Quarterly Gathering of Saints in Assembly Hall and Tabernacle.

RELIEF SOCIETY OFFICIALS

Mrs. Sarah J. Cannon Appointed as Counselor, Taking Place Made Vacant by Mrs. Annie T. Ryde.

The regular quarterly conference of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion was opened yesterday morning with services in the Assembly hall, which were presided over by President Angus M. Cannon and his two counselors, Presidents Joseph E. Taylor and C. W. Penrose, The services were commenced by the choir and congregation singing the hypan "our God, We Raise to Thee," after which Elder Niels Nelson offered up prayer. The hymn, "We Thank Thee, O God, for a Prophet" was then sung and President Joseph E. Taylor addressed the Conference very briefly. He stated in opening that Apostle John Henry Smith, who was present, when asked if he had any suggestions to make preparatory to the session of the Conference, had said that the people present were deserving of much praise for coming cut on such a morning. President Taylor continuing said that the purpose of the Stake Conference was to consider and talk about things of interest to the people of the Stake as an organized body. It was the expectation of the authorities that the auxillary institutions and certain portions of the Priesthood should report their condition and that helpful suggestions should be made at that time. He closed his address by saying that he heped that all the suggestions that were made would be inspired of God that they might cheer, help and assist all present and absent.

Superintendent Burrows of the Sunday schools of the Stake was the next speaker; he said that he felt justified in reporting that the Sunday schools of the Salt Lake Stake are in an excellent condition and that the outlook for an even better condition is bright. The speaker mentioned the effect on the Sunday schools of the example set by good, conscientious, and careful teachers, the work of fthe special Sun-day school missionaries and the much appreciated efforts of earnest bishop-rics, three factors that had much to with the success or failure of the day schools. The special mission-Sunday schools. aries and the bishoprics, the speaker n do a great work will go seriously into can they t and strive to encourage the work and to extend its influence. Superintendent Burrows made mention of the fact that one of the best examples set before the young people was the attendance of the young people was the attendance of their aged bretheren and sisters. He concluded by saying that he hoped to exert every effort in the attempt to greatly build up the Sunday schools of this Stake and he requested that bishoprics give all the aid in their power to them. Albert Davis of Center ward followed the last speaker and mention-ed the fact that though his ward is a small one in numbers having less that 200 members enrolled, it extends over a large area. The Bishop particularly spoke of the work being done by the teachers of his ward who he said go out with instructions to always have prayers with the families upon whom they call. He concluded by saying that those persons who attend to their meeting and do the little things that are asked of them are those who can al-ways be depended upon whenever the occasion arises that their services are needed. He believed that the meetings in Center ward have been and are good ones and that the blessing of been with the Latter-day Saints both there and everywhere. E. H. Callister, president of the Fourteenth quorum of Elders, was called upon by President Cannon and stated that his quorum is in good condition and that though the Elders belonging to it live in a widely extended district the attendance at the meetings is good and there are at present 100 enrolled in the quorum. Elder Merrill, counselor to the super-intendent of the Y. M. M. I. A., stated that he thought that the work of the societies was never before in such good oudition nor have so many ever before taken such interest in the work. He said that the perfect organization as effected by the general board is re-sponsible for the excellence this year. President Nellie C. Taylor of the Y. L. M. I. A., was the next speaker, and said that the officers of the Young Ladles' association take great pride in the work done so far by them. She said that the young ladles have worked energetically this year and that never before was there so many good and noble women connected with the various associations of the Salt Lake Stake. the Salt Lake Stake. In conclusion President Taylor said that the young ladies are learning that the direct road to happiness is to follow the scripture which says, "Do thy duty." President Camilla Cobb of the Primary association said that she felt very proud to represent the little chil-dren of the Salt Lake Stake, and that she is certain that much good is being done in the Primaries which are in a flourishing condition. In relation to the Primary work the speaker said that the first copy of the little monthly paper dealing with the methods of the work, and its arrangement will be issued in January and the officers are much delighted with the idea. President Georgiana Fox Young of the Kindergarten was the next to re-port and she said that not only is the vork over which she presides in a fine condition but the officers hope soon to organize another school in addition to the one now conducted in the Thirteenth ward. President J. H. Paul of the Latter-President J. H. Paul of the Latter-day Saints' university stated that he was much gratified with the sup-port that had been given that institution, which now has a to-tal registration of 800. He held to the belief that this city is the proper place for the largest school under the jurisdiction of the Church, and that he believed that soon the present accommodations will be altogether inadequate. He concluded very interesting report by stating that the First Council of Seventies is now considering the advisability of inau-gurating a night missionary class, that lu fact a definite decision had been arrived at to the effect that such a class shall at once be organized. Seven presidents of the Seventies, be-gan his address by saying that this cold weather is most op-portune as it will freeze up the bacteria and disease getms and assist materially in dissipating an unhealthful condition of affairs among the people Regarding the missionary classes of the L. D. S. university the speaker said that he realized that many Elders had been sent out to preach the Gospel who were lacking in the knowledge of its principles, and that is why these missionary classes are necessary. He dealt with the question of missionary classes and work at some length and closed by tating that it might not be very long efore a more vigorous missionary cam-aign would be commenced in our midst s well as in the world. is well as in the world. President Cannon endorsed the re-barks made by the several speakers and instructed the Bishops present to nform President Paul as soon as posible, how many young men they have n their respective wards who desire to ake the missionary class work in the ontemplated evening classes. Next Sunday being the day pre-ding the birthday of the Prophet Jo-ph Smith, President Cannon instructd the various Bishops to have special ervices in the Sunday schools on that ay, and also some special sermons on he life of the Prophet at the Sunday ening services

