

SOCIETY

SOCIAL

CLUB

On Thursday Miss Beatrice Cheeseman and Miss Florence Kimball were guests of honor at a luncheon given by Misses Pearl and Nora Van Cott. The table had for a centerpiece a basket of sweet peas tied with pink tulle and streamers of the tulle twisted with smilax extended to the corners ending in bows of the tulle. Pink shaded candles were used and the confetti were in pink. Mrs. E. J. Post gave an elaborate dinner on Thursday night in honor of Miss Helen Santschi.

Mrs. A. H. Peabody and Mrs. G. F. Putnam entertained at a musical evening at the home of Mrs. Peabody, a delightful program being rendered by well known artists.

Mrs. W. P. Cooper entertained at a Kensington yesterday, the event being the second in a series.

Miss Nan Clawson was guest of honor at a luncheon on Tuesday given by Miss Louise Spencer, the rooms being bright with flowers and covers laid for about a dozen.

Misses Isabel and Amy Osborne and Hannah Le Compe were guests of honor at an Orpheum party on Monday.

Mrs. C. S. Vahner entertained informally at cards on Wednesday.

Miss Valentine Murphy was guest of honor at a quilting party on Tuesday, given by Mrs. Alex Colbath and Mrs. Albert Genter, and presented with the handsome quilt on which they worked at the close. Red roses were all about the house and a buffet supper served. About a dozen were present.

Miss Hazel Pond will be entertained by Miss Norma Benton today, her function being a luncheon.

Miss Bessie Williamson was guest of honor at a china shower party on Thursday given by Mrs. W. W. Anness and Mrs. V. P. Hickey.

Mrs. W. J. Lynch entertains at a card party this afternoon.

Miss Lottie Griggs, whose marriage takes place shortly, was guest of honor at a parcel shower party on Tuesday given by Mrs. C. U. Griggs, the decorations being in roses and hearts and about 20 being present. Last night Miss Griggs was entertained at a china shower party by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oiler.

Mrs. Arthur Skidmore was hostess at a luncheon on Thursday in honor of Miss Emily Grimsdell and Mrs. Carl Prinz, the table being bright with red and white roses and covers laid for Miss Grimsdell, Mrs. Prinz, Mrs. Crane, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Anstee, Mrs. Channell, Mrs. Grimsdell, Miss Jennie Grimsdell, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Winner, Mrs. Broadus, Miss McMaster, Mrs. Coombs and Miss Holt.

Mrs. T. J. Morgan entertained informally at dinner on Tuesday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson.

On Tuesday, Mrs. J. P. Megeath was hostess at a bridge tea, assisted by Miss Bessie Lane and Miss A. C. Ellis. Six tables were laid and prizes won by the following: Mrs. Benjamin C. Lockwood, Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett, Mrs. M. C. Woodward, Mrs. D. W. Worthington, Mrs. Henry LaMotte, Miss Katharine Williams and Miss Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. Walter G. Tuttle entertained at a luncheon and card party on Tuesday, pink and red roses being the decorations, and covers laid for about 40 guests. Prizes were won by Mrs. O. Lewis, Mrs. Hugh Anderson, Mrs. Elmer Darling. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. S. B. Tuttle, Mrs. J. J. Broughall and Mrs. George Savage.

On Wednesday Miss Mary Mayne and Miss Claire Ellerbeck gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Valentine Murphy, at the home of Miss Mayne, which was effectively decorated, the table being in white and green with roses and ferns. Covers were laid for 16.

Mrs. M. A. Greenwood of California was guest of honor at two card parties one given on Wednesday afternoon and evening, given by Mrs. Ernest Greenwood, the decorations being in roses and six tables being played at each.

Mrs. H. A. Whitney gave an Orpheum party on Wednesday for her little daughter, followed by a supper at her home.

Mrs. Charles Crane and Mrs. E. Walker entertained the Old Card club on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Carl Prinz, the tables being decorated in pink and white roses, and the dining room in red. Mrs. H. A. Nelson, Mrs. Berge and Mrs. Van Dyke were prize winners.

Captain and Mrs. H. C. Clement entertained at a supper Thursday night, following the post box, which was a usual a most enjoyable affair.

Miss Bessie Williamson will be guest of honor at a card party on Monday, given by Mrs. Willard Hanson.

A pretty affair of yesterday was the luncheon given by the Misses Gertrude and Ethel Campbell for Miss Helen Santschi.

Miss Fannie Buckner gives an Orpheum party this afternoon, followed by a tea at her home in honor of Miss Bessie Williamson.

Miss Carrie Colbath was hostess at a luncheon on Saturday in honor of Miss Valentine Murphy.

Mrs. E. J. Post gave an elaborate dinner on Thursday night in honor of Miss Helen Santschi.

