

SOCIETY

SOCIAL FLORIAN

An exceptionally pretty luncheon was given by Mrs. R. E. McConaughy on Thursday, the decorations being carried out in violet and green, the centerpiece being a handsome silver candelabra with violet-tinted candles, while tall vases shaded in the two colors holding bouquets of violets were on either hand, and single sprays of the flowers were strewn over the cloth which was of Mexican hand-drawn work over Nile green satin. The place cards were done in hand-painted violets. Present were Mrs. Everett Buckingham, Miss Harriet Dunster, Mrs. John Cain, Mrs. B. A. McMillen, Mrs. O. H. Kistner, Mrs. A. H. Boxrud, Mrs. John Delano, Mrs. A. H. Boxrud, Mrs. John Reed, Mrs. Hal W. Brown and Mrs. A. J. Homer.

A delightful informal dancing party was given at the Ladies' Literary club house last night by a number of young people, the committee in charge being Wallace Bredemeyer, Albert McCormick and Ben Siegel, and the affair being chaperoned by Lieut. and Mrs. Easton.

Paul and Malcolm Keyson entertained informally tonight at their home.

Mrs. Emmett Moore entertained the members of her card club this week.

Miss Jessie Home gave a delightful evening party on Wednesday night in honor of her brother Will, the guests being chiefly high school students and the rooms being decorated in the red and black. The invited guests were Miss Maud Riter, Miss Marie Wells, Miss Margaret Parsons, Miss Jean Williams, Miss Henrietta Wallace, Miss Clara Holt, Miss Helen Boes, Miss Edna Shepard, Miss Hortense Lockhart, Messrs. Roy Coates, John Loofbrow, Venero Grant, Clay Wallace, Paul Stevenson, Clifton Lockhart, Carol Binta, Alvaro Mayne, Jack Clawson, Denny Woolf, Harold Cahoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Kingsbury have an evening party on Wednesday night in compliment to the three fraternities of the U. of U., the rooms being bright with flowers and about 60 guests being present.

Mrs. Edwin McGurran gave a luncheon at the Commercial club on Tuesday afternoon taking her party to the Orpheum.

The last of the Christensen informal socials will be held next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. W. S. Leary entertained informally at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. Elliott and Miss Elliott of Kansas, covers being laid for nine. The decorations were in pink and white carnations and violets and after the luncheon an informal musicale was enjoyed.

Mrs. C. S. Vadner entertained informally at dinner yesterday in honor of Mrs. Gerard Hageman the rooms being prettily decorated in spring flowers.

Miss Deas Spencer of Ogden who has been visiting Miss Eleanor White this week was guest of honor at a luncheon on Thursday given by Mr. Joe Grant, the table being decorated in pink carnations and ferns.

Mrs. Fred Dern entertained informally at dinner on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Charles Spencer Mann, of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Porter gave a box party at the Orpheum on Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. Charles Spencer Mann, of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Porter gave a box party at the Orpheum on Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. Charles Spencer Mann.

Mrs. J. R. Walker entertains today for her niece, Miss Beatrice Cheesman.

Mrs. Allie Martineau Crismon entertained delightfully this afternoon in honor of Miss Josephine Wells, the rooms being prettily decorated for the event and about 25 guests being present.

Next Saturday Mrs. Benjamin White will be hostess at a luncheon to be given in honor of Miss Josephine Wells at the Commercial club.

Mrs. J. R. Walker entertained at a bridge tea on Wednesday in honor of Miss Blanch Burke the rooms being bright with flowers and the following guests enjoying the afternoon: Mrs. R. H. Channing, Mrs. Louis McCormick, Mrs. George Jay Gibson, Mrs. Seton Lindsay, Mrs. J. M. Bidwell, Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. Ernest Hamberger, Miss Burke, Miss Geddes, Miss McGrath, Miss Zane, Miss Kate Williams. Prizes were won by Miss McGrath and Miss Geddes.

Mrs. Ira H. Lewis gave an informal musicale on Wednesday about 15 guests being present.

