

Today's Ogden News

GALA DAY FOR THE OLD FOLKS

Nearly 500 Veterans of 70 and Over of Weber Co. Feasted And Entertained.

BOLD HOLDUPS KEEP BUSY.

Two Attempts at Robbery on Wall Avenue—Insane Mother Threatens Children.

Ogden, Aug. 1.—The "Old Folks" of Weber county enjoyed a gala day yesterday in their outing at Glenwood park. Nearly 500 of the aged residents of the county, who were between 70 and 100 years of age, participated in the festivities. That they enjoyed themselves was evidenced by their cheerful countenances and frisks of merry laughter.

Among the most novel features of the day's entertainment was the automobile ride which was enjoyed by a majority of those present over 70 years of age. Every automobile in the city was obtained for the purpose of the "Old Folks" for the afternoon and all who desired were given a spin around Ogden in the gas machines. To those who had crossed the plains pulling a handcart, the pleasure of riding in an automobile and witnessing the great advancement made in travel was a revelation and a source of pure delight.

Before 10 o'clock in the morning the vehicles and streetcars began to arrive loaded with the gray haired veterans, and by noon the park was thronged with the aged and the young who were present by the hundreds to wait on the old and to make them feel that their life's work is appreciated.

Each of the automobiles of the state was represented at the gathering, and no distinction was made as to creed, color or nationality, all were welcome. Tables were spread with the bounties of the land at the noon hour, and all enjoyed the repast.

At 2 o'clock all retired to the pavilion, where a happy hour was spent in listening to an excellent musical and literary program. Addresses of welcome and congratulations on the immense gathering and the true spirit of brotherly love that prevailed were made by Mayor E. M. Conroy, President L. W. Shurtliff, Andrew Jensen and C. K. Savage of the state old folks' committee, Salt Lake City, and others. George Hargrett of Salt Lake, who always creates a joyous laughter with his comic songs and stunts, was present, and played well his part. Mrs. Ann Brown, who sang songs and gave recitations of long ago, was also present. The latter part of the day was spent in sociability, running races and other sports for prizes. Nicholas, head of Ogden and the Hooper land discussed sweet music throughout the entire day. It was an ideal day excepting for the sultriness of the air. After the day's pleasures, a bountiful supper was served and the guests of honor were loaded in automobiles, carriages, and street cars, and taken to their homes with hearts filled with thankfulness and delight because of the day's pleasures. The committees having the affair in charge are deserving of the greatest praise for the manner in which everything was conducted. They had forgotten nothing that would help to make the day one of lasting happy thoughts. The program and amusement committee was composed of B. H. Goddard, F. L. Scott, Albert Scott, E. W. Nichols and H. H. Goddard.

PRIZES TO OLD FOLKS.

The awarding of prizes was as follows: Oldest man—Hart, donated by Watson-Tanner Clothing Co., W. R. Cole, of Roy, 50 years of age. Oldest woman—Bonnet, Mrs. S. E. Lyon, Mary Kavanaugh, 99 years of age, Ogden.

Oldest couple, married longest—China dinner set, W. H. Wright & Sons Co.; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hall of Ogden, married 60 years.

Earliest pioneer woman—Rocky, Bonnet, Burnham company; Eliza Jane Ensign and Elmina C. Baker, July, 1847, of Ogden.

Oldest member G. A. R.—Sult of Othello, A. Kuhn & Bros., Lewis Garrison, aged 77 years, of Ogden.

Oldest wife of a member of the G. A. R.—Dress pattern or ready-made suit, S. J. Burr & Bros., Mrs. De Poster, aged 74 years, of Ogden.

Oldest continuous resident of Weber county, male—Pair of shoes, De-Standford Shoe company; Lorin Farr, since 1847, of Ogden.

Oldest continuous resident of Weber county, female—Silk umbrella, Last & Thomas; Eliza Jane Ensign, since 1848, of Ogden.

The woman who has had the greatest number of children—Aminster rug, Ogden Furniture & Carpet company; Mrs. Christina Allen, of Huntsville, 14 children.

