THE CONSOLIDATED JEFFERSON

THE CONSOLIDATED SEPERATION The Consolidated Jefferson Mining company has been carrying on a quiet, but effective campaign of development at its properties near the mouth of Little Cottonwood canyon for some time past. The results have been highly gratifying to officials of the company who have reported a shipment of ore at the Pioneer sampler at Sandy. The property now owned by the Con-at the Pioneer sumpler at Sandy. The property now owned by the Con-solidated Jefferson was formerly in possession of the New State Mining company and has been productive of quite a little gold ore in the past. A large block of the stock is owned by citizons of Nebraska. duite a fifthe gold ore large block of the sto citizens of Nebraska.

COPPER MARKET CONDITIONS.

The copper markets indicates that time is near for consummion to catch up with production, says an eastern financial exchange, and if copper is not turned out too fast it is declared, there is a good prospect that the mar-ket gradually will become more set-tied and gain in strength. A stable condition of affairs will stimulate buying and tend to bring up the vol-ume of business to a healthy level. Heavy selling to Europe has relieved ume of business to a healthy level. Heavy selling to Europe has relieved the congestion in supplies in the United States, thereby leaving a reduced ton-mage for domestic buyers. But the market it is asserted cannot be ex-pected to have a pronounced rulse un-til consumption in this country is on at least a 10-hour day basis. ----

It is asserted by men whose judg-it is good that the average cost of It is asserted by men where yourse yourse ment is good that the average cost of Amalgamated copper is below 10 cents per pound, including refining and sell-ing. The Amalgamated markets not only its own copper but also that of the North Butte and Butte Coalition com-panies. The two latter companies are mining a quality of ore that for rich-ness in copper has never been equalled in Butte, and but for the fact that they are required to mix with it a lower grade, almost waste, to meet certain imposed conditions, they could market copper at a cost so low that the figures would raise a storm of doubt in other mining districts. The fact is that the extreme high cost of Butte copper during the past two years was due entirely to the heavy ex-penditures for immense new plants and improvements. In the case of the North Butte company the great amount of exploration and development work Total. $84,000. An accident to the oil drill outfit that has been in operation in the Vir-gin City field on the H. H. Clark tract has caused a temperary shut-down. It has been necessary to send east for certain equipment needed and it will probably be two or three weeks before work will be resumed again.

of exploration and development work ran the cost up, but that work has been carried many years in advance.

THOMAS WEIR HOME.

Thomas Weir, one of the local di-rectors of the Ohio Copper company, arrived home from the east last night and left for Bingham early this mornand left for Bingham early this morn-ing to look over conditions at the Ute cooper mine. Mr. Welr has been in conference with the leading interests in Ohio Copper in New York and the impression has gone out that the af-fairs of the big copper enterprise are about to be finally rounded out.

Whitney Company There was quite a change made today on the Warm Springs-State Prison street car line, whereby new cars were substituted for the old cars that have been running there. This could not be done before because of the condition of the tracks on Ninth East street which have now been rebuilt. The company will double its regular service tomo-row, on account of its being Decoration day. Extra cars will be run to the cemeteries as long as the crowds call for the service, and extras will be run to the railroad depots to accommodate the resort excursionists. As fast as new cars are but into service, the older cars are being taken into the shops for repairing and repainting. There was quite a change made today LOOK FOR "PEEPING TOM."
