Causes of death as reported. Lung disease, 8; still-born, 2; died at birth, 4; child bed, 1; inflammation brain, 1; abcess, 1; heart disease, 1; liver complaint, 1; paralysis, 1; inflammation bowels, 1; old age, 1; killed by snow slide, 1. Total interments 33.

JOS. E. TAYLOR, Sexton.

RECOVERING.—Mr. Merrill is fast recovering from the effects of that painful accident recorded on Monday, and will soon be all right again.

REGRET.—We regret to hear that Mrs. Jonathan A. Kinkaddon, whose accouchement was announced in yesterday's local column, is rather low; but we are assured she is not in a dangerous condition.

THE CONCERT LAST NIGHT.—The concert given in the Theatre last night, by Professor Geo. Careless, was a success in every respect. The house was one of the best that has been seen for years, and reminded one of the early and most flourishing times of theatrical management in this city—it was well filled from parquette to third circle.

When the curtain rose the choir, numbering nearly two hundred and fifty, ladies gentlemen and children, presented a beautiful spectacle. The ladies, both adult and juvenile, were white dresses, each of the latter being decorated with a sash or scarf, the tout ensemble forming a tableaux not easily to be forgotten.

The entertainment commenced with a selection from Balfe's Opera of the "Bohemian Girl," by the orchestra, the performance of which would have done no discredit to far older and more populous cities than Salt Lake, and drew forth the most hearty applause from the audience.

Our space will not admit of a lengthy criticism on each separate song, chorus &c., we shall therefore be compelled to notice the whole briefly. In the first part of the programme "Merry May" by the children's chorus, comic song "Dutch gentleman" by Mr. C. R. Savage, Cavatina, "Waiting" by Mrs. Careless, "When Larks Sings" by Miss Rhoda Young, and the "Clough and Crow" by Mesdames Careless and Ellis, Mr. Spring and the full company, elicited special applause; but in some other pieces, dimidity at appearing for the first time in public, before such a large audience, prevented the singers from appearing to so great an advantage as their abilities warrant.

Mrs. Careless appeared to better advantage on the stage than we ever saw her; her singing was superb, though we understand she was suffering badly from sore throat.

At the conclusion of the first part of the programme Mr. David McKenzie made his appearance before the curtain and requesting Mr. Careless, then in the orchestra, to step on to the stage, he in a few well chosen sentences presented the Professor with an order on the Music Store of Calder Bros. for a No. 21 Mason and Hamlin organ, the joint gift of a number of his friends, as a token of their esteem for him as a man, of their appreciation of his abilities as a musician, and of his labors to spread a knowledge of its principles and practice, among the people. The surprise of the Professor, for he was in total ignorance up to that moment of any such intent, can be better imagined than described, and being no "talkist," his confusion in endeavoring to give expression to his gratitude, was apparent to every one present; but the presentation of the testimonial was the signal for enthusiastic manifestations of applause by the audience.

An interval of a few minutes then occurred, when part two of the programme commenced with a grand selection from the opera of Il Trovatore by the orchestra, which was capitally rendered, and gave immense satisfaction.

The performance thence, to its close, was very effective; the singers seemed to be more at their ease, and they and their auditors more en rapport than in the former part of the programme, and round after round of applause greeted every performer. The cornet solo, "Hurricane Polka," by Mr. Croxall, was encored, also the solo on the concertina, by Mr. Foster. The "Nervous Family," comic song, by Mr. Dunbar, was immense, and received a double encore. "I know a Bank," by Mrs. Careless and Mrs. V. Young, was choicely rendered, and elicited hearty approbation.

Mrs. Careless, Miss R. Young, Messrs. Savage, Gardener and Teasdale, Miss Georgie Clawson, in "Put my Little Shoes Away," were all encored, and throughout, the satisfaction evinced by the audience was immense; and the concert, artistically, was a credit to all participating; while financially, the number present was a guarantee of its success, for it was greater than the most sanguine friends of the Professor could have expected.