Mrs. A. H. Peabody and Mrs. G. F. Putnam entertained at a musical evening at the home of Mrs. Peabody, a delightful program being rendered by well known artists.

Mrs. W. P. Cooper entertained at a Kensington yesterday, the event being the second in a series.

Miss Nan Clawson was guest of honor at a luncheon on Tuesday given by Miss Louise Spencer, the rooms being bright with flowers and covers laid for about a dozen.

Misses Isabel and Amy Osborne and Hannah Le Compe were guests of honor at an Orpheum party on Monday.

Mrs. C. S. Vahner entertained informally at cards on Wednesday.

Miss Valentine Murphy was guest of honor at a quilting party on Tuesday, given by Mrs. Alex Colbath and Mrs. Albert Genter, and presented with the handsome quilt on which they worked at the close. Red roses were all about the house and a buffet supper served. About a dozen were present.

Miss Hazel Pond will be entertained by Miss Norma Benton today, her function being a luncheon.

Miss Bessie Williamson was guest of honor at a china shower party on Thursday given by Mrs. W. W. Anness and Mrs. V. P. Hickey.

Mrs. W. J. Lynch entertains at a card party this afternoon.

Miss Lottie Griggs, whose marriage takes place shortly, was guest of honor at a parcel shower party on Tuesday given by Mrs. C. U. Griggs, the decorations being in roses and hearts and about 20 being present. Last night Miss Griggs was entertained at a china shower party by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oiler.

Mrs. Arthur Skidmore was hostess at a luncheon on Thursday in honor of Miss Emily Grimsdell and Mrs. Carl Prinz, the table being bright with red and white roses and covers laid for Miss Grimsdell, Mrs. Prinz, Mrs. Crane, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Anstee, Mrs. Channell, Mrs. Grimsdell, Miss Jennie Grimsdell, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Winner, Mrs. Broadus, Miss McMaster, Mrs. Coombs and Miss Holt.

Mrs. T. J. Morgan entertained informally at dinner on Tuesday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson.

On Tuesday, Mrs. J. P. Megeath was hostess at a bridge tea, assisted by Miss Bessie Lane and Miss A. C. Ellis. Six tables were laid and prizes won by the following: Mrs. Benjamin C. Lockwood, Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett, Mrs. M. C. Woodward, Mrs. D. W. Worthington, Mrs. Henry LaMotte, Miss Katharine Williams and Miss Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. Walter G. Tuttle entertained at a luncheon and card party on Tuesday, pink and red roses being the decorations, and covers laid for about 40 guests. Prizes were won by Mrs. O. Lewis, Mrs. Hugh Anderson, Mrs. Elmer Darling. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. S. B. Tuttle, Mrs. J. J. Broughall and Mrs. George Savage.

On Wednesday Miss Mary Mayne and Miss Claire Ellerbeck gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Valentine Murphy, at the home of Miss Mayne, which was effectively decorated, the table being in white and green with roses and ferns. Covers were laid for 16.

Mrs. M. A. Greenwood of California was guest of honor at two card parties one given on Wednesday afternoon and evening, given by Mrs. Ernest Greenwood, the decorations being in roses and six tables being played at each.

Mrs. H. A. Whitney gave an Orpheum party on Wednesday for her little daughter, followed by a supper at her home.

Mrs. Charles Crane and Mrs. E. Walker entertained the Old Card club on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Carl Prinz, the tables being decorated in pink and white roses, and the dining room in red. Mrs. H. A. Nelson, Mrs. Berge and Mrs. Van Dyke were prize winners.

Captain and Mrs. H. C. Clement entertained at a supper Thursday night, following the post box, which was a usual a most enjoyable affair.

Miss Bessie Williamson will be guest of honor at a card party on Monday, given by Mrs. Willard Hanson.

A pretty affair of yesterday was the luncheon given by the Misses Gertrude and Ethel Campbell for Miss Helen Santschi.

Miss Fannie Buckner gives an Orpheum party this afternoon, followed by a tea at her home in honor of Miss Bessie Williamson.

Miss Carrie Colbath was hostess at

Miss Anna McCormick, Miss Genevieve McCormick, Miss Maude Fitch, Miss Letta Stingley, Count Laborde, Albert McCormick, Walter Salisbury, and Mr. Newman.

Miss Elizabeth Groo gave a luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Miss Hayes of Butte, the decorations being in pink sweet peas and pink shaded candles and covers laid for eight.

Miss Olive Pearson gave a Kensington on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Mollie Willis, the decorations being in pink and red roses mingled with green, and 15 guests being entertained.

Miss Cheeseman and Miss Ruth Kingsbury were guests of honor at a luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday given by Miss Aileen Maclean, the decorations being in pink roses.

Mrs. Earl Shimmitt entertained at a china shower last Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Jennie C. DuChene, who is to be married to Mr. Jarold Roy Free next Wednesday, June 28.