Miss Helen Hamberger and Miss Juliet Marks were guests of honor on Thursday at a Kensington given by Miss Martha Watters, the guests numbering about 30. The decorations were in violets and marguerites, and each guest brought a dolly to embroider separately in the two flowers, the best work receiving a prize, and the dolly being presented to the prospective brides. Miss Elizabeth Weltz was prizewinner.

Miss Etta Wagner entertained at supper at her home last night, her guests being members of her gymnasium class of the Y. M. C. A. Afterward the party went to the club room and enjoyed the usual exercises.

On Tuesday afternoon the Misses Barnett gave a party at the Orpheum, followed by a dinner at their home, about 17 guests being present.

One of the pleasant affairs of the week was the surprise party held at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Dorcas on Monday night about 50 friends gathering there and enjoying a delightful evening.

On Tuesday night Miss Selma Sandberg was pleasantly surprised by about 20 friends who met together unannounced at her home.

Clarence McCormick entertained a number of friends informally at dinner on Monday night at the University club.

Mr. Samuel Newhouse was host at two theater parties this week, the first at the Salt Lake Theater on Monday night, followed by a supper at his home given in honor of Miss Florence Roberts, and the second at the Orpheum in honor of his niece, Miss Leila Stingley, the party being also entertained at supper afterward.

Mrs. H. C. Edwards entertained the Third Street Card club yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Warren gave a delightful dinner party on Monday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis.

Miss Alice E. Rowe entertained the College club on Thursday, a literary program being among the features of the afternoon. Refreshments were served. Miss Emily Closson, Miss Frances Russell and Miss Emily Curtis assisting. Covers were laid for 20.

On Wednesday Mrs. Ralph Guthrie entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Elliott and Miss Elliott of Kansas, the rooms being prettily decorated, and about 15 guests enjoying the afternoon.

Miss Clara White entertained at an informal evening party at her home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicol gave a dinner on

Downey, who is now stationed at the Presidio, but who has been ordered to the Philippines will sail from San Francisco with his family July 5.

Miss Emma Ridgely of St. Louis is visiting Mrs. H. C. Brownlee.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Travis left this week for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Graham are now at home at 142 Center street.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Cates of Bingham are at the Whitehall for a few days.

Judge and Mrs. C. S. Zane have returned from California.

Mrs. R. C. Hill and little daughter have gone to Omaha for a three weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hagenbarth returned from a six weeks' trip to California this week.

Mrs. J. F. Grant, Jr., is in the city for a stay of a fortnight with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Grant on Sixth East street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Armstrong have returned from a month's visit in the east.

Mrs. E. M. Allison spent Wednesday in Ogden with friends.

Mrs. W. G. Filer is back from the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chambers Dick have returned to Bingham after a short visit in the city.

Mrs. E. E. Shepherd is visiting friends in Mt. Pleasant for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Cuno of Denver, formerly of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Holman of New York, the party afterward attending the theater.

Delaney Wilson celebrated his 21st birthday anniversary on Tuesday night in a pleasant party at which about 50 guests were entertained. The rooms were elaborately decorated, the parlor in streamers of pale yellow paper with tulle of red and yellow, while the hall of the same shades were about the room. The other rooms were in green and red, hearts being strung about and the table having pink roses and carnations. A most enjoyable time was spent.

The home of W. W. Burton on the corner of Monroe and Twenty-fifth street was the scene Thursday evening of a very delightful event, the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. W. W. Burton and Rachel Burton. A large number of their numerous posterity assembled in the spacious parlors, where they spent a joyous time in singing songs, socializing and partaking of a bounteous repast. Mr. and Mrs. Burton were heartily congratulated on the celebration of their golden wedding under such glowing conditions, their wedded life having been one of happiness and prosperity, blessed by a large number of children and grandchildren, of whom any parents could be justly proud. All present joined in wishing the honored host and hostess many more years of joy and prosperity.

Miss Emily Brown, a popular young lady of Salt Lake City, and J. F. Hericks of San Francisco, were married in Ogden Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of the Methodist church, Rev. Samuel Blair officiating.

Wednesday afternoon the Ladies' auxiliary to the B. of R. T. gave a very entertaining card party at the K. of P. hall, which was well attended. After cards the ladies served a delicious lunch.