The father of the largest number of children from one wife—Suit of clothes, The Tuggerly; William Driver, of Ogden, 10 children.

The oldest man who crossed the plains in a hand cart company—Pair of shoes, Lewis Shoe Market; Hans Rowen, of Huntsville, aged 82 years.

The oldest woman who crossed the plains in a hand cart company—Silk waist, Blair & Wykes; Mrs. Marion Bunt, of Ogden, aged 94 years.

The oldest Mexican in the neighborhood—Stetson hat, Fred M. Nye company; James Owens, of Ogden, 82 years.

The oldest wife of a Mexican war veteran—Bonnet, Mrs. C. W. Davis; Lucy Cole, of West Weber, 74 years.

The oldest irrigator (the one engaged the greatest number of years in irrigating)—A Jesso washer, George M. Goddard; James Church and Wells Chase, both of Ogden, have irrigated over 18 years.

MAN AND WIFE HELD UP.

Woman Screams and Footpads Run To Hiding When Lights Are On.

Ogden, Aug. 1.—The holdups who are now nightly committing their crimes, are becoming unusually bold, and are not directing their attention to men alone, but women also. Most of the holdups occur in the neighborhood of Wall avenue, as it is a somewhat lonely street and dark, and the women are given easy means of getting away by slipping back at the warehouses and hiding among the freight cars.

Shortly before 11 o'clock last night a gentleman and his wife, whose names could not be learned, were going home along Wall avenue near Scowcroft's warehouse when two men sprang in front of them with the Manager, E. A. Larkin.

406 24th St.
Telephone 122-k.

Advertisements for the Daily, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News accepted on the same terms as at the Salt Lake Office.

Circulator, John J. McGregor.
246 Wash. Ave. Ind. Tel. 151.
Office with Lambert Paper Co.

Payments for the Daily, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News should be made to the circulator. Delivery made by carrier on the same terms as in Salt Lake.

usual command to hold up their hands, enforcing their orders with guns pointed at their victims. The lady screamed, but that did not seem to disturb the robbers, until a light was turned on the porch of a house close by, which frightened the men and they ran back of the warehouse. The police were soon on the scene but could get no trace of them.

A short time before the man and wife were held up, W. H. Smith, who lives in that neighborhood, was stopped by the same holdup. He was taken to the warehouse, but as he had no money or jewelry on him they got nothing.

Ogden has an undesirable element within its gates at the present time and though the police have already arrested several robbers there are others to continue the crimes.

THEIR LIVES THREATENED.

Insane Mother Causes Disturbance and Is Taken to County Jail.

Ogden, Aug. 1.—Sheriff Sebring and members of the police force were summoned to south Washington avenue about 10 o'clock last evening by a telephone report that a Mrs. Parker was about to kill all her children, numbering seven. The run was made in quick order. The officers found the woman in a rage and threatening to take the lives of her children. It was evident to those present that she was insane, and to leave her with the children would be dangerous so they took

MAPLETON.

PASSING OF A NOBLE WOMAN.

Mrs. Lavina E. F. Ashcroft Goes to a Well-Earned Rest.

Special Correspondence.

Mapleton, Utah, July 29.—Lavina E. Fulmer Ashcroft, who has just departed this life, was the daughter of John S. and Mary A. Fulmer, and was born in Nashville, Tenn., March 5, 1838, and went with her father's family to Navoo in 1840. She remembered the prophet and his brother Hyrum, their being frequent visitors at her parent's home.

After the martyrdom, and the saints decided on moving to the west, Jno. S. Fulmer, Almond W. Babbitt and Joseph L. Haymond were appointed by President Brigham Young to stay in Navoo after the saints had left to take charge of the temple and Church property, and look after the poor saints that were

when a few families had the hardihood to move on the bench now known as Mapleton, and her husband was among the first to make their home there. She is the mother of 12 children, nine of whom survive her; three children and her husband preceded her, the latter died only a little over a year ago.

She died July 20, at the home of her son, D. O. Ashcroft of Salt Lake City, but was buried at Mapleton.

THE LATE MRS. LAVINIA ASHCROFT.

