

SECT. SHAW VERY NON-COMMITTAL

Points Out Four Policies Open to
United States in the Event
Of Tariff War.

GIVES NO OPINION ON MERITS

"Being Forced to Follow Example of Others is Not Equivalent to Declaration of War."

Cleveland, O., May 20.—The fifty-sixth annual dinner of the chamber of commerce was held tonight, with 300 persons in attendance.

Ledlie M. Shaw, secretary of the treasury, spoke on "Non-Partisan Statesmanship." He said in part:

"I cannot believe that any country seriously considers putting in operation a revision of tariffs imposing new and severe discriminations against the people of the United States. Such action would be most unfortunate from every point of view to both countries. Certain it is the United States has done nothing and will do nothing to invite such a course.

"If, however, at any time, any country should do this, and I wish expressly to say that I refer to no particular country, for some countries are more likely than others to do this, the responsibility of determination rests alone with Congress.

"First—The United States could continue her present policy of resistance to her own people some advantages in her own markets and making no discriminations against others. There are those who advocate this course.

"Second—We could yield to the demand of those countries which threaten adverse tariff legislation and give to their people material advantages over those which make no such discrimination. There are those in this country, I am told, who favor material reductions in present tariffs on merchandise coming from certain countries and the enforcement of present tariffs against others. I think they call this reciprocity.

"Third—We could materially reduce all our tariff schedules, leaving it to the magnanimity of others to emulate our generosity. There are those, and I am told there are many, who advocate this policy. Without expressing an opinion as to the merits of the proposition, I venture to suggest that even the free trade policy of Great Britain does not exempt her from discriminations by countries which adopt the discriminating policy, nor from the demand that the United States shall join in discriminations against her.

"Fourth—The only remaining course possible to be pursued is for the United States to make discriminations against the countries which discriminate against us. I have heard it intimated that an amendment to the tariff law is likely to be proposed at the next session (but with what prospect of passage I cannot say) substantially as follows:

"He it enacted, that whenever any country grants to the people of any other country privileges within its markets which are withheld from the people of the United States, any and all such instances the tariff duties on all merchandise coming from those countries showing such preferences shall be ... per cent higher than provided in the schedules of existing tariff laws.

"This would constitute a maximum and minimum tariff, the maximum to be enforced only against such countries as exact a maximum rate against us.

"I understand that those who advocate this course meet the charge that it means tariff war with the suggestion that the United States will not first declare such a war. Being forced to follow the example of other countries is not the equivalent of a declaration of war, while yielding to the demand that the United States shall discriminate against those who do not discriminate against her might involve neutral powers in a tariff war.

"Such a war would necessarily harm us, but it would harm more seriously still those who drove us into it.

"The United States prefers to treat all alike and fully appreciates like treatment by others."

RUSSIA WANTS TO BE FRIENDLY.
St. Petersburg, May 21, 11:50 p. m.—The desirability of securing the revocation of the imposition by Russia of the maximum duty on American imports levied in retaliation for the imposition of a countervailing duty by the United States upon Russian sugars, which Ambassador Meyer is trying to adjust, is assuming additional importance owing to the fact that the new Russian tariff, which goes into effect at the end of the year, will form the basis for a most favored nation clause.

"That treaty raises the duties on machinery and other articles in which American exporters to Russia are especially interested and the new general or maximum tariff with corresponding increases goes into effect simultaneously. Consequently, unless the Russo-American tariff dispute is adjusted, American imports are destined to bear still further burdens.

If the dispute is adjusted the United States will get the benefit under the favored nation clause, not only of the reduction accorded to Russia, but also under the most favored nation clause, but naturally would like to see an old status quo restored. However, Russia realizes the difficulty in the matter of the countervailing duty on sugar, which, without further legislation, was rendered res adjudicata by the decision of the supreme court of the United States, and therefore is willing to waive the question of sugar, but insists upon the removal of maximum duties upon by-products of petroleum imposed by the secretary of the treasury, which affect English vaseline and other products manufactured from Russian naphtha.

The Russian government also demands a guarantee similar to the one in the new Russo-Germany treaty against any possible abuse of the favored nation clause by specifically binding each country in future under no circumstances or pretext to levy duties on the products of the other in excess of those levied on similar products of a third power.

Ambassador Meyer has laid the matter before the state department and is awaiting instructions.

Peter Busch Dead.

St. Louis, May 21.—After a week's illness from appendicitis, Peter Busch, son of Adolphus Busch, the brewer, died today in St. Luke's hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Busch and their daughter, Miss Wilhelmina, are on the Atlantic ocean en route to Europe. He

A mother's love starts a man or woman on the right path. The right remedy for the child is a mother's love. Motherhood is often looked forward to with feelings of great dread by most women. At such a time when she is nervous, dyspeptic, irritable and in need of a uterine tonic—something which will calm the nervous system through the special organs, and strengthen her, she will find Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription just what is needed. Here is a medicine that has stood the test of a third of a century with approval, for that time it has sold more largely than any other remedy put up especially for women's weaknesses. It is guaranteed by the proprietors not to contain a particle of alcohol—which could only do harm to a sensitive system.

The World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, offer a $500 reward for women who cannot be cured of Leucorrhea, Pains, Weakness, Protrusion of Uterus or Falling of Womb. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, biliousness and headache.

fore they departed from New York they were advised that the condition of the patient was such that the operation failed to relieve him and he began sinking yesterday.