The morning's session closed with be hymn "Hope of Israel," and the enediction was pronounced by Elder hn T. Caine.

The Sunday schools were spoken of as a great blessing to the Church; there vere no better Sunday schools, he said, anywhere in the world than in the Salt Lake Stake. The speaker conluded by saying that the Saints in this Stake were a good people, filled with the spirit of the Gospel and desiring to walk uprightly before the Lord. While there were some who were being led estray by the many temptations that surround them.

The choir sang the hymn, "O my Father," after which Apostle George Teasdale made a few remarks. He said he was delighted to hear the excellent report of the people of the Salt Lake Stake; and that they seemed to know the value of a membership in the Church of Jesus Christ. The Lord has sent his messengers to usher in the dispensation of the Fulness of Times. "We deal with facts," said the speaker. "We testify what we do know." The book of Doctrine and Covenants was then opened and the revelation read which bears testimony by the Lord, of His having sent various heavenly indi-viduals to the Prophet Joseph Smith to ordain the latter to the Priesthood and committing into his hands the various keys of past dispensations. the testimony the Elders bear, said the speaker, and it is for this that they are reviled and persecuted. The Gospel is preached to the poor man, as it was in the days of Christ. And although the poor man is generally illiterate his soul is touched with the Gospel and he learns the truth. The Lord's ear is open to the cry of the poor, those who labor honestly. God is no respecter of persons and He exacts as much from the rich as from the poor. The promise was made to every man and woman that if they would seek the Lord with a broken heart and contrite spirit they would know the truth. There can be but one Church of Christ and that has Apostles and prophets, which are to continue until all the people conte into a unity of the faith. The speaker continued in an interesting vein and concluded by bearing testimony in earnest terms, of the divinity of the Gospel and admonishing the people to discharge their respective duties acceptably before the Lord, that they may not be overcome by temptation.

The choir sang the anthem, "Ho-sanna," and the benediction was pro-nounced by Elder David McKenzie.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

Authorities Presented and Were All Unanimously Sustained.

Authorities presented and were all ananimously sustained by congregation. The Sunday afternoon session of the conference was largely attended. Fresident Angus M. Cannon presided over the services, which were opened Ly the choir singing the hymn, "Ye simple souls who stray, far from the Darrow way."

The opening prayer was offered by Lider J. Golden Kimball, and the services were continued by the rendering of the hymn "Behold the mountain of the Lord." The names of the General and Salt Lake Stake authorities of the Church were presented by President Joseph E. Tayler. They were all unanimously sustained, including the home mission-aries of the Salt Lake Stake. The Stake officers and missionaries are as follows STAKE OFFICERS.