Navoo in 1840. She remembered the prophet and his brother Hyrum, their being frequent visitors at her parent's home.

After the martyrdom, and the saints decided on moving to the west, Jno. S. Fulmer, Almond W. Babbitt and Joseph L. Haymond were appointed by President Brigham Young to stay in Navoo after the saints had left to take charge of the temple and Church property, and look after the poor saints that were

when a few families had the hardihood to move on the bench now known as Mapleton, and her husband was among the first to make their home there. She is the mother of 12 children, nine of whom survive her; three children and her husband preceded her, the latter died only a little over a year ago.

She died July 20, at the home of her son, D. O. Ashcroft of Salt Lake City, but was buried at Mapleton.

THE LATE MRS. LAVINIA ASHCROFT.

Navoo in 1840. She remembered the prophet and his brother Hyrum, their being frequent visitors at her parent's home.

After the martyrdom, and the saints decided on moving to the west, Jno. S. Fulmer, Almond W. Babbitt and Joseph L. Haymond were appointed by President Brigham Young to stay in Navoo after the saints had left to take charge of the temple and Church property, and look after the poor saints that were

when a few families had the hardihood to move on the bench now known as Mapleton, and her husband was among the first to make their home there. She is the mother of 12 children, nine of whom survive her; three children and her husband preceded her, the latter died only a little over a year ago.

She died July 20, at the home of her son, D. O. Ashcroft of Salt Lake City, but was buried at Mapleton.

THE LATE MRS. LAVINIA ASHCROFT.

Navoo in 1840. She remembered the prophet and his brother Hyrum, their being frequent visitors at her parent's home.

After the martyrdom, and the saints decided on moving to the west, Jno. S. Fulmer, Almond W. Babbitt and Joseph L. Haymond were appointed by President Brigham Young to stay in Navoo after the saints had left to take charge of the temple and Church property, and look after the poor saints that were

when a few families had the hardihood to move on the bench now known as Mapleton, and her husband was among the first to make their home there. She is the mother of 12 children, nine of whom survive her; three children and her husband preceded her, the latter died only a little over a year ago.

She died July 20, at the home of her son, D. O. Ashcroft of Salt Lake City, but was buried at Mapleton.

THE LATE MRS. LAVINIA ASHCROFT.

Navoo in 1840. She remembered the prophet and his brother Hyrum, their being frequent visitors at her parent's home.

After the martyrdom, and the saints decided on moving to the west, Jno. S. Fulmer, Almond W. Babbitt and Joseph L. Haymond were appointed by President Brigham Young to stay in Navoo after the saints had left to take charge of the temple and Church property, and look after the poor saints that were

when a few families had the hardihood to move on the bench now known as Mapleton, and her husband was among the first to make their home there. She is the mother of 12 children, nine of whom survive her; three children and her husband preceded her, the latter died only a little over a year ago.

She died July 20, at the home of her son, D. O. Ashcroft of Salt Lake City, but was buried at Mapleton.

THE LATE MRS. LAVINIA ASHCROFT.

Navoo in 1840. She remembered the prophet and his brother Hyrum, their being frequent visitors at her parent's home.

After the martyrdom, and the saints decided on moving to the west, Jno. S. Fulmer, Almond W. Babbitt and Joseph L. Haymond were appointed by President Brigham Young to stay in Navoo after the saints had left to take charge of the temple and Church property, and look after the poor saints that were

when a few families had the hardihood to move on the bench now known as Mapleton, and her husband was among the first to make their home there. She is the mother of 12 children, nine of whom survive her; three children and her husband preceded her, the latter died only a little over a year ago.

her and all the children in the patrol wagon to the county jail. At the jail she screamed and talked so loud that she disturbed the entire neighborhood. Dr. J. S. Gordon was summoned and gave her something to quiet her nerves. The woman has been acting strangely for about six months and has required the attention of the police several times, but never before was she so violent. It is almost certain that the officers not arrived just as they did that she would have carried out her threats. She will be examined by a physician this afternoon.

DEATH OF J. C. GILMORE, JR.