CHAIRMAN KNAPP ON THE FIXING OF RATES

Washington, May 20.—Chairman Martin A. Knapp of the interstate commerce commission was heard by the senate committee on interstate commerce today. He did not favor a radical departure from the present view and beneficial law, but desired to have the enforcement of present law against others. I think they call this reciprocity.

"Third—We could materially reduce all our tariff schedules, leaving it to the magnanimity of others to emulate our generosity. There are those, and I am told there are many, who advocate this policy. # CHICAGO MAY HAVE RACE WAR

Shooting of a White Boy by a Negro Embitters White People Who Arm Themselves.

NEW RUSE TO DISPERSE MOB.

Told Man They Wanted Was Killed and Preved It by Putting Him
on Bier, Showing to Crowd

Chicago, May 21.—Chicago is threatened with a race war of serious proportions. Embittered by the shooting of Enoch Carlson, an eight-year-old boy, last week, by two negroes, the residents in the vicinity of Twenty-ninth and Dearborn streets have armed themselves, and clashes between white and colored men have become so frequent since the Carlson murder that it has been found necessary to detail scores of policemen in the district to preserve peace. Even this precaution has been unsuccessful in keeping the opposite factions apart.

In a riot that broke out in this district tonight between the whites and the blacks, James Gray, colored, was killed, Harry Bernstein was mortally wounded, and a building in which Bernstein was being held a captive, suffering from four bullet wounds, was stoned and partially wrecked by a mob of about 500 persons.

The trouble started when James Gray accused Bernstein and a white companion of being trouble-makers. Since the teamsters' strike Gray had been employed by a coal company as a driver. The merits of the strike and the shooting of young Carlson were up for discussion.

Angry words soon led to blows, and in the light of the fact that Gray drew a knife and attacked the men, Bernstein, who is a bartender, drew a revolver and fired four shots. Two of the bullets struck Gray in the body. He fell unconscious and died while being removed to a hospital.

As Bernstein and his companion were leaving the scene two colored men rushed toward them and began to shout and curse. One of the men, a negro, named Special Policeman Tinsley, colored, came running up. Seeing the colored policeman approaching, Bernstein swung the revolver toward him and, according to Tinsley, discharged the weapon twice. Tinsley returned the fire, shooting four bullets into Bernstein's body.

Bernstein fell unconscious and a crowd that had gathered made toward Tinsley and the wounded man. With the assistance of another negro Tinsley picked up Bernstein and ran into a nearby saloon. Tinsley stood in the doorway with drawn revolver. The crowd, which was composed of negroes, was crying for vengeance for the killing of Gray and Tinsley, seeing that he, unassisted, would not be able to keep them back, shut and barred the door.

The crowd, which had now grown to the proportions of a mob, moved on the building. Finding all the doors locked and being unable to force them open, sticks and other missiles were thrown at the building and every window and fixture in the place was shattered and demolished. While the disturbance was at its height three negroes who had followed Tinsley into the saloon dragged Bernstein out of the basement, armed with clubs, stood ready to defend him. In the meantime two patrol wagons and an ambulance filled with policemen were hurried to the scene. It was only after desperate fighting, in which several of the rioters were badly bruised by the policemen's clubs, that the mob was forced back from the saloon, shouting for Bernstein.

The police told them that Bernstein had been killed, and to make good the remark, the bartender, who was unconscious, was placed on a stretcher, a cover thrown over his face, and brought to the door of the saloon. There a quieting effect on the crowd and they soon dispersed. At the hospital Bernstein was revived.

Another exhibition of the feeling existing between the whites and the blacks was given late tonight, when Charles Parks was shot in the chest by a colored man during a disturbance at Twenty-third street and Stewart avenue. Parks is watchman in a coal yard, and he asserted that several negroes started to quarrel with him.

PRESBYTERIANS WANT MORE CHAPLAINS IN NAVY

Winona Lake, Ind., May 20.—In an endeavor to clear away the preliminary work of the convention, thereby expediting action on the important questions which will be disposed of within the next two weeks, the delegates to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church today disposed of nearly all the routine business, leaving an unbroken session for next Monday, at which time the proposed union with the Cumberland Presbyterian church will be called as a special order of business. The vote on the proposed consolidation with the Cumberland church was 194 to 39 in favor of the union.

The appointment of a special committee on evangelistic work to devise means for furthering a general evangelistic campaign, which has proven so successful in Denver and other western cities, was a feature of the day's sessions today.

Following the adoption of the recommendation of the relief committee was the report on Christian work among seamen, which was taken up and discussed. Deacons John A. Hagan and the Cumberland Presbyterian church will be called as a special order of business. The vote on the proposed consolidation with the Cumberland church was 194 to 39 in favor of the union.

Next to Asheville, which is the center of the beautiful "Land of the Sky" country, are other resorts of fame, such as Hot Springs, Hendersonville, Brevard, lovely Lake Toxaway, etc. The "Sapphire Country," as the district around Lake Toxaway and Sapphire has come to be called, is within a short ride of Asheville. There are lakes of wonderful beauty several thousand feet above the sea.

The great natural beauty of the "Land of the Sky" country has not yet been marred by the hand of man, his only encroachment upon the sylvan solitude having been the erection of splendid hotels on attractive sights and the construction of excellent carriage roads upon which to reach them.