Hill, Geo. E. Taylor, Samuel M Jenson, Parley P Jensen, Ephraim Thorup, H F F Thomas Mat. Jonasson, StanleyD Wells, Melvin D Kirkman, John Wells, Jos. S Knight, John M King, Wm, H. Kingdon, John West, Jos. A Walsh, Oliver S Young, Wm. Clark

Lewis, Eugene B After concluding the presentation of the names of the authorities, President Taylor made a few remarks. He stated there was a marked interest in the atendance on the Elders' quorum meetings. The presidents were cautioned to keep careful records. The same advice was extended to all those who had rec-ords to keep in their respective wards, both as to the ward organization and all the quorums and auxiliary organiza-

President Taylor remarked that the quorums generally were in a very healthy condition. But there were more temptations and allurements in the Salt Lake Stake to lead estray the sons and daughters of the people than in any other Stake of Zion. The parents therefore were enjoined to throw greater safeguards about their sons and daughters. The M. I. A. were mentioned as a force that was doing excellent work in keeping the young men and women from going into by and forbidden paths, is the express purpose for which That the M. I. organizations were created. The missionaries who have returned from their labors abroad were told that a great work was awaiting them here It was stated that a new field was here for them to exercise the same saving powers that they used in the world. The next speaker was President C. W. Penrose, who made a few remarks in regard to the present condition of the Salt Lake Stake. He began by saying that the presidency of the Stake is united in spirit and that a perfect union of feeling and sentiment exists between the president and his counselors. The members of the High Council of the Stake, I was said, were good active mer, who were working for the best in-terests of the people.

It was enjoined upon the home missionaries to attend the meetings the last Wednesday evening in every month. The auxiliary organizations in the wards were highly complimented for the work they were doing, but the young men should remember that their first duty was in the Priesthood and they should not permit their duties in an auxiliary organization to stand between them and their duties in the quorums to which they belong.

The speaker further stated that the clerks of the wards should keep up a full and complete statistical report of their wards, so that when a Bishop is called on for a report he can furnish it at once from the clerk.

THIRD SESSION.

Duties of the Priesthood - Law of Tithing - Word of Wisdom.

The services of the third session of the stake conference opened by singing the hymn, "Lord, Thou wilt hear me when I pray," etc. Opening prayer was offered by Elder George A. Smith, and the choir further sang the hymn, "Another day has fled and gone." Bishop Preston was the first speaker. "We are living in a very im-He said: portant age of the world, even in the last days, and the Gospel is preached to us as it was by our Lord and Savier Jesus Christ in His day. We find that there are perhaps as many opponents to it in our day as there were in the days of Christ. The Gospel is being taught now as it was then; having the gifts and blessings promised unto those who will obey the same; but the question is whether those who have em-braced it are all living up to the reduirements which will entitle them to these gifts and blessings promised through Jesus Christ. Champion Pugilist of the World and Party Are Here.

"JEFF" WILL FIGHT ANY ONE

Willing to Take on Fitzsimmons or Sharkey-This Evening's Program Calls for Four Rounds.

James J. Jeffries, champion pugilist of the world, his brother Jack, "Billy' Delany and Anthony Green are domiciled at the Kenyon hotel, and they are all in a happy frame of mind.

This evening at the Salt Lake Athletic club the champion and his brother will delight the local sports by giving a fourround exhibition, and it is expected a big crowd will be on hand to see the fun. The party will stay here until tomorrow, when they leave for Denver, and thence east to New York, where Delany will make every effort to secure a match with Fitzsimmons. If "Lanky Bob" will not meet the champion, then Sharkey will be given a chance. It is quite likely Sharkey will be willing. It s said he has already posted a forfeit to fight Jeff.

As to the fight at San Francisco with Gus Ruhlin, neither the big boiler make er nor his manager have anything to say beyond "we were surprised.

As to their future plans they had plenty to say. Manager Delany said it was reversing the order of things to have the champion chasing about the country trying to arrange a match with ome one, but that is just exactly what they are doing. Delany is anxious to have his man meet Fitzsimmons again and settle for ever and aye the ques-tion of supremacy. He is confident the champion can easily defeat the red topped Fliz and he intends to force the issue. If Fliz does not care to fight then Sharkey will do. If Sharkey says nay, then the matter will be left to the public.

Delany says he understands full well that some day his man will meet his equal and he proposes to make hay while the sun shines.

"We are willing to fight anyhody," said he, "and if we get a match with Fitzsimmons we will not do as he did, demand the big end of the purse, win or lose. Jeffries is willing to fight on any terms reasonable, for a side bet or winner take all."