John C. Gilmore, Jr., 23 years of age, and well known in Ogden, where he was born and lived all his life, died Tuesday night at the family residence, 2029 Madison avenue, of acute Bright's disease. He was the son of Mrs. Mary A. Gilmore and was employed as drug clerk at J. E. Cave's drug store. The disease only developed into a serious state last week and rapidly grew worse, rendering him unconscious from the terrible pain which resulted in his untimely demise. The funeral services will be held Friday at 3 o'clock at the Fourth ward meetinghouse.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT.

Christina Tracy, administratrix of the estate of William McCabe, deceased, has commenced suit against the Union Pacific Railway company to recover $30,000 for the death of McCabe, June 7, 1907, at Cheyenne, Wyoming. The fatality is alleged to be due to the negligence of the company in not having proper couplings complying with the interstate commerce commission's regulations.

THOMAS DIVORCE SUIT.

Suit for divorce has been filed in the district court by Mrs. Frankie Thomas against John R. Thomas. The couple were married at Ogden October 2, 1906, but the complaint states that soon after their marriage the defendant refused to provide for his wife and now failed to do so.

GRAND LARCENY CHARGE.

Special Agent Baker of the Harriman lines has sworn to a complaint charging Fred Clark, who is now in custody, with grand larceny and burglary. It is alleged that he broke into a box car and stole eleven suits of clothes in the

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

From childhood to womanhood Mrs. Ashcroft has ever been a pioneer. She went with her husband, the late Eli Ashcroft, into Sanpete among the first settlers, being there during the "Indian war" and proving herself a heroine during those perilous times. Later she, with her husband came to Springville, and

obliged to stay behind. After being released his father left Navoo May 5, 1848, and came to Utah that year, his little daughter Tarlita helping to drive an ox team across the plains.

Prescriptions

You want your prescription filled promptly, don't you? In addition you want it filled accurately and with pure drugs. These points receive particular attention from us.

Hence the medicine you get here is good medicine—just as your doctor prescribed it.

Soda Water That Refreshes And Invigorates.

DRUG STORE

The Home of Pure Drugs.
112-114 South Main St.

union depot freight yards in this city. He was caught with the goods in his possession.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

The fire department had a lively time last night answering calls. They made five long runs during the early part of the night, two of the runs were to false alarms and the other three to grass fires.

A license to wed was granted to Heaton E. Cullip of Randolph, West Virginia, and Miss Florence Bingham, of Green River, Wyoming.

Dr. H. J. Power's buggy collided with an automobile yesterday, damaging the buggy considerably.

STATE NEWS BRIEFS.

Lightning Fatality at Oakley.—At Oakley, Summit county, on Saturday evening, five persons were seated around a table talking, when a bolt of lightning struck the place, stunning and temporarily blinding all the party. Edwin Edredge was the only one to receive injuries. He was seen to fall and when picked up was conscious and expressed the belief that he would be well in a moment or two. However, after being laid on a lounge he complained of a severe pain in one of his legs and almost instantly died. Deceased was 51 years of age and well known and respected in the community.

Gunnison celebrated pioneer day in a fitting manner. At 10 a. m. the people assembled at the bivery where a good program was rendered. In the afternoon there was a free dance for the children and various sports for old and young.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING.

The king and queen of Sweden have been celebrating recently the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. King Oscar is seventy-eight and his wife is seventy. She was Princess Sophie of Nassau and has been an invalid all her life. The king has translated Goethe and is master of seven languages.

State St. Hardware for lawn mowers, hose and poultry netting 252 State.

Are You Going on a Mission?

If so come to us for Photos as we will make you a special discount. Monroe Studio, 56 W. 2nd South. We will take rate tickets from any other studio.

LAWSON WINS MOTOR RACE WITH EASE.

A good sized crowd of bicycle race fans were down at the saucer last night to watch the riders in the one-hour grind. There were two preliminary races and the program as a whole was decidedly interesting. In the one-hour race twenty-four miles and four laps were covered by riders and at the finish Munroe was three laps behind. Kramer and Clarke and Pye and Lawson were in a combination and took all the prize money. In the final sprint Kramer won with ease. W. E. Samuelson rode one mile and then dropped out.

