PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected Daily by BANK OF DESERET.

SALT LAKE CITY, September 20, 1871.

Buying at $1.10; Selling at $1.13.

WEATHER ITEM.—The highest point reached by the thermometer to-day was 84.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—To-night the splendid drama, "No Thoroughfare" will be performed. It is a play of great interest and should draw a good house.

THE MEMBERS of the High Council are requested to meet at the City Hall on Thursday and Friday mornings, at ten o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

SCARCELY CREDITABLE.—We have been informed the extemporized irrepressibles, otherwise known as the Wasatch Cavalry, comprise quite a sprinkling of the Jewish element. We feel unwilling to believe that any respectable son of Judah would so far demean himself as to have any connection whatever with the "ring." If the report be correct, the better class of Jews in this City should say to their straying brethren, "To your stores, O Israel!" although, were there any prospect of smelling powder in matter, the advice would very likely be entirely unnecessary.

NAVAJOES EXACTING.—We are indebted to President Young for the following, received per Deseret Telegraph Line:—

ST. GEORGE, Sept 19, 1871.

To Pres. B. Young.—Bishop Stewart and Jacob Hamblin let the Navajoes have some fifty horses on their own terms, and about sixty of them started home. Jacob, with a small party of whites, started next day to meet Major Powell at the Colorado Ford, and intending to go thence to the Moqui village. The rest of the Navajoes came with Ira Hatch to Toquerville, and on Saturday another company of twenty reached Shunesburg, having come over the trail the same day. I have learned by express from Kanab to-day that twenty-five more have reached that place, on their way to our settlements, all hungry and expecting a heap of presents. Nearly seventy are now in our settlements, and report says the other sixty are waiting on the Pahreo for their comrades, and themselves and horses are living on the brethren's corn, while they all profess friendship. They manifest an exacting spirit. Colonel Andrus, with a small detachment, is on the look-out at Short Creek and Winsor.

WHICH?—Four or five years ago, a gentleman, summoned as a grand juryman, before Hon. Chief Justice Titus, in this city, requested to be excused. The Chief Justice inquired on what ground, and was answered on that of being a polygamist, whereupon his honor, in his own peculiar way struck the desk with his fist and exclaimed, "Sit down—that does not disqualify you for being a grand juryman." Which must be considered the proper legal authority—Titus or McKean? If Judge Titus, notwithstanding his anti-Mormon prejudices, was not as sound a lawyer, as honest a man, and as upright a judge as Mc Kean, notwithstanding his quondam Methodist parsonical proclivities, we should very much like to know it, and we would take infinite pleasure in publishing that fact, though it would give us a world of trouble to induce the public to believe it was a fact. They would think we were only getting sarcastic.

SELF RESPECT.—There is no feeling, the loss of which is so disastrous to man as self-respect. It is one of the greatest misfortunes that can befall anybody, for with that, as a general rule, goes one of the greatest redeemable features; without it we should think that man must be a poor contemptible creature. The loss of self-respect is caused by a continued persistence in a course opposed to all the higher dictates of conscience, a knowledge of a person's own personal and unmitigated meanness.

Having this view we cannot but think that the "Guberno-Judicio-ringists" hereabouts are in a very unenviable predicament, and it is difficult to decide which feeling should be entertained towards them, pity or contempt; or which should predominate. We reiterate the advice which we have before given to those characters; to repent of their sins and endeavor to regain that self respect which they have evidently lost, and then, perchance, they may, after due manifestations of true penitence, be] looked upon with at least a degree of consideration and respect by honest, law-loving people. There are no people so objectionable to upright men and women as those who act directly in the face of their own convictions of right.

DIED.—Last night, of lung fever, after an illness of several weeks, Thomas Martin, colored. He was kept by Dr. Anderson for some time, but was recently turned over to the city authorities.

ADVANCE CENSUS SHEETS.—We are indebted to Francis A. Walker, Esq., Superintendent of Census Department of the Interior, for advance sheets of the 299 pages of the Population Volume of the Ninth Census, comprising the first four tables of that volume.

