St. Petersburg, May 31.—The war of-fice has received a detail report of the fight at Al Yang Pien Men, about 60 miles northeast of Feng Wang Cheng, on Saturday night, in which two bat-talions of Japanese infantry and one squadron of Japanese cavalry, number-ing about 2.200 men. attacked five squadron of Japanese cavany, humber-ing about 2,200 men, attacked five squadrons of Cossacks. The Russian losses were seven Cossacks killed and one officer wounded and nine horses killed. The Cossacks were encamped 12 miles northwest of Kuan Dian Sian, which was held by several Japanese battalions, two of which and one battalions, two of which and one squadron of cavalry left May 26 for Si-amatsza. This force encountered the Cossack bivouac at 10:30 o'clock the same night and attacked the Cossacks, who retired in good order, keeping up a running fight along the road to Saim atsza. There was a great deal of firing on both sides, but, like most fighting in the dark, it was very ineffective, as shown by the smallness of the Russian losses. It is believed that the Japanese did not sustain any greater cas-ualties, but according to one account the majority of the Japanese squadron was wiped out. After reaching Sa-maitsza May 29 the Japanese return-ed to Kuan Dian Sian, apparently not liking the vicinity of the Cossacks and the posisbility of Gen. Rennenkampfs bringing up reinforcements. The war office attributes little importance to this engagement, which was heralded from Tokio as a Japanese victory.

STRENGTH OF JAPS ENGAGED.

St. Petersburg, May 31, 6 p. m .- There St. Petersburg, May 31, 6 p. m.-There Is considerable talk in unofficial cir-cles regarding the strength of the Japanese force which engaged the Cos-sacks at Ai Yang Pien Men. to propel them. Considering that a very great part of the city's popula-tion turned out at one time and that they practically all they practically all wanted cars at the same time, the service was unpre-cedentedly good. But the Tribune does not think so. At least, it doesn't say so. It knows better, however. In the interest of the plain truth, the Des eret News, knowing what the facts were, from inquiry and observation on part of several of its reporters ed Mr. Campbell for a statement What he says should make an im-pression upon any fair minded man This is his statement:

This is his statement: "Well, I want to say this at the out-set. There never has been a time in the history of either the railroad of light company when better service was given than that which was afford ed yesterday. So satisfactory was it that I made it my business to person-ally congratulate all heads of departments over the excellent results of the lay. This talk is not made to smooth over anything or deceive anybody. It is the plain truth. The statement that we did not have power enough is ridiculous. Thank goodness that difficulty has been overcome. The are we had more power than Was necessary; more than we could handle Our engineers know that; all the engineers of the city who have given th geneers of the city who have given the matter any thought know that is the case now. So the charge to the con-trary is simply ridfeulous. ABOUT STOPPING THE CARS.

"The complaint about stopping the cars during the parade," continued Mr Campbell, "is not well grounded. Let me explain; You will note that the nishing cars during the parade praises and quite properly the G. A. R. veterans and others who took part in the procession for the fine showing they made. But they don't say that our company did much to make that fine showing possi-ble. Here are the facts: Some days ago the G. A. R. officials asked us if ve would not stop our cars during the progress of the parade. We informed them that we would be glad to do so but for the fact that the public want ed service parade or no parade. How ever we listened to them and said we would do what we could but gave no definite answer. Then came a request from the mayor of the city through the chief of police asking that the powe be shut off for half or three quarter of an hour. Still there was a further request the latter coming from the commandant at Fort Douglas who stated that unless the cars were stop ped on the principal street during th parade the horses would become frigh ened disarrange the column and othe wise interefere with the processie indeed, it would not endanger the lives of pedestrians. continued Mr. Campbell, "we in formed the chief of police that these re formed the chief of police that these re-spective requests would be compiled with, to the best of our ability. Of course this delay, which was for about 45 minutes, unset all the time tables, as none of the cars could come into, or go out of the principal streets while the procession was in progress. Im-mediately after the streets were clear-ed sufficiently to admit of the resump-tion of car service, it was done and tion of car service, it was done, and from that time on, throughout the res of the day, there was scarcely a break of a minute. As I have already said, the power was ample, in fact, more than we needed. Without exception, it was the biggest Decoration day street car service ever given in Sait Lake, and one of the top-notch days in the history of the company. Just why, in view of these facts, and the common knowledge that the service was upped of the day, there was scarcely a breal knowledge that the service was unpre-

GRAVES DESECRATED.

Thieves Denude the Breeden Burial Plot in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Maj. Breedon went to Mt. Olivet cemetery and at great care and expense decorated the family burial plot with potted plants and out flowers. The roses she put in large water bottles while the other flowers were placed in household vases, the whole making a magnificent show-ing and one which the lady was justly proud of on its completion. She left the cemetery about 1 o'clock congratuating herself that she had spared no pains to make the plot look just as beautiful and attractive as possible. At 4 o'clock not a vestige of the dec-erations was left, the flowers, the potted plants, the water bottles and the vases having been stolen bodily from the graves. Needless to say Mrs. the graves, recenters to say area. Breeden felt keenly the injustice done ber and reported her loss to those in charge.