Ogden lodge No. 2 Knights of Pythias have arranged for an entertainment, to be given next Monday evening at their hall, for which they have issued a large number of invitations. The principal pleasures of the evening will be cards and dancing, after which dainty refreshments will be served.

Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Brick returned home this week from a three weeks' delightful outing in California.

An enjoyable dancing party was given last evening at the First ward hall in honor of Helen Warner, who will depart in the near future on a mission to Scotland. A large number of his young friends participated in the evening's pleasures.

T. H. Carr and wife, who have been to the coast on an extended pleasure trip, returned home this week.

Miss Cella M. McCord left Ogden Thursday for a month's tour of the coast.

A literary treat of great merit was enjoyed this week at the Ogden tabernacle by a large and appreciative audience, who attentively listened to the beautiful dramatic readings given by Prof. S. H. Clark of Chicago, under the auspices of the Weber Stake academy. Prof. Clark is a man of great literary attainment, has a for-

able voice, and a most pleasing delivery.

Miss Pearl Snyder has had as her guest this week her cousin, Miss Ruby Thompson of Salt Lake City.

Henry C. Tavey and wife, who have been spending a month on the coast, returned home the early part of the week.

Miss Cora C. Beus, a very popular and charming young lady of Burch Creek, was married this week in the Salt Lake Temple to J. P. Kendall of South Weber.

The ladies of the Marches were pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Linsley on Wall avenue.

The young lady employees of the various offices in the city hall building were the guests Wednesday evening of Col. John V. Nelson at a theater party given at the Utah. The ladies who enjoyed the play of "Carmen" were Miss Nellie Tackett, Mrs. Florence O'Neill Stanford, Miss Louise Wilcox, Miss Anna Carr and Miss McGregor.

The Aglaia met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. A. Dickson on Fowler avenue. A most interesting program of papers on current topics was rendered. Dainty refreshments were served by the charming hostess.

Mrs. W. H. Hinton and Mrs. Blackmar left for the east Thursday to visit for a short time at Denver and Chicago.

President L. W. Shurtliff returned home this week from the east.

PROVO.

The program of the Nineteenth Century club for this week was the election of officers for the ensuing year. The meeting was held with Mrs. C. O. Newell.

The Sorosis met Wednesday, with Mrs. E. D. Partridge and enjoyed two interesting papers on "The Hopes and Fears of Childhood," presented by Mrs. R. K. Irvine, Jr., and Mrs. Pearl Yates.

The Pallas club met Thursday evening with Miss Leah Pyne and gave a china shower in honor of Miss Ethel Haws. The rooms were tastefully draped in the club colors, garnet and cream, and decorated with a profusion of flowers. An interesting program was rendered and delicious refreshments were served.

The Pricella Art Club held a very pleasant session Thursday, with Miss Beale Eastmond. Thursday evening, the regular art program was carried through and dainty refreshments were enjoyed.

On Sunday a number of the relatives and friends of Mrs. H. S. Pyne will be her guests in the celebration of her 23rd wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Thornhill of Olmstead, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Katz this week.

Miss Elsie Moore has gone to Salt Lake to make her home for a time, she having taken a position in the business department of the St. Mark's hospital.

The first year students of the B. Y. U. gave one of their enjoyable dancing parties at the gymnasium Thursday evening.

Miss Hazel Taylor and Miss Birdie Cluff, gave a Kensington Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Taylor in Denyer, formerly of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Holman of New York, the party afterward attending the theater.

Delaney Wilson celebrated his 21st birthday anniversary on Tuesday night in a pleasant party at which about 50 guests were entertained. The rooms were elaborately decorated, the parlor in streamers of pale yellow paper with tulle of red and yellow, while the hall of the same shades were about the room. The other rooms were in green and red, hearts being strung about and the table having pink roses and carnations. A most enjoyable time was spent.

The home of W. W. Burton on the corner of Monroe and Twenty-fifth street was the scene Thursday evening of a very delightful event, the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. W. W. Burton and Rachel Burton. A large number of their numerous posterity assembled in the spacious parlors, where they spent a joyous time in singing songs, socializing and partaking of a bounteous repast. Mr. and Mrs. Burton were heartily congratulated on the celebration of their golden wedding under such glowing conditions, their wedded life having been one of happiness and prosperity, blessed by a large number of children and grandchildren, of whom any parents could be justly proud. All present joined in wishing the honored host and hostess many more years of joy and prosperity.