The five-mile motor race was an exciting affair. Gussie Lawson won. After he had gained a lap over the other two riders he showed up and let them get even. When it came to the final sprint he went ahead and won. The prize money was $100.00. Kramer and Clarke and Pye and Lawson were in a combination and took all the prize money. In the final sprint Kramer won with ease. W. E. Samuelson rode one mile and then dropped out.

The five-mile motor race was an exciting affair. Gussie Lawson won. After he had gained a lap over the other two riders he showed up and let them get even. When it came to the final sprint he went ahead and won. The prize money was $100.00. Kramer and Clarke and Pye and Lawson were in a combination and took all the prize money. In the final sprint Kramer won with ease. W. E. Samuelson rode one mile and then dropped out.

The five-mile motor race was an exciting affair. Gussie Lawson won. After he had gained a lap over the other two riders he showed up and let them get even. When it came to the final sprint he went ahead and won. The prize money was $100.00. Kramer and Clarke and Pye and Lawson were in a combination and took all the prize money. In the final sprint Kramer won with ease. W. E. Samuelson rode one mile and then dropped out.

The five-mile motor race was an exciting affair. Gussie Lawson won. After he had gained a lap over the other two riders he showed up and let them get even. When it came to the final sprint he went ahead and won. The prize money was $100.00. Kramer and Clarke and Pye and Lawson were in a combination and took all the prize money. In the final sprint Kramer won with ease. W. E. Samuelson rode one mile and then dropped out.

The five-mile motor race was an exciting affair. Gussie Lawson won. After he had gained a lap over the other two riders he showed up and let them get even. When it came to the final sprint he went ahead and won. The prize money was $100.00. Kramer and Clarke and Pye and Lawson were in a combination and took all the prize money. In the final sprint Kramer won with ease. W. E. Samuelson rode one mile and then dropped out.

The five-mile motor race was an exciting affair. Gussie Lawson won. After he had gained a lap over the other two riders he showed up and let them get even. When it came to the final sprint he went ahead and won. The prize money was $100.00. Kramer and Clarke and Pye and Lawson were in a combination and took all the prize money. In the final sprint Kramer won with ease. W. E. Samuelson rode one mile and then dropped out.

The five-mile motor race was an exciting affair. Gussie Lawson won. After he had gained a lap over the other two riders he showed up and let them get even. When it came to the final sprint he went ahead and won. The prize money was $100.00. Kramer and Clarke and Pye and Lawson were in a combination and took all the prize money. In the final sprint Kramer won with ease. W. E. Samuelson rode one mile and then dropped out.

The five-mile motor race was an exciting affair. Gussie Lawson won. After he had gained a lap over the other two riders he showed up and let them get even. When it came to the final sprint he went ahead and won. The prize money was $100.00. Kramer and Clarke and Pye and Lawson were in a combination and took all the prize money. In the final sprint Kramer won with ease. W. E. Samuelson rode one mile and then dropped out.

The five-mile motor race was an exciting affair. Gussie Lawson won. After he had gained a lap over the other two riders he showed up and let them get even. When it came to the final sprint he went ahead and won. The prize money was $100.00. Kramer and Clarke and Pye and Lawson were in a combination and took all the prize money. In the final sprint Kramer won with ease. W. E. Samuelson rode one mile and then dropped out.

The five-mile motor race was an exciting affair. Gussie Lawson won. After he had gained a lap over the other two riders he showed up and let them get even. When it came to the final sprint he went ahead and won. The prize money was $100.00. Kramer and Clarke and Pye and Lawson were in a combination and took all the prize money. In the final sprint Kramer won with ease. W. E. Samuelson rode one mile and then dropped out.

The five-mile motor race was an exciting affair. Gussie Lawson won. After he had gained a lap over the other two riders he showed up and let them get even. When it came to the final sprint he went ahead and won. The prize money was $100.00. Kramer and Clarke and Pye and Lawson were in a combination and took all the prize money. In