THE FIGHT FOR THE POSTMASTERSHIP.

Weber County Central Committee Nominates E. W. Wade to Succeed T. H. Davis.

HOLD IMPRESSIVE OBSEQUIES

Over Remains of Mrs. Janet Faddis and Mrs. Henrietta Lamont on Sunday.

Ogden, Utah, Nov. 27.—E. W. Wade is the possible candidate to succeed Thomas H. Davis, as postmaster for Ogden. Mr. Davis' time will soon expire and as a Republican is sure to get the appointment for the position, the central committee of Weber county of the Republican party met Saturday evening for the purpose of balloting on a man to fill the important position, and the gentleman nominated for the position at the meeting were: T. H. Davis, the present incumbent, Robert A. Moses, E. W. Wade, William Glassman, D. W. Ellis and Fred F. Dalton.

A fight was made on Mr. Wade by Rudolph Kuehler, who was defeated for mayor, who charged Mr. Wade with unfaithfulness to his party during the recent city campaign, the fight became so strong that Mr. Wade was sent for, and he denounced the reports shortly after the body went into executive session to ballot upon the candidates. Four ballots were necessary. Eight members were present and Bishop Wade was represented by proxy. In the balloting William Glassman received but one vote, T. H. Davis one and D. W. Ellis one. The main fight was between Moses and Wade. On the first ballot Moses received four and Wade two. On the second Moses was still one vote in the lead, and the third ballot showed Moses even with Wade, with four votes each. The fourth ballot gave it to Wade, who secured the necessary five against three for Moses.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES.

Over Remains of Mrs. Janet Faddis and Mrs. Henrietta Lamont.

Impressive and comforting were the funeral services held yesterday afternoon over the remains of Mrs. Janet Faddis and Mrs. Henrietta Lamont. The services were held at the home of Mrs. Faddis, wife of Thomas H. Faddis and daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Archibald McFarland, who died a week ago last Saturday at Stirling, Alberta, Canada, of pneumonia aged 25 years, leaving besides her husband two little children.

Her remains arrived in Ogden Saturday and were taken to the home of her parents at West Weber, where hundreds of her friends looked upon her face for the last time in mortality, and placed beautiful flowers upon her as tokens of esteem.

That she was beloved by all was evidenced by the large attendance at the services, the meetings being so crowded that the services were held in a hall. The services were held at 1 o'clock, and the choir sang a number of beautiful selections and solos were rendered by Mrs. Pearl Loehndorf and Orson Griffin.

The speakers were Elders Joseph Bidwell, Alma J. Larkin, Henry Grov, George Loehndorf, Sr., Earl Greenwell, Nathan Hawkins, Walter Keen, Sister Hannah Greenwell and Bishop Robert McFarland. The beautiful life of the departed one was eulogized and her many noble, pure, Godlike characteristics and virtues were feelingly recalled to. In life she had from the cradle to the grave been one of the purest and choicest of God's children ever anxious to do good and to make herself happy. Her life was one worthy of emulation, and in years to come her memory will be cherished fondly by all who had known her.

A funeral cortege of a half mile long followed her remains to their last resting place, the West Weber cemetery, Elder Gibson dedicating the grave.

MRS. LAMONT AT REST.

Peacefully the remains of Mrs. Henrietta Lamont, wife of Benjamin Lamont, who died last Wednesday, were laid to rest in the silent grave, which was dedicated by Elder T. A. Shreve.

Under the direction of Prof. Balthazare the Fifth ward choir rendered a number of sweet selections and Mrs. Mary Farley sang "After" and "Misery." Balthazare, who was officiating at the services which were commenced at 12 o'clock yesterday at the Fifth ward meetinghouse, Bishop John Watson presiding. Elders Shreve, Brown, James H. Douglass, Bishop Robert McQuarry and President C. F. Middleton, spoke many words of comfort to the family on the life beyond the grave, and referred feelingly to the well spent life and noble career that had just closed, but whose good deeds and many acts of kindness would be remembered in years to come. The attendance was large and the floral offerings numerous and beautiful.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Hannah M. Osborne, wife of Corwin Osborne, who died Friday evening at Provo from exhaustion will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 258 Madison avenue, under the direction of the Fourth

'MORMON' PHILOSOPHY.

Lecture in Ogden Tabernacle by Elder Charles W. Penrose.

Ogden, Nov. 27.—At the Ogden Tabernacle yesterday afternoon Elder Charles W. Penrose delivered a most interesting discourse before a large congregation on "Mormon Philosophy." He quoted many passages of Scripture and took up the creation of the earth and man, showing that when God created the earth He did not bring it together out of nothing, but that the materials of which the earth was created were brought together by His almighty power, that after the earth was fashioned the Lord of Hosts and His angels descended into which he also returns, and his spirit returns to God who gave it. Elder Penrose proved most beautifully the existence of God from natural principles as well as Bible proof, and urged his hearers to live according to the laws and commandments of our heavenly Father that they might joyfully be permitted to His presence and be exalted forever.

