NEW YORK, 15.—There seems little doubt that the call for a meeting of the national democratic committee of this city means an attempt to fuse the discordant elements, and secure harmony in the party. The evening papers concur with the morning journals, representing that an effort is being made to induce. Robinson, and Kally to to induce Robinson and Kelly to withdraw. The movement com-prehends some of the ablest minds in the party.

General News.

CHICAGO, 15.—The city conneil having voted to allow the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad to enter the city and the mayor having veloed their ordinance, the council, to-night, by a vote of 30 to five, passed the measure over the veto. It is generally understood veto. It is generally understood that the Grand Trunk or the Wabash, or both roads will now secure entrance into the city.

Philadelphia, 15.—An explosion occurred this afternoon, at Quaker City oil works, Cooperville, whereby George J. Emery, son of the proprietor was killed and Andrew Emery, another son, and James Stanger machinist were so hadly Stanger, machinist, were so badly injured that their lives are despaired of. The works had just been erected and started up for the first time in the refining of oil by a new process. The main still was blown atoms and the burning oil scattered in every direction.

Denver Col., 15.—A fire destroyed the shaft house of the Caribore, Idaho, and Monitor mines, at Caribore, last night; also several small theuses, cocupied by miners and their families. The damage is about $40,000. The fire originated in the timber.

Albany, 15.—The glove factory of John Hale & Co., Gloversville, was burned to-day; loss $40,000, insurance $30,000. Atlanta, 15.—Comptroller General Goldsmith and Assistant Trea surer Murphy sent their resigna-tions to the Governor to-day, who efused to accept them.

Nashville, Tenn., 15.—A boiler in O. C. Power's slaughter house exploded this afternoon, tearing Frank Duffy to pieces, killing him instantly, and fatally wounding Felix Cheatham, colored. Blown Up.

COLUMBUS, 15. — The Corbin Hotel, occupied by Henry Corbin, at Westerville, in this County, was blown up last night, by gun powder, and although the builning was occupied by a number of people, no one but Corbin was injured, and he not fatally. It is not known who placed the powder in the building, but Corbin asserts that it was done by some of the villagers, and is the outcome of his refusal to cease sell-ing liquor in the village four years ago. The building he occupied as a saloon was demolished by gunpowder then, and Corbin left the town, only returning a short time ago. All attempts to arrest the guilty parties have proved a failure. The damage to the hotel and a joining building is $6,000.
