

SAY MRS. GOULD WAS ADDICTED TO DRINK

Witnesses Testify That She Had Been Intoxicated on Various Occasions.

PLAYING GAME OF PETTY POLITICS

Facing Aldrich, Senator Burkett Tells Him That is What Finance Committee's Action Looks Like.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Torn with anger and extreme humiliation, alternately flushing with shame, sobbing or clenching her hands in exasperation, Katharine Clemmons Gould sat through a trying ordeal in the supreme court today as the continuation of her suit for separation against Howard Gould.

It was a day of testimony for the defense, during which Mr. Gould's attorneys sought to bring out that Mrs.
Gould's habits were such that her husband was justified in leaving her. The event of proving this, the defense sought to undermine the charge of abandonment, the only phase of the plain-tiff's case which has withstood the attack of opposing counsel. Justice Douglas having ruled out the charges of cruelty and non-support.

Mrs. Gould having already told yesterday what is required of a woman of fashion in the matter of dress at Palm Beach and elsewhere, witnesses for the defense recited today the indulgence of the same woman of the infamous stand in the matter of alcoholic stimulants. They told further, while the heavily veiled Mrs. Gould sat in her burning face in her hands, of remarks and conversations not in keeping with the gowns on the palatial Castle Gould on Long Island.

UNFIT TO BE PRINTED.
It was during this testimony concerning the alleged violent and profane language, some too strong to be printed with propriety, that Mrs. Gould wept most. Yet she recovered herself quickly and at times concluded her lawyer, Mr. Joseph Perri, said that Mrs. Gould specific statements on various occasions, that she called Howard Gould "my little hound," that once she was "apparently so drunk that she was unable to stand," that her maid brought liquors to her room, were among the statements brought out as evidence of her conduct.

Mrs. Gould's lawyer, Clarence J.
Shearn, who had objected strenuously at first to the trend of the testimony, was overruled, injected into the case the rather novel argument that, admitting even that his client had been intoxicated, this should have strengthened, rather than have weakened, her ties between wife and husband.

"It has been held," he said, "that if a husband drinks, it is his wife's duty to leave him. Is not this equally true in the case of the wife?" Opposing the view, Mr. Joseph Perri, for the defense, argued that Mrs.
Gould's alleged excesses, as he would show, had rendered her unfit for her household duties and this certainly justified the husband's actions and attitude.

CASTLE GOULD ADMINISTRATION.
It was a rather erratic administration that Mrs. Gould conducted at Castle Gould, according to the testimony. Verbal clashes with the manager of the great estate, heated arguments over the construction of a hen-coop with carpenters, one of whom testified that "she could not walk a straight line," a period when she remained in her room for two weeks, consuming seven bottles of brandy with other il-liquors—these incidents and others were brought out on the stand.

Also, there was an account by a former steward of an exciting night, when he said, she wanted the house locked, although Howard Gould was out on the lawn. This, said the steward, did not seem to appeal to Mrs. Gould as an argument against closing the front door and she told him to go ahead and lock up. To appease her, he testified, he shut the door, but did not lock it.

"This was the night that Mrs. Gould said to have called her husband 'a little hound,' a term which she applied to him, as testified, after he had come to her room to see what the matter was, confusion being spread through the great castle by the ringing of bells in Mrs. Gould's room and the burglar alarm system.

While most of the testimony was against Mrs. Gould, one witness spoke in her favor. He is Charles H. Danis of Glen Cove, Long Island. He testified that in 1902 and 1903 he did considerable work on the Gould estate and saw Mrs. Gould frequently. He had never seen her intoxicated, he said, but at times he knew she had been drinking, because he could "smell her breath."

The argument on the application of Mr. Shearn for further allowance of $200 counsel fee for his service as counsel for Mrs. Gould, that was to have been argued this afternoon, was postponed until tomorrow. Mr. Shearn has already received a counsel fee of $2,000.

Facing Aldrich, Senator Bur-
Committee's Action Looks Like.

CHAIRMAN NOT DISCONCERTED

Nebraska Said It Afforded Senators
A Good Opportunity to Vote Lack of Confidence.

Washington, June 15.—Vigorously denouncing the committee on finance because of its change of front over night on the subject of tobacco importations from the Philippines, Senator Burkett of Nebraska, standing face to face with Chairman Aldrich today declared that its action looked to him like a "game of petty politics."

