Venturesome Bathers—The Saltair road has enjoyed a profitable winter season in the way of tourist travel to the lake. An entire visiting basket hall team went into the water during February, and toward the end of this month it will be nothing unusual to see people in the water.

Shirt Walst Class-The new man-signment of the Y. W. C. A. has estab-lished a class in shirt walst making, under the direction of Miss Georgia Mather, and a class in Millinery is proposed. The new general secretary, Miss Johnson, is pushing things with a vigor at the association building.

Yigor at the insociation building. Y. M. C. A. and Galveston Bill— President Frank B. Stephens of the Civic Improvement league has issued a call for a meeting this evening, at the Y. M. C. A. to consider the Gal-veston bill and prepare a statement in its support. The supporters of the bill expect to have it taken from the table in the house of representatives and discussed.

Big Window Replaced-The First Big Window Replaced—The First Presbyterians will be able to re-oc-copy their church auditorium of which they have been deprived since Octo-ber, on Funday next, St. Patrick's day, as the east window was blown in by a pressure of five tons during the great hurricane. The new glass is even handsomer than the former, so that the great window is one of the most beautiful in the west.

Freeman Bassett Appointed-Free-Freeman Bassett Appointed—Free-man Bassett has been named by Col. Plummer as adjutant of the National Guard, the appointment being made on Saturday. It was the first official act of Col. Plummer, but other changes are to be made soon. Mr. Bassett is capital of Company H, and a short time ago tendered his resig-nation, which, however, was not ac-cepted. He is a popular officer and his selection to the new place is gen-erally admitted to be a wise move

REPORT IS BEING PREPARED.

Executive Session Called for Discussion of Matter Suitable to Incorporate Into Suggested Legislation.

A report of the senate committee in. vestigating the acts of the state land hoard, and especially of Harry Anderson, a clerk of the board, is expected early this week. The testimony is all in, and Chairman Hulaniski has called an executive session to decide upon the best plan for preparing a report, and the data that is to go into

In the final hearing not only the Anderson case was taken up, but a number of other matters connected with the board. Its members were questioned upon the stand, and com-plaints were received from persons who have dealt with the land board, alleging unfair treatment. Under cross examination the board members offered explanations to account for the treatment of applicants in each case remoted offered explanations to account for the treatment of applicants in each case reported. Hairy Anderson went on the stand in his own behalf, and explained the deals in which Sorenson and Mueller figured, and also the Pascoe entry in which the Garns application figured. In relation to the Garns application figured. In relation to the Garns application figured is a stand in relation to the Garns application figured. In relation to the Garns application figured is a place of land. He had been asked frequently by promoters of irrigation companies along the river, to take a place of land. He had never thought much of the plan until on looking over a plat he found a piece of vacant land, which he thought would be good land to hold. He spoke of the matter of Mr. Thomas, another clerk in the office, and together they decided to write to Garns, who was a friend of theirs, to ask him about the land. Instead of answering he had sent in an application himself by return mail. Mr. Anderson thought if was a breach of faith and a betrayal of a friend, and declares that Garns had afterwards expressed himself to Mr. Thomas to the effect that it was the letter from Salt Lake that caused him to file his entry. He then decided to file in the United States land of fice, as Garns had not filed his fees within the time limit required, and got a friend to make this filing in his interest.

a friend to make this filing in his in-terest. Questioned by Benner X. Smith as to his view of the righteousness of this he declared it was only what 10,000 other people have done in the state, and conforms to a general prac-tise. He had induced Pascee to give up his entry on the advice of E. W. Senior who said that it might look bad for him to be interested in the entry while serving in his official position. As to the "O. K." on the applications, Mr. Anderson explained that this mere-ly meant that he had found the land unoccupied by federal entries, and this in no way indicated the land's status in the state board. Taking up the testi-mony of Mr. Woolley as to bis com-ment on the Doscher application, wit-ness declared that this must be the re-sult of a misunderstanding and de-clared that he had acted in good faith throughout. a trie terest.

clared that he had acted it witnesses throughout. Besides Mr. Anderson, the witnesses were P A. Sorenson, Adolph Drahos, who filed a desert entry on the Gams land: W. J. Lynch, of the state land board, President W. D. Candland, and Secretary John De Grey Dixon, of the board board. SORENSON TESTIFIES.