EDWIN S. BEARSLEY.—There is a letter for you at this Office. Call and get it.

SOUND BADLY.—The Territorial Enterprise thinks that the stories concerning recent events in Utah "sound badly for the Mormons." Of course they sound badly—all calumnies and highly colored slanders do. But the correctives are a clear head, an honest heart, and hearing both sides, particularly that of the abused party. These provided, there is no trouble at all. But if you hear both sides and your head is muddled, your mind prejudiced, and your heart corrupt, the best you will then be able to do will be to say, with the Dutch Justice, on hearing each side, "By sure you've got the case."

HEAVY.—It will be seen by a telegram from Beaver, that Judge H——y's "little boy" met with an accident while hunting, by his gun "kicking" against his face, and, as our agent says, "giving him more cheek." Our agent must be sarcastic, "giving him more cheek," just as if such a thing were possible. We have always understood the youth had as much of that as he could carry. We suppose the public are aware that he is the junior partner in the firm of H——y and Son. Although this is a new house it is said considerable business in running Courts has already been done by it. The business, when conducted on the plan adopted by some persons, is said to be lucrative.

BRIGHAM CITY, Sept 18th, 1871.

Editor E. News.—Nearly four and a half miles of grading have been completed by the citizens of this place, on the U. N. Judge Smith superintends the work at this point.

A jail is in the course of erection near the Court House, though at present little or no crime is committed in the county.

A second crop of "hoppers" is hatching out in some places here, which we do not regret, but hope the process may be of a general nature, for it may prove a general benefit.

The people of this county, and the northern limits of Weber county, are freighting peaches to Cache Valley in small trains, where a ready market is found for that kind of produce.

Respectfully, A. C.

(Special to the NEWS, per Des. Tel.)

INTERESTING COURT PROCEEDINGS AT BEAVER.

BEAVER, Sept. 20th.

On Monday, the 18th; the court met, pursuant to a proclamation of the Governor. The U. S. Marshal returned the venire for grand and petit jurors. The grand jury were chiefly from the mining districts and the petit jurors were mixed. None were summoned under the law of Utah. The grand jury was empanelled, having aliens on it, as I am told. Judge Hawley gave his charge to the grand jury, such as it was, being too long to telegraph. Judge McCurdy was appointed U. S. Attorney for this district, who filed information against Judge Murdock for exercising civil and criminal jurisdiction, and prayed for a writ of prohibition. A rule against him, to show cause against it, to-morrow morning. No other business of importance.

In the afternoon; C. M. Hawley, not the Judge, went out hunting when his gun kicked him over, wounding him in the face, giving him more cheek.

On Tuesday, 19th, the court met, and Judge Murdock appeared and filed his answer to the information which was presented to the court. It is not yet decided.

Thomas Mather, a young man from Cove Creek, made application for naturalization. He was catechized, by the august Court, in relation to his belief in plurality of wives. Thomas admitted he believed in the doctrine and, of course, had to go away without his papers.

In the case of Lee against Lee, for alimony, C. M. Hawley, the Court, ordered Mr. Lee, the husband to bring into court one hundred dollars, attorney's fees for C. M. Hawley. Our courts at Beaver are a master-piece. It would be well for others to come here and learn.

Special Notices.

NEW REFORM.—The introduction of Soda Water and Sarsaparilla, by Day & Co., has done more in the way of a Temperance Reform than all the lectures that have been delivered in the country. The natural condition of man is a thirsty one, and it has long been an established fact that water will not quench thirst. The question then arises, can we find a substitute as harmless in its effects, and more delicious in taste than anything yet discovered? We find it in Day & Co.'s Soda and Sarsparilla. If every one would sign the Pledge and drink nothing but this Celebrated Beverage, much degradation, misery, shame and crime would be prevented in the world. If any one doubts the truth of our remarks let them step into the first place they come to and try it. It will vouch for itself. em(170) tf