He characterized this action as "an effort to hang the senator from Wisconsin up in the air," and finally declared that this event, "afforded senators a good opportunity to vote a lack of confidence in the committee."

This fellow Nebraska statement that the committee would accept the amendment proposed by Senator Burkett to reduce the number of cigars to be admitted free of duty from the Philippine islands from 150,000,000 to 70,000,000 and the quantity of filled tobacco from 1,500,000 to 1,000,000 pounds, together with a provision that wropper and filler tobacco be admitted free of duty, was not the only statement made when receiving this concession.

Mr. Aldrich, replying calmly, declared that there were men whose declaration was the highest commendation of the committee's action, and that the committee had accepted, and said that what the committee had done was to encourage a people who had been brought under the American flag.

Encouraged by the committee's action, Senator Burkett proposed another amendment to reduce the duty on importation of cigars to 60,000,000 annually, but this was defeated 38 to 27.
Senator Owen delivered a long speech criticizing the entire tariff bill.

The Philippine islands amendment to the tariff bill was technically under consideration until 6 o'clock when it was temporarily laid aside and Mr.
Aldrich took advantage of the opportunity to present the finance committee's amendment to the silk schedule.
Mr. Aldrich also submitted amendments to the window glass schedule reducing the rates even below those provided in the house bill and eliciting a strong protest from Senator Scott, who expressed the opinion that the change would be ruinous to the glass producing industry. He also presented amendments reducing the rate on oser and willow for basket making, changing the rates upon electrodes, etc., and reducing the rates upon the duties on iron.

In response to the request of Senator Scott action on the window glass schedule was postponed until tomorrow, but the other recommendations were adopted by a large vote.

At 7 o'clock the senate adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

A MISSISSIPPI FEUD.
Two Dead, Two Fatally Wounded,
Three Slightly Injured.

Meadville, Miss., June 14.—Two men are dead, two were perhaps fatally wounded, and three slightly injured in a street battle here this afternoon caused by a bitter feud that had been previously marked with tragedy.

Great excitement followed the fray, and troops were rushed here to guard against possible rioting.

Dr. A. M. Newman, clerk of the chancery court, and Silas G. Reynolds were killed, and Dr. Lenox Newman and Albert Applegate are thought to be dying from their wounds.

L. P. Prichard, a brother of Cornelius Prichard, whom Dr. Newman killed seven weeks ago, was arrested, charged with complicity in the tragedy.

The killing of Prichard by Newman was the first bloodshed in a feud that had existed between the two men, relatives and friends for months. This bitter factionalism has its inception in a political campaign, in which Newman and Prichard were opposing candidates.

Newman was tried a few weeks ago for Prichard's murder, and was acquitted.
The fight occurred almost on the same spot where Prichard was slain. It is apparently a matter of doubt as to who fired the first shot.

THE MEETING AT DAVAO.
Washington, June 15.—Later reports on the mutiny of the Philippine constabulary at the port of Davao, Philippine Islands, which occurred June 6, were called today from Manila by Acting Gov. Gen. Forbes to the bureau of insular affairs. The despatch says that one sergeant and 22 privates of the constabulary mutinied, but 16 of the privates remained loyal. In the attack the mutineers killed two Americans, including Capt. Allan Walker of the Philippine scouts, governor of Davao province, were slightly injured. All the injured men, the report states, will recover. Gen. Bandholtz, chief of the Philippine constabulary, the governor cables, is now on the scene.

MRS. FRANCES CLEVELAND CALLED AS A WITNESS
New York, June 15.—With Mrs. Frances Cleveland, widow of the late Grover Cleveland, called as a witness, the trial of Broughton Brudenburg, the magazine writer on a charge of grand larceny, began in the supreme court today. The charge grew out of the sale of a newspaper article which Brudenburg is alleged to have disposed of to a newspaper. The representation that ex-President Cleveland was the author. Mrs. Cleveland afterward repudiated the article.

Mrs. Cleveland, accompanied by Huge Hastings, one of the executors under Mr. Cleveland's will, arrived at the criminal courts building early today. She was dressed in deep mourning. Her testimony was expected to be taken as soon as the selection of the jury was completed and one or two witnesses had been called to establish the sale of the article by the defendant.

DENVER SHAKEN BY EXPLOSION

Boiler in Denver Gas & Electric Principal Plant Blows Up With Terrific Force.

