HELD FOR LARCENY.

Messrs, L. H. and Monroe Redd have a large herd of cattle down at Dark canyon, west of the Elk and Blue mountains, bordering on the banks of the big Colorado river. Monroe went down some time ago to see to things, and he found his camp robbed and seven horses gone, also some stock. He came back and notified the sheriff, J. H. Wood, who selected three men and three Indians and weut in pur-suit. After several days of hard rid ing, they overtook Bert Williams Thompson of Monroe, Utah, in full possession of all the lost property, and

The drummer was a sinali man and the first dead game who took his mitt gave it a squeeze and a shako as it trying to cop out a manicure set at a county hair tightest grip contest. The traveling man winced and turned a bit pale uncer the pressure. The sport tipped the thing along to the rest of the bunch, and they all gave the drummer's paw a bone-crushing squeeze. The drummer got paler and pater and madder and madder as each of them took his hand and tried to kneed it into a meat cake, but he didn't explode until the last man to whom he was introduced, a noted middle-weight fighter, gave a vise-like clasp on his right duke and came near maccraing it to pulp. Then the drummer statched his hand away, threw back his chest and blurted out: "Say, this is too blamed much of a good thisg. sumed After Scarlet Fever Siege. Special Correspondence.

Kanab, Kane Co., Feb. 4.—Yesterday afternoon this ward held its first meet-ing since Dec. 31, '05; all public gath-ering: having been discontinued on account of scarlet fever. The speakers at yesterday's meeting were Elders Wil-liam Bunting and George Mace, who have just returned from missions. The weather has been springlike for the past two weeks and th farmers are now at work in their fields. A new acctylene lighting plant has

A Woman's Gratitude

"For more than a year I had been a sufferer, completely broken down. I had not slept but two or three hours any night for weeks. I had such awful misery in my head, and oh, I was so irritable. I could not depend upon my judgement, and my memory was failing. I realized that I was losing my mind, and I thought the grave, or worse, the asylum, would be my doom. My doctor said my case was beyond the reach of medicine. I went to a druggist and told him my condition. He recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine: he was pretty sure it would help me, so I bought a bottle. That night I took a table spoonful, and fell asleep in a few minutes, the first rest I had in weeks, and oh, I will never forget that sweet sleep while I live. I have continued taking it, and sleep like a baby, and gain rapidly.' MRS. VIOLA BARKER.

NEW HYMN BOOK AND PSALMODY.

A new edition of the L. D. S. Hymn A new edition of the L. D. S. Hymn Book (the twenty-fourth), revised un-der the direction of the Church Au-thorities, has just been issued by the Deseret News. Many improvements will be observed. The names of the authors, as far as they could be ascer-tained, have been corrected to each tained, have been appended to each hymn. Special type was selected for the edition, to secure a large, plain and bold print, without increasing the size of the book. Thirteen new selected of the book. Thirteen new selected hymns have been added to the collec-tion, among which are "Onward, Chris-tion Soldier," "Peace Be Still," "Rock of Ages," "Abide With Me," the two National anthems, "America" and of Ages," "Abide With Me," the two National anthems, "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner," and several others.

A new edition of the L. D. S. Peal-mody has been issued to correspond with the revised Hymn Book, it also contains the music for the additional thirteen hymns. New plates have been made throughout. The book, though enlarged in its number of pages, has been somewhat reduced in form, mak-ing it more convenient for choir use been somewhat reduced in form, mak-ing it more convenient for choir use. The price has also been reduced in the various binds, as follows: Cloth, $1.25; half leather, $1.50; Hmp leather, $1.75; and full morocco gilt, $2.50. Both Hymn Book and Psalmody are now ready at the Deseret News Book Store.