Mrs. C. S. Vahner entertained informally at cards on Wednesday.

Miss Hazel Calder will entertain at a linen shower next Monday in honor of Miss Helena Walsh.

Miss Beatrice Wilkinson and Miss Virginia Bush entertained on Monday for Miss Valentine Murphy, the affair being in the way of an informal tea, and the other guests being Mrs. S. C. Welch of Sacramento, Miss Ada Murphy, Mrs. George M. P. Dougal, Miss Mary Mayne, Miss Claire Ellerbeck, Miss Grace Nelson and Miss Esther Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cutler, Jr. entertained 50 friends at their home on E street Friday evening. Games and music being the features of the evening. The rooms were prettily decorated with red and white carnations, roses and ferns.

Last night Miss Amy Addams entertained for Miss Bessie Williamson at a supper, covers being laid for 15. The dining room was in syringas, and the parlor in red roses.

Mrs. George D. Pyper announces the engagement of her sister, Hattie Whitlock, to Sidney C. Saville, the marriage to take place in the fall.

The marriage of Miss Althea Farr of Ogden and Isaac Russell of the "News" staff will be solemnized on Wednesday in the temple and will be followed by a luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton, after which the bride will leave for a short trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Hewlett announce the engagement of their daughter, Mabel, to Guy Arnold Wilson. The marriage will take place Wednesday next.

The most elaborate bridal event of the week was that of Miss Evelyn Daly and J. J. Roberts which took place on Thursday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Roberts. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Scanlan, and the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. T. Roy Daly, as maid of honor, and Miss Mildred McMillan and Miss Merce Edwards of Oakland, bridesmaids, Little Brownie Brown and Evelyn Brown were the flower girls, and Alexander T. Johnson of Wonder, Nev., best man.

Another pretty wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Gertrude Kelly and William G. Seley, Rev. Perkins officiating, Miss Myrtle Kelly being bridesmaid and Mr. John Seley best man.

Miss Ella Smith and Mr. Hugh Douglas were among Wednesday's bridal couples, the ceremony being performed in the temple and a family dinner following at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Douglas on State street.

The marriage of Miss Vernice Burton and Edwin H. Hatch took place on Wednesday at the bride's home with Bishop R. T. Burton officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Hatch will make their home at Heber City.

Miss Lida Haunhurst and R. J. Winegar were married at the bride's home on Wednesday by Rev. Herbert Hays, a large reception following.

A pretty wedding of Thursday was that of Miss Cora Cameron and Raymond Boas, the ceremony being performed at the Congregational church by Rev. Simpkins and Miss Helen Boas being bridesmaid and Elmer Forting best man. The bride's gown was of light blue and she carried Irish lace trimmings and she carried bride's roses. The decorations were in palms and roses. Later Mr. and Mrs. Boas left for a trip to the coast but will be at home after July 14 at 675 Eighth East street.

A quiet wedding celebrated the marriage of Miss Mae Robinson and W. O. Walker on Thursday night. Rev. Simpkins officiating in the presence of the families and intimate friends. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss L. A. Walker.

On Thursday night Rev. P. A. Simpkins performed the ceremony uniting Miss Laura Corinne Harris and Henry Hammer of the Salt Lake Hardware company, the event taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Harris, and a large reception following. The parlor was decorated with a profusion of pink roses and the bride couple stood in the bay window under a wedding bell of orange blossoms. The living room was decorated with pink roses. The bride wore a gown of silver gray silk chiffon over silk of the same color with point lace trimmings, and carried pink bride's roses. Mrs. C. C. Snyder was matron of honor and wore a gown of pink and white silk chiffon over white silk and carried a white feather fan. Mrs. Harris, the bride's mother, was in black silk with point lace trimmings. Miss Lucy Gatrell played the bridal music and Mrs. Snyder sang "My Wedding Day" at the entrance of the party. Assisting during the evening were Mrs. George Norman, Mrs. George B. Squires, Mrs. M. Dunbar, Mrs. A. Larsen, Misses Rose Errington, Bertha Willey, Nora Van Dyke, Marguerite Meatrix, and little Ethel Dunbar distributed wedding cake for the guests to "dream on." Many beautiful and costly presents were received, some of them from friends at a distance. Mr. and Mrs. Hammer will be at home after July 1 at 2555 Seventh East street.

On Monday Miss Lucy Gaby and George R. Smith were married at the First M. E. church by Rev. Benjamin Young, Miss Clifton Mayne being bridesmaid and Mr. Milton Lipman best man, while Messrs. Wesley Davis and Lawrence Hammell were ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have gone for an extended eastern trip.

Miss Hazel Malin and Elva N. Black were married on Wednesday at the home of the bride, Bishop Joseph Christianson officiating and a wedding supper being served for the relatives and a few friends, and the decorations being in roses. Mr. and Mrs. Black will be at home at Kendall Square.

