THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Wasatch summer resort will open June 1 next, after being overhauled and improved.

There will be services in the Jewish temple this evening, with preaching by Rabbi Reynolds.

The Ladies' Democratic club held a well attended social last evening, with Mrs. S. B. Newman, where cards and refreshments were indulged in.

McKean post, G. A. R., will hold a memorial service in the Jennings block, next Tuesday evening, when Rev. Dr. Pinkerton will make the address.

Architect C. M. Neuhausen has completed plans for the erection of a two-story brick and stone business structure for the Twin Falls Land & Water company at the head of La Snake river plant. It will cost $7,500.

Rev. John R. Matthews of Oxford, Eng., who is in this country, will hold special revival services at St. Paul's Episcopal church in this city all of next week, beginning Sunday, with a Bible reading daily at 4 p. m.

Gerald A. Lowe, residing at 257 east Fourth south street, was examined as to his sanity yesterday afternoon by County Clerk James, District Attorney Smith and Drs. Mayo and Odell, and committed to the state mental hospital at Provo.

Editor H. J. Titus of the Seattle Socialist spoke last night, at the Board of Trade building on "The Labor Problem." He was listened to by a small audience. Mr. Titus is en route home from Chicago where he attended the National Socialist convention.

Rev. Dr. C. B. Clark of North Dakota, who was to have delivered the memorial day address in this city, writes Department Commander Clark, his brother, that he will be unable to appear, so Rev. Dr. J. H. Talbot, supt. of the Utah Methodist mission, has been selected to take his place.

Miss Belle Olsen, daughter of Dr. Olsen of Murray, who graduated as a trained nurse last January and went to Sacramento, Cal., some three months ago where she was employed as a nurse in the S. P. hospital, underwent a successful operation for appendicitis on the 18th inst. Miss Olsen is well known in Salt Lake and her friends here will hope for her speedy recovery.

Two French farces were given last evening, at Rowland hall, by the pupils under the direction of Miss Henrietta English. The members of the cast were: Lena R. Wall, Margaret E. Harris, Sadie Henderson, Bella C. Blyth, Hannah Le Comte, Mary Finley, Lily Grove, Margaret Lacer, Minnie C. Potter, Nellie S. Carlin, Ella L. Colthart, Hannah Le Comte.

Vandans in the shape of hoodlums have wantonly destroyed the model flower, shrub and vegetable gardens at the Riverside school which the pupils set out on Arbor day with such thoughtful care, and the beauty of the pupils are now much broken over the loss. The authorities are certain that the vandals are not connected with the Riverside school. The police have been asked to investigate.

Mrs. C. H. Marshall dropped a $20 bill and several small articles from her purse yesterday afternoon, as she alighted from a car at the corner of Second south and East Temple streets. A street car conductor standing near picked up the articles and money and chased after Mrs. Marshall for half a block to restore them to her. She bought the man a fine cigar for his honesty, but failed to take his name or number.

Ex-Mayor Ezra Thompson and James D. Murphy will build a $25,000 liveable and barn in the rear of the Cullen hotel, and which will be occupied by Murphy.

Rev. Alexander Murray, who claims to be a Scotch Presbyterian clergyman, but at variance with the church in this country, is to speak in the First ward meetinghouse next Sunday night, on "How to know and serve God." He is anxious that all Scotch persons and persons of Scotch descent should come to hear him. Mr. Murray says that he has been unable to secure a pastorate in the United States because the Presbyterian ministry in this country are not in accord with his doctrine.

Maj.-Gen. Samuel S. Sumner, commanding the southwest division, with headquarters at Oklahoma, arrives at Fort Douglas today, from Fort Duchesne which he has been inspecting, and will perform the same duty for this post. He will decide what further improvements are to be made before leaving. Gen. Sumner is a veteran of the Civil War, beginning as a captain in 1862, was a major-general of volunteers in 1885, and was appointed to the same rank in the regular establishment in 1903.

A second runaway hero of yesterday was a stranger who showed himself at the corner of East Temple and First south streets. While that intersection was crowded, a runaway horse, pulling a light buggy, came dashing up East Temple street. The man, whose name is unknown, made a flying leap for the buggy, landed safely, gathered up the reins and brought the horse to its haunches just before it might have dashed into a crowd of men and women standing there. The act was cheered by everybody who witnessed it, and the hero vanished.

Tom Tobin, a famous Indian scout of Kit Carson's day, is dead at Garland, Colo., at the age of 82. He was especially noted for the killing of the Espinosas, the fanatics who started out to kill as many white people as possible. Tobin was perhaps the only man they ever met who lived to tell the story. He was saved by a pocket book, which stopped the bullet. He determined to rid the frontier of the blood-thirsty creatures and succeeded one day in trailing them into a thicket and shooting them. The heads of both savages were cut off and taken into Fort Garland for exhibition by the old scout. Tobin spent much of his life as a professional trapper.

We pay 4 per cent interest per annum on $1 to $5,000. Zion's Savings Bank & Trust Co., Joseph E. Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.

BOUGHT FINE HORSE. Chief Bywater Gets Hambletonian Beauty from Kayaville.

Chief William H. Bywater of the fire department, was in Kayaville yesterday afternoon to purchase a horse for the hose wagon at No. 4.

From James Green, two miles northwest of Kayaville, the chief purchased, for $150, a handsome Cleveland and Hambletonian bay. The horse is one of the finest looking animals on the department. He weighs 1,400 pounds and is six years of age. He is thoroughly broke and is kind and gentle, and there is not a spot or a blemish on him. This morning he was cleaned up and had his first show up. The horse makes a fine appearance, and will undoubtedly prove a valuable acquisition to the department.

HAIR WON'T FALL OUT. If You Kill the Dandruff Germ With the New Treatment.

John N. Fuller, a well-known citizen of Colfax, Wash., says: "I had dandruff so badly that it itched on my scalp. Heretofore completely cured me." George H. McWhir, of Walla Walla, Wash., says: "Heretofore completely cured me of a bad case of dandruff of 30 years' standing. They took the only really reliable treatment, a remedy that destroys the dandruff germ—Newbro's Herpetide. Stop dandruff, hair won't fall out, but will grow naturally, luxuriantly, always itching instantly." One bottle will convince any doubter of its merits. Sold by leading druggists.