FOUR MEN WERE KILLED.

As Many Are Missing—Roar Heard for Miles—Nearby Houses Rocked to Their Foundations.

Denver, Colo., June 15.—Four known to be dead, as many missing, three known fatally hurt and six more or less seriously injured, with property loss estimated between $250,000 and $500,000, is the story of the boiler explosion that wrecked the principal power plant of the Denver Gas & Electric company, located at Sixth and Lawrence streets, shortly after 5 o'clock this evening.

DEAD.
Peter Lewis, fireman.
Herman Lichner, fireman.
Joseph Perri, aged 5.
Unidentified man, supposed to be Lawrence Sexton.

MISSING.
Arthur Richardson.
Louis Cathro.
Gabriel Luchetta.
Joseph Fallico.

So terrific was the force of the explosion that the heavy boiler was thrown 500 feet into the air, crashed through the roof of the plant, completely wrecking the generator and walls, out off the lights and for more than two hours the city was in darkness.
The roar of the explosion was heard for miles, and the houses in the immediate vicinity were rocked on their foundations.

A large force of rescuers was at once put to work removing the dead and injured. One of the first bodies taken out was that of Joseph Perri, aged 7, who was playing in the alley behind the plant at the time of the explosion, and was crushed under the debris.

The property damage is estimated at between $250,000 and $500,000.
A large force was at once put to work making temporary connections with the other two smaller plants of the company, and shortly after 9 o'clock light was furnished to the large office buildings, newspaper offices, theaters, restaurants and hotels. However, a large part of the residence district remained in darkness throughout the night.

BORAH DECLARES FOR FILIPINO INDEPENDENCE
Washington, June 15.—Senator Borah in the senate today declared himself in favor of giving the Filipinos an independent government. He said he proposed to cast his vote for "loosening the bands which tie the Philippine people to the United States government." The declaration aroused immediate attention, being apparently unexpected.

"When I speak that sentiment," continued Mr. Borah, "I am aware that I express a view contrary to that of the president, for whose opinion and views I have a profound regard." Nevertheless, I have a conviction that the duty of the people of the United States is to prepare this people for supporting an independent government."

MEMBER OF COMMONS
DENOUNCES THE CZAR
London, June 15.—William James Thorne, the rabid Socialist member from Westham, in the house of commons today gave expression to a heated denunciation of the emperor of Russia in connection with the sovereign's proposed visit to King Edward during the Cowes regatta. Mr. Thorne declared there was intense feeling in this country against the visit. The speaker called Mr. Thorne to order, but the member shouted out:

"It will be a good job if the Russian emperor gets his deserts when he does come; he is an inhuman brute." The speaker's efforts to stem this abuse were quite ineffectual until an uprush of protest from the members drowned Mr. Thorne's invective.

A. S. REISER ONCE MORE HEARD FROM

Editor of Suspended "Bulletin" Issues a Somewhat Belated Extra Today.

HE EXONERATES MR. KESSLER

And Then Proceeds to Tell Some Inside History on Mail That Was Not Delivered.

Albert S. Reiser has once more been heard from as editor of the Bulletin, which suspended publication towards the close of the session of the legislature. The Bulletin has been revived for one issue to explain that the sudden cessation had nothing to do with the typical policy of the leaflet. Mr. Reiser says that the paper in its weekly form was expensive to publish and the financial support he was looking for failed to materialize.

The Bulletin editor then goes on to say:
"Before suspending publication, we made a careful canvass of leading prohibitionists and politicians, to ascertain their views on general conditions, and found the prevailing sentiment to be that nothing could be gained by a continuance of prohibition agitation at this time, but that it would be wiser to permit that question to rest until next year, when an early campaign can be commenced for the election of a legislature that will heed the voice of the people in this and other matters the deep-seated conviction of the masses of the people on the probi-tution question being a sufficient guarantee that the sentiment would not die out in the meantime."

After reviewing "the late unpleasantness" at length, Editor Reiser proceeds to exonerate Mr. Kessler. He says that the charges made in the heat of the conflict, he says:
In one of the daily issues of the Bulletin (No. 16, published on March 18), the following statements, which we now desire to call attention, were made in a description of the "Personnel of the Federal Bunch," in which the names of 17 persons are given.