The party visited the Athletic club today and then took in some of the sights of the town with a party of friends.

Preliminary to the main event tonight there will be a couple of interesting bouts, in one of which young Jack Christy will participate.

Baseball Magnates Think Fifteen Per Cent is Decidedly Exorbitant.

When the baseball magnates of the Intermountain Baseball league conclud-ed their labors Saturday night it was announced they would not meet again until called together by President Critchlow.

The railroad rate problem is still in the air as Mr. Burley of the Oregon Short Line has not yet made a special rate for the league.

Until this matter is disposed of, the complete organization of the league is not assured. Unless the rates are in conformity with the ideas of at least two of the delegates, the teams represented by them will not enter the eague Quite unexpectedly, another difficulty arose at Saturday night's meeting when t was announced that the management of Walker's field demanded 15 per cent of the gross receipts. There was an im-mediate cry for water from one of the visitors. When he recovered from the shock he stated emphatically that for one, he would not stand for a price so exorbitant. The outcome of the disuession which followed is that the local magnates will take up a labor with the park people and try to secure cheaper rental The Montana delegates said they thought the street car company should help the league out as the company would receive a great deal of the bene-fits derived from the games. In Montana the street car companies have come to the relief of the teams and have put up cash to help the teams out, and they could not see why the local company should not do the same, Rifle Club Shoot. He referred to the auxiliary organizations in the Church and said while they are doing much good among the people, they should not be made to take the lead of the dif-ferent quorums of the Priesthood and ferent quorums of the Priesthood, and the latter to occupy a secondary position. A man holding the Priesthood owes his first allegiance to his quorum meeting in preference to attending to the duties of the auxiliary organizations. The speaker read from pages 386 and 393 from the Doctrine and Covenants, pertaining to the duties and callings of the Sevent President Cannon then expressed his would go to look for the one that had strayed and in finding that one would have more joy in reclaiming it than over all the other ninety-nine that had not gone astray. Apostle John Henry Smith was the closing speaker, and after referring briefly to the lack of the members in this Stake in not completing the statue or monument of the great leader and founder of our commonwealth, Brigham Young, he endorsed what had been said regarding the keeping of the law of tithing. Some remarks were made upon the necessity of a systematic training of the youth in order that they might become interested in the principles of the Gospel.

The Word of Wisdom was also dwelt pon. There is within the reach of upon every young man who has been trained to observe these rules opportunities to secure the best positions in the line of employment, because enquiries are be-ing made for sober men, who are not addieted to the use of tobacco, nor liquor, to fill positions of trust throughout the land, for they can be relied up-on, whereas the intellect of the others is blunted.

Schuler vs. McLeod.

A bout that should be highly interesting to lovers of the manly art game is billed for tonight as a preliminary o the 'Fat'' Jeffries brothers exhibition "Fat" Schuler, weighing 225 pounds, has agreed to knock out one McLeod, who weighs 118, before seven rounds or forfeit several dollars. Schuler has een practicing knockout blows while McLeod has been practicing foot work. the fat man says he will win if lands but that is exactly what Mc says he cannot do. He figures he is too oujck for the big one and can easily kan out of his way. The other preliminary is a ten-round contest between Jack Christy and Kid

Smith of Los Angeles.

BOBBY WALTHOUR WON.

Six Day Race at New York Comes To An End.

New York, Dec. 14 .- Bobby Walthour of Atlanta, Ga., of the bicycle team of McEachern and Walthour, won, the six-day race at the Madison Square Garden tonight. He crossed the tape two yards ahead of Wilson. Then came Munro, Babcock, Butler and Samuel-

Nine tired teams, five of them American riders, wheeled about the oval in Madison Square Garden all day. Five of the leams were fied for first honors and the winners were not known until the last lap was finished. Instead of the foreigners fightin gthe Americans for the lead, the contest for supremacy was between the north south Munro, Walthour and Newkirk are all southerners and each was confident of winning, while the other leaders hall from the north and were equally confident of success.

Lawson, who kept on in the race after his partner Julius had his collarbone broken, did not ride between 8 and 10 o'clock, and 1t was not believed he would return to the track until just before the finish. Lawson left the tracy only when directed to do so by the referce