TWO VICTIMS OF PNEUMONIA.

Peter Agren, a well known resident of Harrisville, passed away yesterday at his home in Harrisville, Weber county, after a brief illness from pneumonia, aged 58 years. He is survived by a wife, two sons and two daughters. He joined the latter-day Saints' faith in his native land, Sweden, and emigrated to Utah 29 years ago. The time and place of his death will be announced later.

THE HOME OF MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH W. WILCOX, 525 TWENTY-FIFTH STREET, WAS HERE OF THEIR BRIGHT LITTLE SON WHO EVENING PNEUMONIA BEING THE IMMEDIATE CAUSE OF HIS DEATH. HE WAS BORN AT PARK CITY AND WAS AGED 5 YEARS, 7 MONTHS AND 15 DAYS. THE FATHER WAS AT PARK CITY, BUT WAS IMMEDIATELY ADVISED OF HIS DEATH AND WITH RUSHIVE HOME THIS EVENING, AND THE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE FUNERAL WILL NOT BE MADE UNTIL HE COMES. THE CHILD IS A GRANDSON OF LOCALITY HERE IN OGDEN, CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

POLICE NOTES.

A number of Japanese laborers employed in the beet fields near Garland, Boxelder county, received their checks Friday from S. Takahira a Japanese business man, and afterwards a fellow countryman named Koyama, robbed them of their time checks and came to Ogden that evening. The police and sheriff's office were notified but have been unable to locate him in Ogden. Last evening a Japanese man, M. T. Koyama, caused a little excitement on Twenty-sixth street near Grant avenue, by interfering with ladies who were on their way home. The police were notified and went to the scene of the disturbance, but the Japanese man was first seen by the police on his appearance in police court.

"DRUNKENNESS" CIGARETTE AND TOBACCO HABITS CURED BY TRIB

The examination of the bath water after taking TRIB a few days will convince anyone of the astonishing amount of impurities coming from the system. Because TRIB cures the liquor and tobacco "habits" with no bad "after effects" and possesses every merit claimed for it, the business has grown to be one of the largest of its kind in the world.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE BOOKINGS.

Manager Grant has booked for this week at the opera house the following attractions: For Monday night, "A Jolly American Tramp." Those who have band music should hear the Killie band, who appear Tuesday evening.

UTAH COUNTY POULTRY SHOW.

The Utah County Poultry and Pigeon association is arranging for a poultry and pigeon show, to be held here from Dec. 25 to Dec. 26. Since the poultry has been organized there has been a noticeable improvement in the poultry of the county, which, it is expected, the fair will further stimulate.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

The speakers at the tabernacle yesterday were Elders Joseph B. Keeler and J. H. Frisky. James Lombardi, of Thistle, appeared before Justice Noon Saturday and gave a bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance tomorrow for preliminary examination on a charge of assaulting James Burg with a deadly weapon, growing out of the beating he gave Burg with a gun at Thistle last Thursday.

Superintendent Eggerstedt spent a part of last week in Lehi visiting the school.

J. J. Cranger of Colton has bought the Kitchen Nipper home in the city ward and will hereafter make his home in Provo.

Washington Preston of American Fork was bound over to the district court by Justice Hunter Saturday in $500 bond, to answer to a charge of taking sheep belonging to a Provo valley man.

The county commissioners have fixed the rate to be paid for burying in the graves, including the digging of the grave, at $7.50.

On the evening of Nov. 26 the Fifth ward juvenile choir will present "Queen Esther" at the opera house for the benefit of Miss Leona Dunn, who has lately recovered from an illness, requiring an operation.

The sixth ward, which has great musical talent among its members, gave a line concert last evening.

This evening the pupils of the Maeser school, assisted by local musical talent, will give a musical and literary entertainment in the Maeser schoolhouse for the benefit of the Free public library.

Miss Mina Houston, deputy county clerk, was called to American Fork Saturday by the serious illness of her mother.

County Fish and Game Warden Jones is the proud possessor of one of the finest fish poles in the state, presented to him by State Fish and Game Commissioner Sharp in appreciation of Mr. Jones' interest in the work for the fish interests of the state. The Kitties played before an enthusiastically appreciative audience in the opera house Saturday evening. The best game attraction of the home is "When Knighthood Was in Flower," with Roselle Knott as Princess Mary Tudor, which holds the boards on Saturday. The girl basketball team of the Franklin and the Timpanogos schools played a great game Friday at the Timpanogos school. The Timpanogos girls won on a score of 15 to 1. The time of holding the monthly state Priesthood meetings has been changed from Saturday at 9 o'clock till Friday at 3 o'clock. The change has been made in order to make it more convenient for many, who are especially busy on Saturdays, to attend. The first meeting under the new rule will be held next Friday.

Herbert Boardman of the bureau of statistics at Washington, D. C., who has been visiting relatives here, left yesterday for Washington.