"8. Arthur L. Thomas, former secretary of the Territory of Utah, the now postmaster at Salt Lake City, the man who ought to explain the recent tampering with U. S. mail addressed to Wesley K. Walton, chairman executive committee, Republican Prohibition league."

"9. Alonzo P. Kessler, assistant postmaster at Salt Lake. * * * Mr.
Kessler should also explain the tampering with the mail referred to in the last paragraph."

In the closing paragraph of the article, we used this language:
"We do not desire to do any injustice to any individual, and if any of the persons named in this issue are not guilty, we shall gladly print a correction if they will manfully inform us of the error. Our only object is to get at the truth, to exonerate the innocent and fasten the stigma upon the guilty."

Shortly after the bulletin referred to, Kessler, Mr. Alonzo P. Kessler, to whom paragraph No. 9 refers took exception to the statement made therein, and claimed that the writer had done him a serious injustice in intimating that he had been connected with the alleged tampering of Mr.
Walton's mail.

An interview was arranged between Mr. Kessler and the writer about April 20, at which Mr. Wesley K.
Walton was present and the matter of mail in connection with the probi-tution fight was gone into in great detail. The interview resulted in convincing the writer that Mr. Kessler was not the party responsible for tampering with the mail of the Republican prohibition committee addressed to Mr. Walton, as chairman, and the writer freely and voluntarily agreed to retract the statement of right and justice and in conformity to our own proposition contained in the Bulletin in which the original statement was made and retracted in this issue, to the effect that "if any of the persons named are not guilty, we shall gladly print a correction if they will man-fully inform us of the error."

This disposes of the matter so far as Mr. Kessler is concerned, and his exoneration would have been published immediately after the interview had the "Bulletin" not suspended publication, as already explained in this issue.

But what about the main facts of the case? Was the mail referred to tampered with, and if so, by whom?
The main facts in the case, after a careful investigation and review of the matter appeared to be as follows:

1. Mr. Walton sent out twenty-six letters to that many of his fellow-members of the regular Republican state committee on February 27, asking them to join him in a call for a meeting of the committee on March 8, to consider the prohibition question then before the legislature from the standpoint of the welfare of the Republican party.

2. On March 8, the date set for the meeting, Mr. Walton had received but three answers to his 26 letters.

3. On the morning of March 9, the Inter-Mountain Republican, in a big front page article, gloried over the fact that the proposed meeting of the state committee had failed to materialize, and published a bulletin dated 3 a. m., saying that the meeting had been called off by Mr. Walton, held on to the chairmanship, showing a full knowledge on the part of the Inter-Mountain of the means by which the gathering of the committee had been prevented.

4. Some days after the date set for the meeting, Mr. Walton learned that some members of the state committee had been in Salt Lake City looking for him on the date mentioned, and had returned to their homes disappointed.
He also learned of members who had answered his letter to them, but their answers had not been received.

5. From four to 10 days after the date set for the meeting, Mr. Walton received eight letters from that number of his colleagues on the state committee, in addition to the three letters received before the meeting date, March 8, making 11 letters in all, every one of which was mailed in time to have reached Mr. Walton before the 8th of March, had the regular course of the mail not been interfered with.

6. These letters, as the envelopes showed, were for the most part addressed to Mr. Walton, as chairman of the Republican Prohibition league, making it easy for individuals handling the mail to segregate these letters from the remainder of Mr. Walton's mail and hold them back, where they so inclined.

7. Mr. Walton had a personal understanding with Postmaster Thomas, who he regards as a warm personal friend of long standing, concerning his mail, by which the postmaster had a great deal of discretion in regard thereof, enabling him to send certain mail to the Murray delivery, where Mr. Walton resides, and to hold other mail at Salt Lake City, sometimes accommodating Mr. Walton by leaving the mail at a Salt Lake drug store substation for him to call for after regular hours at the main office, and even holding valuable packages in his vault at Mr. Walton's request, for several days, as an accommodation, when he was absent from the city.

More than 300 students have been registered in the classes in pedagogy school under Prof. William M. Stawart, which renders the usual lecture room too small.

As a feature of the summer school of the university this year, boys and the direction of Dr. Anderson of Yale.

Any boy or girl under 18 years of age is eligible for membership. In addition to devoting one hour per day to physical training, there will be field sports and

Dr. William Blum, assistant profes-of assistant chemist, having received it through competitive examinations.

Dr. Leon W. Hartman, who has had

He has accepted the charge of the de-