Miss Emily Brown, a popular young lady of Salt Lake City, and J. F. Hericks of San Francisco, were married in Ogden Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of the Methodist church, Rev. Samuel Blair officiating.

Wednesday afternoon the Ladies' auxiliary to the B. of R. T. gave a very entertaining card party at the K. of P. hall, which was well attended. After cards the ladies served a delicious lunch.

Ogden lodge No. 2 Knights of Pythias have arranged for an entertainment, to be given next Monday evening at their hall, for which they have issued a large number of invitations. The principal pleasures of the evening will be cards and dancing, after which dainty refreshments will be served.

Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Brick returned home this week from a three weeks' delightful outing in California.

An enjoyable dancing party was given last evening at the First ward hall in honor of Helen Warner, who will depart in the near future on a mission to Scotland. A large number of his young friends participated in the evening's pleasures.

T. H. Carr and wife, who have been to the coast on an extended pleasure trip, returned home this week.

Miss Cella M. McCord left Ogden Thursday for a month's tour of the coast.

A literary treat of great merit was enjoyed this week at the Ogden tabernacle by a large and appreciative audience, who attentively listened to the beautiful dramatic readings given by Prof. S. H. Clark of Chicago, under the auspices of the Weber Stake academy. Prof. Clark is a man of great literary attainment, has a for-

able voice, and a most pleasing delivery.

Miss Pearl Snyder has had as her guest this week her cousin, Miss Ruby Thompson of Salt Lake City.

Henry C. Tavey and wife, who have been spending a month on the coast, returned home the early part of the week.

Miss Cora C. Beus, a very popular and charming young lady of Burch Creek, was married this week in the Salt Lake Temple to J. P. Kendall of South Weber.

The ladies of the Marches were pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Linsley on Wall avenue.

The young lady employees of the various offices in the city hall building were the guests Wednesday evening of Col. John V. Nelson at a theater party given at the Utah. The ladies who enjoyed the play of "Carmen" were Miss Nellie Tackett, Mrs. Florence O'Neill Stanford, Miss Louise Wilcox, Miss Anna Carr and Miss McGregor.

The Aglaia met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. A. Dickson on Fowler avenue. A most interesting program of papers on current topics was rendered. Dainty refreshments were served by the charming hostess.

Mrs. W. H. Hinton and Mrs. Blackmar left for the east Thursday to visit for a short time at Denver and Chicago.

President L. W. Shurtliff returned home this week from the east.

PROVO.

The program of the Nineteenth Century club for this week was the election of officers for the ensuing year. The meeting was held with Mrs. C. O. Newell.

The Sorosis met Wednesday, with Mrs. E. D. Partridge and enjoyed two interesting papers on "The Hopes and Fears of Childhood," presented by Mrs. R. K. Irvine, Jr., and Mrs. Pearl Yates.

The Pallas club met Thursday evening with Miss Leah Pyne and gave a china shower in honor of Miss Ethel Haws. The rooms were tastefully draped in the club colors, garnet and cream, and decorated with a profusion of flowers. An interesting program was rendered and delicious refreshments were served.

The Pricella Art Club held a very pleasant session Thursday, with Miss Beale Eastmond. Thursday evening, the regular art program was carried through and dainty refreshments were enjoyed.

On Sunday a number of the relatives and friends of Mrs. H. S. Pyne will be her guests in the celebration of her 23rd wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Thornhill of Olmstead, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Katz this week.

Miss Elsie Moore has gone to Salt Lake to make her home for a time, she having taken a position in the business department of the St. Mark's hospital.

The first year students of the B. Y. U. gave one of their enjoyable dancing parties at the gymnasium Thursday evening.

Miss Hazel Taylor and Miss Birdie Cluff, gave a Kensington Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Taylor in

LEAVES FROM OLD ALBUMS.

SARA ALEXANDER 40 YEARS AGO.