The marriage of Miss Helena Walsh and Joseph A. Williams takes place on Wednesday in the temple. A reception will follow in the evening at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

MISS LILLIAN SWEENEY

NO WEDDING BELLS FOR HER.

Miss Lillian Sweeney, of St. Louis, has the courage of her convictions and is back at work in a lamp factory, where she gathers in her hebdomadal fifteen silver dollars in preference to taking care of a husband. Miss Sweeney was to have married Kenneth L. Bloom, but at the very altar changed her mind. She has, by virtue of her reply at that time, earned the soubriquet of "The Just Because Girl."

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

Miss Valentine Murphy and John A. Malin will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Invitations are out for the wedding

will be those of Miss Margaret Condie and John P. Nelson, Miss Minnie Graham and Joseph Jensen, Miss Araminta Hooper and M. Rich Porter, Miss Winona Jones and A. P. Larrabee.

"There's joy in dressing over this. A 'Gossard' corset is designed for slight and slender figures. The desirable rounded effects reach perfection in this model. It is a tribute to the marvelous adjustment possibilities of these corsets however, to say that this model is perfect on many figures in sizes up to 32."

"They lace in front"

CORSETS MODELS

Generally speaking our Model S "Gossard" corset is designed for slight and slender figures. The desirable rounded effects reach perfection in this model. It is a tribute to the marvelous adjustment possibilities of these corsets however, to say that this model is perfect on many figures in sizes up to 32.

"They Lace in Front"

Expert Corsetiers in attendance.

THE CHARLTON SHOP

OUTFITTERS FOR WOMEN

122 South Main, Salt Lake

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

Wednesday at the Logan Temple, Miss Janet McKay and Dr. Joseph R. Morrell were married, Apostle David O. McKay, brother of the bride, performing the ceremony. They returned home in the evening and were given a family reception at the home of D. O. McKay.

The contracting parties are among Ogden's most prominent and popular young people. The bride is daughter of County Commissioner David McKay, and president of the Young Ladies Mutual Improvement association of the Weber stake. During the past three years she has been one of the instructors at the Weber stake academy. Dr. Morrell is one of the city's prominent young physicians. They will be home to their friends at 2071 Madison avenue, after July 1.

A most delightful surprise party was given Tuesday evening at the home of George Lockhead, Sr., on Twenty-sixth street in honor of his sister, Mrs. Jennie Tullock, of Australia, who has been spending a couple of months with her brother in this city. There were a large number of relatives and friends present who spent a very enjoyable evening in songs, instrumental music and social chat. Delightful refreshments were served. A profusion of roses were used in the parlors. Mrs. Tullock left Ogden Wednesday for California and will sail this month for her home. She is very much taken up with the natural beauties of Ogden and hopes some day to have the pleasure of visiting here again.

The Lucky Thirteen club was entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. H. Rhine. Cards were played

WILL AUGUST BELMONT MARRY.

The name of Mrs. Charles Carroll, now living in Paris, has been so frequently coupled with that of August Belmont of New York that the banker was recently asked point blank if he was to become the husband of the charming widow. He would neither deny nor affirm the rumor, yet there are many grounds for believing it to be true, among them the fact that he has been seen much in her company, and that she was seated next him at a dinner at the Hotel Ritz, in Paris, given by Perry and Mrs. Belmont, who had, as other guests, the Princess Isenberg and the Prince and Princess de Leiningen.

home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. O. Webb.

Invitations are out for the reception following the quiet wedding of Miss Hazel D. Pond to Willard Conrad Snow, on Tuesday evening, June 25.

Invitations are out for the wedding reception of Miss Edna Barker and Elbert Thomas at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Preston Jenne Cannon, on Tuesday evening, June 25.

The marriage of Miss Mamie Harkin and Charles M. Peterson took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents on Third avenue, at 1 o'clock, only the relatives and close friends being present at the ceremony, and later a reception being given to over 75 friends. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson took the 11:45 train for Los Angeles to spend a month.

Mr. Arthur Frewin announces the engagement of his daughter Emma to Mr. Wilfred A. Beesley, the marriage to take place in the near future.

A pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Luella Phillips and Charles Price on Wednesday, the event taking place at the bride's home and a large reception following. The rooms were beautifully decorated and a number of intimate friends and relatives assisted in receiving. Miss Lillian Price was bridesmaid and Ernest Croston best man. Mr. and Mrs. Price will be at home after July 15, at 633 Sixth avenue.

Among the weddings of next week

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever.

DR. T. Felix Gouraud's Oriental Cream or Medical Beautifier.

Removes Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Blemishes, Redness, and every blemish of the face, and restores the natural beauty of the skin. It is so harmless and so effective that it is recommended by the highest medical authorities. It is sold