The people of the country were being urged to "suffit" severely by the "agents" on route from Ogden until enough garrisons being sent and supplies generally being brought in.

Upon receiving the appeal Mayor Hines and the body of city commissioners who gave permission for those of Davis Park and a force of 100 men to proceed to any point would be taken to the authorities and Indians in order to make the officers of Davis county were satisfied.

The members of the county court of Davis had a session this afternoon, the result of which was that the Indians in Northern will not be authorized to buy the further services of the Indians of Salt Lake City, and prevent them from entering Davis county again. Thomas is regarded as almost a necessity for the defense of the people.