This picture of the once famous Utah danseuse and actress will rouse many pleasant memories on the part of pioneer theater goers. In the late sixties and early seventies, no bill at the Salt Lake Theater was complete that did not have an olio between the play and the farce, with "Sara" as the dancing feature. Miss Alexander never married, but now resides in New York with her ward, Lisle Leigh, a successful actress, whom she has raised from childhood. The picture is reproduced from a photo in the possession of John Maguire.

cible voice, and a most pleasing delivery.

Miss Pearl Snyder has had as her guest this week her cousin, Miss Ruby Thompson of Salt Lake City.

Henry C. Tavey and wife, who have been spending a month on the coast, returned home the early part of the week.

Miss Cora C. Beus, a very popular and charming young lady of Burch Creek, was married this week in the Salt Lake Temple to J. P. Kendall of South Weber.

The ladies of the Marches were pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Linsley on Wall avenue.

The young lady employees of the various offices in the city hall building were the guests Wednesday evening of Col. John V. Nelson at a theater party given at the Utah. The ladies who enjoyed the play of "Carmen" were Miss Nellie Tackett, Mrs. Florence O'Neill Stanford, Miss Louise Wilcox, Miss Anna Carr and Miss McGregor.

The Aglaia met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. A. Dickson on Fowler avenue. A most interesting program of papers on current topics was rendered. Dainty refreshments were served by the charming hostess.

Mrs. W. H. Hinton and Mrs. Blackmar left for the east Thursday to visit for a short time at Denver and Chicago.

President L. W. Shurtliff returned home this week from the east.

PROVO.

The program of the Nineteenth Century club for this week was the election of officers for the ensuing year. The meeting was held with Mrs. C. O. Newell.

The Sorosis met Wednesday, with Mrs. E. D. Partridge and enjoyed two interesting papers on "The Hopes and Fears of Childhood," presented by Mrs. R. K. Irvine, Jr., and Mrs. Pearl Yates.

The Pallas club met Thursday evening with Miss Leah Pyne and gave a china shower in honor of Miss Ethel Haws. The rooms were tastefully draped in the club colors, garnet and cream, and decorated with a profusion of flowers. An interesting program was rendered and delicious refreshments were served.

The Pricella Art Club held a very pleasant session Thursday, with Miss Beale Eastmond. Thursday evening, the regular art program was carried through and dainty refreshments were enjoyed.

On Sunday a number of the relatives and friends of Mrs. H. S. Pyne will be her guests in the celebration of her 23rd wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Thornhill of Olmstead, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Katz this week.

Miss Elsie Moore has gone to Salt Lake to make her home for a time, she having taken a position in the business department of the St. Mark's hospital.

The first year students of the B. Y. U. gave one of their enjoyable dancing parties at the gymnasium Thursday evening.

Miss Hazel Taylor and Miss Birdie Cluff, gave a Kensington Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Taylor in Denyer, formerly of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Holman of New York, the party afterward attending the theater.

Delaney Wilson celebrated his 21st birthday anniversary on Tuesday night in a pleasant party at which about 50 guests were entertained. The rooms were elaborately decorated, the parlor in streamers of pale yellow paper with tulle of red and yellow, while the hall of the same shades were about the room. The other rooms were in green and red, hearts being strung about and the table having pink roses and carnations. A most enjoyable time was spent.

The home of W. W. Burton on the corner of Monroe and Twenty-fifth street was the scene Thursday evening of a very delightful event, the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. W. W. Burton and Rachel Burton. A large number of their numerous posterity assembled in the spacious parlors, where they spent a joyous time in singing songs, socializing and partaking of a bounteous repast. Mr. and Mrs. Burton were heartily congratulated on the celebration of their golden wedding under such glowing conditions, their wedded life having been one of happiness and prosperity, blessed by a large number of children and grandchildren, of whom any parents could be justly proud. All present joined in wishing the honored host and hostess many more years of joy and prosperity.

Miss Emily Brown, a popular young lady of Salt Lake City, and J. F. Hericks of San Francisco, were married in Ogden Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of the Methodist church, Rev. Samuel Blair officiating.