P. A. Sorenson took the stand, and released Anderson, his brother-in-law, from any responsibility for his choice of lands in Bountiful canyon near tracts of land which Mr. Mueller had been trying to get possession of for the purpose of starting a summer re-sort. Sorenson declared that Ander-ean bad never had any interact in any sort. Sorenson declared that Ander son had never had any interest in any land that he owned, and that he took the Bountiful land on the advice of his successory S. P. Armstrong. He dethe Bountiful land on the advice of his attorney, S. P. Arnstrong. He de-clared that Anderson had not drawn his papers when he filed on the land, and that Anderson had showed him a map of the region only upon his request. "I have heard," he said, "that Mr. Mueller intended to start a summer resort up that way, and I wanted to get in on it."

ready to verify this at any time. With best wishes, I am "Yours respectfully, "S. E. JENSEN."

"Yours respectfully." "S. E. JENSEN." CANDLAND'S STATEMENT. In explaining the charges made, W. D. Candiand declared that Jensen had told him last October that he had sold his sheep and proposed to give up some of the land he had leased from the state. "I think he said he wanted to keep air forties of it." continued Mr. "Rnowing that his lease expired Jan, 1 996, and that he intended to give up to a part of the lands. I filed an applica-tion in December. Applications for a same time. The presidency of the land hoard held its regular medi-ing Jan. 4, there were no other appli-cations before it and the board allotted the lass to me. When J met Jensen on the streat. He asked me for blanks and the din't need the blanks, for I had asked thim what for. THE HATCH CASE. The complaint filed by Philander Hatch was next taken up. He set forth that he and companions owned several sections of railroad land in Summit county, the state owning alternate sec-tions. He wanted 18 of these sections, and made application at $1.63 per acre-but the board raised the price to $2.50 per acre on him. Not caring to take so much property at this figure. Hatch tried to get five sections at $2.50. He filed his application, but the Stewart boys of Salt Lake offered to take the whole 18 sections at $2.50 and this deal was made, cutting Hatch out. Commissioner Candland showed the hoerd that if Hatch had secured the five sections it would have cornered all the rest of the land and made it use-less except to Hatch. He had made it plain five sections was all he wanted, and therefore the sale to the Stewarts setted the state just about $5,000 over what the Hatch sale would have. DRAHOS AND ANDERSON.

DRAHOS AND ANDERSON.

DRAHOS AND ANDERSON. Adolph Drahos exhonerated Harry Anderson, as P. A. Sorenson did, of any connection with his entries. He said that he had filed at the suggestion of Mr. Huntsberger of the Rio Grande railroad, and not at the suggestion of Anderson, on the Garns tract after Pas-coe had relinquished his homestead. He declared that when Anderson saw him about relinquishing his filing, he had already decided to do so. Anderson had not given him the money to file with, he declared, and he gave up the lang because Mrs. Drahos and he had decid-ed they did hot want to live on the ed they did not want to live on the land.

LYNCH FAVORS ANDERSON.

LYNCH FAVORS ANDERSON. W. J. Lynch of the board declared that he had heard of the Anderson matter in the Mueller lands last July, but only as a street rumor and he did not investigate. Mueller had never complisined to him although he saw him almost daily. In a conversation with Anderson the matter had been fully ex-platned to him and he had satisfied himself that the young man was honest. He regarded the Sorenson-Mueller in-cident as a singular coincidence and nothing more. His faith in Anderson he was willing to reaffirm, and declared it would take more testimony than any adduced so far to cause him to change his mind. Following Mr. Lynch, other members of the board were examined, and after

of the board were examined, and after E. W. Senior, attorney for Anderson, had filed the letter of recommendation written in behalf of Anderson by E. D. R. Thompson, the session adjourned till Monday, when the report will be planned.

COMPLAINT FROM JENSEN.

