

OUR OGDEN LETTER.

OGDEN CITY, Utah,
August 25th, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

This has been indeed a remarkable year thus far for casualties, untimely deaths and

TERRIBLE ACCIDENTS.

And this part of the country has been no exception to the rule for Weber County has had her share of them.

Your numerous readers will remember that a short time since I sent you the full particulars of the sudden death by drowning of Brother James T. Rutter, at Alma, West Weber, which deprived an excellent family of a husband and father. To-day his daughter, a young woman about seventeen years of age, met with a terrible accident while engaged in washing for a family who reside on Young Street in this city. Just how it occurred is not certain, she herself thinks that a spark of fire flew from the stove and caused her clothes to ignite, while others think it was caused by the

EXPLOSION

of a can of coal oil which had been standing near the stove. Whichever it was, she was soon enveloped in flames, and at once commenced to throw off her clothing. But this did not avail much for she is very severely burned, about her arms and various parts of her body. Her screams soon brought assistance, the flames were extinguished, Dr. Powers was called in and he did all he could for the comfort of the sufferer. Shortly after she was removed to the residence of

MR. AMBROSE GREENWELL, SR.,

(who is now incarcerated in the Penitentiary for violating the Edmunds law). There the unfortunate young lady will receive all the attention and assistance that the kindness for which Mrs. Greenwell is proverbial, can suggest. Now the matter will terminate we cannot say at present, but it is hoped and believed she will recover, although it may be some considerable time first. She is as comfortable as can be expected under the circumstances.

THE BURGLARS

are not all caught yet. This light-fingered, shop-lifting, house-breaking fraternity make their nocturnal rounds in pursuit of their profession, and attempt to enter clandestinely the dwellings of our citizens while the latter are locked in the arms of Morpheus. But during the heated term their slumbers have been light, and they were easily awakened, and the midnight marauders have frequently been disturbed in their operations and fled, some followed by leaden missiles, which unfortunately did not overtake them. But it scared some of them badly.

No serious robberies have occurred lately, but it is through no fault of the thieving rascals who infest our city. Although some of them thus far have escaped the vigilance of our peace officers, it is only a matter of time when they will gather them up.

Nearly everybody of a dozen years residence in Ogden remembers Colonel Peter Saxe. Formerly his visits to this place were frequent, and he did considerable business with some of the citizens of this county. He is here now with his excellent wife. The Col. has purchased several carloads of from Holstein. They are en route and will arrive here in a day or two, when he will accompany them to the golden State. He is surprised to see the wonderful growth of the junction city. But I do not see why the Colonel should be so surprised, knowing as he does the enterprise and go-ahead-iveness of the Ogdenites. Wait till the junction railroad buildings are erected and then?

PURE BLOODED CATTLE

WEBER.

MORGAN STAKE CONFERENCE

The Quarterly Conference of Morgan Stake of Zion convened in the Stake House, Morgan City, August 21st and 22d, 1886.

On Saturday morning the speakers were President W. G. Smith and Jas. Tucker.

In the afternoon the speakers were Patriarch Alma Porter, Elder John Croft, Richard R. Fry (returned missionary) and Bishop Oluf B. Anderson.

On Sunday morning the Bishops with one exception reported their wards favorably.

Brother R. Collet, a visitor and returned missionary, delivered a powerful discourse on the atonement.

In the afternoon, after the usual opening exercises, the statistical report was read.

President Samuel Francis spoke upon economy.

Apostle H. J. Grant felt pleased to be able to assemble with the people of this Stake. He showed the great need of the Saints attending their meetings that they might obtain the spiritual food so necessary to sustain them. He spoke of the trial the Saints were passing through. The world call us fanatical, priest-ridden, with no minds of our own, and exclusive. These assertions he denied. The reason we were thus spoken of was because our position before God and men was not understood. Heread a portion of Section 121, Doe and Coy., showing "That the rights of the Priesthood are inseparably connected with the powers of heaven, and that the powers of heaven cannot be controlled nor handled, only upon the principle of righteousness." They may be conferred upon us, it is true, but when we undertake to cover our sins, or to gratify our pride, or vain ambition, or to exercise control, or dominion, or compulsion, upon the souls of the children of men, in any degree of unrighteousness, behold, the heavens withdraw themselves, the spirit of the Lord is grieved; and when it is withdrawn, amen to the Priesthood or authority of that man.

He said we are not exclusive, for all even those who were persecuting us, would be redeemed in the Lord's own due time, even all but those who deny the Holy Ghost after having received it.

The Conference was adjourned for three months, Benediction by Patriarch Alma Porter.

C. KINGSTON, Clerk.

Delicate persons, and all whose systems have become debilitated, should bear in mind that Simmons Liver Regulator is not a drastic, purging medicine, does not weaken or deplete the system as other purgatives do, but acts gently. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but it is no intoxicating beverage to lead to intemperance; will promote digestion, dissipate headache, and generally tone up the system.

Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, of Ga., says: "Simmons Liver Regulator is mild and suits me better than more active remedies."

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store.