We trust that this concert will give such an impetus to musical study and progress in our midst, that it will be speedily followed by the formation in Salt Lake City of a Philharmonic Society, in which study and practice will be systematically persevered in by the members. The amount of musical talent in our midst only needs organization to bring about great results; and the formation of a society of the above description would bring about the organization necessary.

PETER'S MUSICAL MONTHLY.—This popular "Musical Monthly" for March is received. The following is its table of contents:

"God Bless the Little Church around the Corner;" Katy Mac Neil, song and chorus; My Dear Old Sunny Home; Mignone, song and chorus; Heaven Chime Her as an Angel, trio and chorus; Jesus, I my Cross have Taken, quartet; I will Arise and go to my Father, sacred. Welcome Home Schottische, May Rose Galop, Belle Georgine Quickstep, Rippling Waves Polka, Murmuring Waves, Transcription."

To be published by J. L. Peters, 599 Broadway, New York; and can be bought at Dexter's News Depot, East Temple St.

INDIANS NATURALIZED.—The Gold Hill News says: "Eleven Indians were made United States citizens at Yankton, Dakotah, recently.

CANAL COMPLETED.—President Geo. A. Smith received the following telegram this morning by Deseret telegraph line.

ST. GEORGE, March 1st, 1871.

Prest. Geo. A. Smith:—The Heberville canal is completed; five hundred inches of water without a dam. The weather here is fine. The snow in the upper part of Pine Valley is two feet deep.

H. GARDNER.

LEFT FOR HOME.—Hon. J. Sterling Morton left this city this afternoon for Ogden, where he will to-morrow morning take the eastern bound train for his home in Nebraska City, Nebraska.

"THE PROTECTOR."—No. 2 of The Protector, an eight page monthly, devoted to life insurance was received this morning. All interested in the subject of which it makes a specialty, should take the Protector. Besides articles on life insurance it contains tales, selections, scraps and general reading matter. The present number contains "Hints on Health;" "The Army of the Assured;" "Management of Life Insurance Companies," &c., &c. Under "Notices to Correspondents" the editor, Mr. Sidney Ashmore, announces that he will gladly answer any question that may be put to him on the subject of insurance. It is published at fifty cents a year, by W. C. and F. P. Church, 39 Park Row, New York.

Enterprising! Economical! Liberal! Safe!
ORGANIZED IN MAY, 1866.

12,537 POLICIES ISSUED AND REVIVED IN 1870.
ISSUING 1,074 POLICIES MORE THAN ANY OTHER COMP'Y IN THE WORLD!
Insuring $25,440,000.00, a gain of 50 per cent. over 1869.
☞ 32,400 Policies Issued up to December 31st, 1870. ☜
Income for the Year 1870, - $2,128,201.16.

This is a progress as remarkable as it is encouraging. It is an axiom laid down by the oldest and most experienced actuaries, that the more NEW POLICIES that are issued to replace death claims, the more stability is insured, and the larger the NEW BUSINESS of a company, the more favorable is its relative position with that of others.

Paid in Death Claims and Annuities in the year 1870, $316,000.00, Which is a large sum, and yet a very low average of losses.

Paid to our Policy-holders in Dividends and for purchased policies, in the year 1870, the large sum of - - - - - - - - - - $482,694.00.

And have in hand for next dividend more than half a million of earned surplus, after deducting re-insurance fund, capital stock, and all other liabilities.

☞ No other Company surpasses the CONTINENTAL in ability to pay large Dividends to its member.

NET ASSETS, Dec. 31, 1870, - $4,505,235.29.

This company is Purely Mutual in its operations, dividing its entire surplus among its policy-holders annually on the Contribution Plan; and claims a larger business, and a lower ratio of expense to income than has ever been attained by any other company at a corresponding period in its history; only one other New York Company showing as low a rate of expense to income. No Extra Premium for travel or foreign residence. No Extra Premium on women. Thirty days grace on the payment of premiums. All Policies non-forfeitable, according to the expressed terms contained in each policy. Policy-holders have a voice in the elections and management of the company. Policies incontestible for the customary reasons.