Wednesday afternoon the Ladies' auxiliary to the B. of R. T. gave a very entertaining card party at the K. of P. hall, which was well attended. After cards the ladies served a delicious lunch.

Ogden lodge No. 2 Knights of Pythias have arranged for an entertainment, to be given next Monday evening at their hall, for which they have issued a large number of invitations. The principal pleasures of the evening will be cards and dancing, after which dainty refreshments will be served.

Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Brick returned home this week from a three weeks' delightful outing in California.

An enjoyable dancing party was given last evening at the First ward hall in honor of Helen Warner, who will depart in the near future on a mission to Scotland. A large number of his young friends participated in the evening's pleasures.

T. H. Carr and wife, who have been to the coast on an extended pleasure trip, returned home this week.

Miss Cella M. McCord left Ogden Thursday for a month's tour of the coast.

A literary treat of great merit was enjoyed this week at the Ogden tabernacle by a large and appreciative audience, who attentively listened to the beautiful dramatic readings given by Prof. S. H. Clark of Chicago, under the auspices of the Weber Stake academy. Prof. Clark is a man of great literary attainment, has a for-

able voice, and a most pleasing delivery.

Miss Pearl Snyder has had as her guest this week her cousin, Miss Ruby Thompson of Salt Lake City.

Henry C. Tavey and wife, who have been spending a month on the coast, returned home the early part of the week.

Miss Cora C. Beus, a very popular and charming young lady of Burch Creek, was married this week in the Salt Lake Temple to J. P. Kendall of South Weber.

The ladies of the Marches were pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Linsley on Wall avenue.

The young lady employees of the various offices in the city hall building were the guests Wednesday evening of Col. John V. Nelson at a theater party given at the Utah. The ladies who enjoyed the play of "Carmen" were Miss Nellie Tackett, Mrs. Florence O'Neill Stanford, Miss Louise Wilcox, Miss Anna Carr and Miss McGregor.

The Aglaia met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. A. Dickson on Fowler avenue. A most interesting program of papers on current topics was rendered. Dainty refreshments were served by the charming hostess.

Mrs. W. H. Hinton and Mrs. Blackmar left for the east Thursday to visit for a short time at Denver and Chicago.

President L. W. Shurtliff returned home this week from the east.

PROVO.

The program of the Nineteenth Century club for this week was the election of officers for the ensuing year. The meeting was held with Mrs. C. O. Newell.

The Sorosis met Wednesday, with Mrs. E. D. Partridge and enjoyed two interesting papers on "The Hopes and Fears of Childhood," presented by Mrs. R. K. Irvine, Jr., and Mrs. Pearl Yates.

The Pallas club met Thursday evening with Miss Leah Pyne and gave a china shower in honor of Miss Ethel Haws. The rooms were tastefully draped in the club colors, garnet and cream, and decorated with a profusion of flowers. An interesting program was rendered and delicious refreshments were served.

The Pricella Art Club held a very pleasant session Thursday, with Miss Beale Eastmond. Thursday evening, the regular art program was carried through and dainty refreshments were enjoyed.

On Sunday a number of the relatives and friends of Mrs. H. S. Pyne will be her guests in the celebration of her 23rd wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Thornhill of Olmstead, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Katz this week.

Miss Elsie Moore has gone to Salt Lake to make her home for a time, she having taken a position in the business department of the St. Mark's hospital.

The first year students of the B. Y. U. gave one of their enjoyable dancing parties at the gymnasium Thursday evening.

Miss Hazel Taylor and Miss Birdie Cluff, gave a Kensington Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Taylor in Denyer, formerly of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Holman of New York, the party afterward attending the theater.

Delaney Wilson celebrated his 21st birthday anniversary on Tuesday night in a pleasant party at which about 50 guests were entertained. The rooms were elaborately decorated, the parlor in streamers of pale yellow paper with tulle of red and yellow, while the hall of the same shades were about the room. The other rooms were in green and red, hearts being strung about and the table having pink roses and carnations. A most enjoyable time was spent.

The home of W. W. Burton on the corner of Monroe and Twenty-fifth street was the scene Thursday evening of a very delightful event, the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. W. W. Burton and Rachel Burton. A