Peace. The man pleaded hard with the Bishop, saying he was a "Gentle," his name was Gibson, and that he wanted to get married to a "Mormon" girl, referring to the young woman with him. Bishop Hardy, however, sent the two away.
That young girl must surely have lost all self-respect to be found in such company and under such circumstances.
Missing.—H. C. Bennett, a well known journalist, and late Pension Agent, is missing from his home in San Francisco, and his excellent wife is in great distress about him. He left Salt Lake two weeks ago, intending to stop a few days at Truckee and thence to the Pacific. No account of him. Mr. Bennett has been suffering all summer from liver-disease, and it is feared that he is dead. He has always been a man of abstemious habits, strict integrity, and was remarkably attached to his family, so that his friends believe some disaster has befallen him. —Ogden (Cal.) Transcript, Dec. 30. He was last heard of at Omaha, Dec. 18, says the S.F. Chronicle.
