LESTION, June II.—The correspond-cate of the Daily Mail at Athene says: Extraordinary fumous accountries to to the attitude of German, it is sil-leged, that the German government seaks to overthrow the Greak dynasty and to establish a rigorous number of Greak Rusnes. In order to attain this double object, Germany wants a continuance of the war, and to have the terms of peace flusty detailed at Athens itself.

The sitable ment seems scarcely wently ins brins of pasce finally dictated at a through beat.

The windermant seems carriedy westry of credents, but it is probable that dermany will continue to press for innancial central.