COMPLATENT PROM STATES. The first complaint considered against the land board came in the form of a letter from S. E. Jensen of Mt. Pleasant. It narrated his experi-ence in trying to lease lands which W. D. Candiand of the board wanted also, and succeeded in getting. In his own behalf Candiand testified that Jensen had been defrauding the board by subleasing the land and was not using it for his own property. The text of the letter is as follows:

The text of the letter is as follows:

"Mt. Pleasant, March 2, 1907. "Hon J. H. Seely, Sait Lake City: "Dear Senator-I notice by the pa-pers that the senate is going to in-vestigate the state board of land com-missioners. I have a grievance against that board which I will explain to you. that board which I will explain to you, but if for any reason you would like to present it, you may give this letter to the committee on investigation. The facts are that I had a lease on land ad-joining W. D. Candland's land, which I applied to have selected by the state about eight years ago and after it had been selected, applied to lease it and had a lease on it ever since until Cand-land got in office. For some reason, I could not get a lease on it for more than one year at a time, so I had to re-new my lease every year, which I did until Candland headed me off. "I weat to Attorney Cherry's office the last days in December, 1965, to have him make out my application, but he said he had no bianks, so I sent a boy to Candland's house for a blank, but did not get any. He also said I would

said he had no blanks, so I sent a boy to Candland's house for a blank, but did not get any. He also said I would have sufficient time to write the state board for blanks, as Candland had told him that the regular Tuesday meeting would be postponed one week on ac-count of the holidays; but instead of that the meeting was on Thursday, Jan. 4, 1966. So I wrote for blanks, but be-fore I got a letter I saw Candland and asked him for a blank and he said: "What do you want a blank for?" I said: To renew my lease. He said he had that land now, I immediately wrote to the board stating the facts, and said if they would allow one of their memi-bers to take advantage of me in that way that I realized that I did not have any chance. I saw Candland and asked him to read the letter before I mailed it, and he did se, and he said: "I don't care; send it." I started for Mexico a few days later. My wife re-ceived a letter some time after with an application blank is it, and it stated that the had an application in for it a month before my lease had expired. "I had a Friend write to Mr. Hayes.

NABBED WHILE COURTING. Oregon Short Line Employe Arrested On Serious Charges. W. E. Stewart, formerly telegraph operator at Syracuse Junction, for the Oregon Short Line, was arrested Saturday evening while visiting his sweet. day evening while visiting his sweet-heart at Brigham City, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, and securing transportation over tha Short Line to Pocatello on a "fake" telegraph message. Detective Joseph Jones of the Short Line force made the arrest, after work-ing on the case for four days. Stewart resigned his position as operator last Thursday. On Wednesday the office at Sait Lake received a message signed

Thursday. On Wednesday the office at Sait Lake received a message signed with the anne of J. E. Lowery, agent at Pocatello, asking that one C. L. Woods be furnished with transportation from Sait Lake to Pocatello, and 25 in cash. Next day Stewart resigned his position as agent at Syracuse Junction and came to Sait Lake. He went to the railroad office and represented himself as Woods, and asked if any message had been received for him from Low-ery. The message was found and he was given the 25 and the transportawas given the $25 and the transporta-

ery. The message was found and he was given the $25 and the transporta-tion to Pocatello. The same evening a telegram was sent to Lowery informing him that his message had been honored, when word was received from him that he knew nothing about the matter. Special de-tectives were thereupon sent out to trace the matter up, and the result that' a "cut-in" was located at Synacuse Junction the day before Stewart re-signed. The description of Stewart tailled with that of the man who got the money and the ticket, and Stewart was traced to Brigham, where he stopped off to see his sweetheart, and was arrested just as he was about to take the train for Pocatello. Stewart was brought to Sait Lake but denied having sent the message or receiving the money. He was placed in jail, and the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses will be filed against him today.

DO NOT CROWD THE SEASON.

DO NOT CROWD THE SEASON. The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhibitating air and subshine. Chil-dren that have been housed up all win-ter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The beavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their fiannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is splitem-ic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winder, as there is much more danger of preumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It al-ways cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it. For sale by all druggists
