

FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT

Judge D. A. Green, of Criminal Court of Birmingham, Ala., Strongly Urges Its Repeal.

WOULD SOLVE RACE PROBLEM

To Take from Negroes Right of Franchise Would Remove Chief Cause of Friction.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—The repeal of the fifteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which granted suffrage to negroes, was urged as the best and only remedy for solving the problem of the negro race in an address delivered by D. A. Green, senior judge of the criminal court of Birmingham, Ala., at the banquet of the Atlas club in the Egyptian banquet hall of the Auditorium hotel last night.

When the negro attempts to dominate the white, he said, "and exercise political privileges which may lead to preferment the limit is reached beyond which we cannot go."

PATERNALISM CONDEMNED.

Prest. Woodrow Wilson Would Have People Rely on Themselves.

New York, Nov. 14.—Speaking at the historical conference and bazaar held by the City Historical club of New York in the Plaza hotel, President Woodrow Wilson, of Princeton university, said that the club should try to teach the youth of New York what have been the impulses which have resulted in the best there is in American life, and he added:

"Let us not weakly call upon the government to appoint men to look into our business affairs who know nothing about those affairs. If the moral reform begins at home and if history's lessons be taught the youths of this and other cities aright, then the awakening, when it comes, will be a day of achievement and not a day of disappointment."

FIGHTING FOR LOWENSTEIN'S FORTUNE

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 14.—The struggle for the fortune of Bernard Lowenstein, millionaire, dry goods merchant of this city, and later of New York and Europe, where Bernard Lowenstein resided and died during the last thirty years of his life, are responsible for the suit.

Bernard Lowenstein came to Memphis before the civil war and by selling lead pencils, he laid the foundation for a business that has been developed into one of the most prosperous of the southern states.

He was created a knight by King Oscar of Sweden a few years before his death.

TO PERPETUATE NAME OF GROVER CLEVELAND

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 14.—Residents of Illinois, with the object of perpetuating the memory of Grover Cleveland, have formed the Grover Cleveland Memorial association, and articles to form such a corporation will be filed with the secretary of state today at Springfield, Ill. The association proposes to erect a suitable memorial to be presented to some municipality in the near future.

MURDERED BOATSWAIN THEN JUMPED INTO SEA

New York, Nov. 14.—After crushing in the head of his superior officer with an axe, James Layson, boatswain of the Liverpool sailing ship Colony, refused to submit to arrest, and still waving the bloody weapon, committed suicide by jumping into the sea. The Colony was bound from Port Talbot to Colimbo, Chile, the owners being notified by cable from the latter point.

Layson quarreled with an able seaman and the second mate, Robert Blackall, interfered. While the mate's back was turned, Layson grabbed an axe and split his head in twain. Capt. William son got a shotgun, but before he was able to fire, Layson, still brandishing the axe and shouting like a madman, leaped into the sea. As he began to swim away from the ship, a lifeboat was not ready, but before it got to him, Layson held his head downward in the sea and was drowned.

JAPAN'S DESIRE IS FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACE

New York, Nov. 14.—That the desire of Japan is international peace was emphasized tonight by Kokiichi Midzuno, Japanese consul-general in New York, in an address at Columbia university. He said:

"To me and to my people the most valuable asset of Japan is her desire for national peace—that intuitive and inherent instinct born in every heart—the one element that marks her chief difference from the nations of the world and the noble distinction between human and brute creation."

SAYS SERVIA MUST PROTECT HERSELF

Pisa, Italy, Nov. 13.—M. Milovanovich, the Serbian minister of foreign affairs, was received in audience today by King Victor Emmanuel at San Rossore, the royal chateau here. The minister explained the situation in Serbia and said that it was necessary for Serbia to protect herself against the Austrian "invasion." He strongly stigmatized the methods of Austria, and said that after the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, although the diplomatic relations with Serbia were unaltered, Austria treated Serbia as though war had been declared and prevented the entrance into Serbia of the Austrian frontier of railroad material and military supplies ordered previously from Germany and France, and even from Austria herself. Austria, the minister continued, after having torn up the treaty of Berlin, was now ignoring existing commercial treaties with Serbia. Serbia had no choice but to defend herself, because the consent of both parties was required for such a step, and it was hopeless to expect acquiescence from Austria, while Serbia was not sufficiently strong to resist the Austrian "bullying" by a show of force. Consequently, her only recourse was in an appeal to the public opinion of the world.

The Turkish ambassador to Italy is concerned over the audience granted by his majesty to the Serbian foreign minister, and has in turn applied to be received by the king. His majesty answered that he would see the ambassador tomorrow and asked him to dine with him. The ambassador is to present his letters of recall.

TRYING TO REACH ENTOMBED MINERS

Hamm, Westphalia, Germany, Nov. 13.—Rescue operations to reach the men entombed in the Radbody mine where an explosion of fire damp occurred yesterday morning with great loss of life, have not yet been renewed. The authorities estimate that there are still 350 miners below the ground, but no hope is entertained that they can be saved.

HAS TRIAL MONDAY.

E. J. Gregory to Answer Charge of "Sweating" Gold Coins.

Ehon J. Gregory, charged with "sweating" gold coins, will be tried in the federal court before United States Judge John A. Marshall next Monday.

Gregory must answer two charges, one for "sweating" coins, and the other for having a counterfeiting outfit in his possession.

Gregory was arrested last spring after two secret service men had been following him for two months. His home was searched after his arrest, and the officers found a complete outfit for "sweating" and counterfeiting coins in his attic. Gregory confined his operations, chiefly, however, to obtaining gold from new coins, mostly of the $5 and $10 denominations. He would extract by his "sweating" process from $1 to $2 in gold from the coin, and leave no marks, and then trade the gold pieces off and work on new ones. His plan was to sell the gold so taken to the mint at Denver, and at one shipment he sent about $500 worth of gold from the treasury, with the result that his gold was very pure and of the nature of coin gold, and the suspicions of the mint authorities were aroused. Two men were detailed on the case, with the result that Gregory was tracked to his attic and the gold making device was discovered. Gregory's arrest followed, and his trial is set for Monday next.
