

FORAKER CANCELS HIS ENGAGEMENTS

Requests Chairman Hitchcock to Relieve Him of Appointments Arranged by Bureau.

HE ELIMINATES HIMSELF.

From Participation With Judge Taft In Italy National League of Republican Clubs.

Cincinnati, Sept. 20.—United States Senator Joseph B. Foraker has canceled all of his speaking engagements in the campaign. In a written request to National Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock he asked to be relieved from the appointments that had been arranged for him by the national speakers' bureau, and in a communication to State Chairman Williams of the Ohio Republican committee he made the same request as to the engagements which had been arranged for him in this state.

As to Senator Foraker's senatorial candidacy, the Associated Press is authorized to state the senator's position as follows: "Senator Foraker will leave the selection of his successor to the legislature, but he will do all in his power to see that a Republican legislature is elected."

Senator Foraker today told his friends that he should, at the proper and convenient opportunity, make a speech in answer to Mr. Hearst's charges and in defense of himself, and then should campaign the entire state in behalf of his senatorial candidacy, but under the jurisdiction of no political committee.

The interesting details of just how Senator Foraker came to withdraw from participation in the forthcoming convention of the National League of Republican clubs, at which he was to speak with Judge Taft here on Tuesday evening, were disclosed today authoritatively. On the morning of the first publication of Mr. Hearst's disclosures Senator Dick came to the city from Columbus. After a conference with Senator Foraker he went to the Taft residence, where he had an interview with the candidate, at which the situation was discussed frankly.

No conclusions were reached, but Senator Dick obtained the distinct impression that in view of the circumstances, the question of the joint appearance of Taft and Foraker was one which required consideration. In this connection the withdrawal of Senator Crane on Saturday morning was noted, and the junior Ohio senator indicated that he should take up the matter with his Massachusetts colleague. After Senator Crane, Foraker and Dick had conferred Saturday morning the letter which Senator Foraker made public last night, in which he eliminated himself from the meeting, was taken to the Pike street residence of Senator Foraker.

The suggestion was made after further consideration that the letter properly should be addressed to John Hays Hammond, president of the National League of Republican clubs, under whose jurisdiction the meeting was being arranged, for the reason that as the candidate had no control over the arrangements, further correspondence will be necessary. There followed another conference between the three senators, at which the suggestion of forwarding the letter to Mr. Hammond was decided upon, which, it was explained, obviated the necessity of a reply from Judge Taft.

This plan, after being presented to Judge Taft at another conference, was adopted. Throughout the negotiations Judge Taft refused absolutely to comment for publication on the matter. It has since developed that he had not taken the position that the joint engagement must be canceled. It has also developed that the candidate received advice to take the initiative in the matter of canceling the arrangements and that his reply was emphatic in its language.

"If it would win every vote in the United States I cannot hit a man when he is down."

FORAKER ELIMINATES HIMSELF. Cincinnati, Sept. 19.—Senator J. B. Foraker tonight eliminated himself from participation with Judge Taft in the political rally of the National League of Republican clubs to be held here next Tuesday. The action was made known to Judge Taft in the following letter, addressed to the judge today, and made public by the senator tonight:

"Cincinnati, O., Sept. 19, 1908. "My Dear Judge—Having read in the newspaper the account of your friends, and you, are in doubt as to the propriety of my speaking with you at Music hall next Tuesday night, I have concluded not to attend the meeting. I take this action, not because I deem the answers I have made to Mr. Hearst's charges insufficient, nor because of any lack of loyalty to your cause, but only because I do not wish to do anything that might injure the cause or embarrass you personally. "Yours truly, "J. B. FORAKER. "Hon. William H. Taft, Cincinnati, Ohio."

To John Hays Hammond, president of the National League of Republican clubs, Mr. Foraker sent this letter, which he also made public: "I have just received a self-explanatory letter that I have just sent to Judge Taft."

The publicity of the letters followed a series of conferences held yesterday and today. Senator Dick and Mr. Foraker were the intermediaries yesterday. Senator Crane of Massachusetts reached the city today and went at once to the Charles P. Taft residence, where Judge Taft remained the entire day. After an extended conference, Mr. Crane returned to the Clinton hotel, where he was met by Senators Foraker and Dick. The three lunched together in the hotel and then repaired to Senator Foraker's office in the Tracton building, where the conference was protracted until late in the afternoon, after which Senators Crane and Dick again saw Judge Taft.

Neither Judge Taft, Senator Foraker, Senator Crane, Senator Clark or Mr. Foraker would add anything to the information contained in the letters which were made public, with the exception of Mr. Foraker's remark that his action was voluntary. It could not be ascertained whether Mr. Foraker's intentions were to eliminate himself entirely from the campaign, or whether he will, as he intended, take the stump later.

As it did yesterday, today the Hearst-Foraker controversy eclipsed all else in the political horizon here. Through the matter for publication or otherwise, with any one except Senators Crane and Dick and Mr. Foraker. Communication between the candidate and the New York headquarters was frequent today, however, and even before Mr. Foraker gave out his letter to Mr. Taft, it was known here that he would not be speaking with Judge Taft here on Tuesday evening.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF INSURANCE SWINDLING

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Julius F. Koelling, charged by Harman Stolzenau, 1853 Arlington avenue, with being the general manager of the Home & Fireside Protective League of America, was arrested yesterday on complaint made by Stolzenau. The complaint says that Koelling is running a "fake" insurance game and a confidence scheme. Koelling was released on $1,000 bonds. The schemes of insurance put forth by the Home & Fireside Protective League of America is unique. Membership in the league, according to Stolzenau, costs $5. The dues are 25 cents a week.

Here are some of the promises which are made to prospective members: "If a man joins the league, he is to be paid $500."

For the first three children born to such a marriage, provided dues are kept up, the parents are to receive $500. If twins are born, the couple are to get $750. If triplets are born the parents are to get $1,000.

If quadruplets are born, the parents are to get $2,500. On the death of a member in good standing, his heirs are to receive $500.

Many other inducements were held out to prospective members, it is said. The Home & Fireside Protective League of America was organized in January last.

Koelling, who is the father of triplets himself and who organized the league, says it has gone out of business, that no business was done after he was informed by his attorney that a scheme was not within the pale of the Illinois statutes.

Stolzenau, who makes the complaint, alleges that he was engaged as general agent for the league in Iowa. He claims that he deposited $150 in cash with Koelling as a guarantee for the faithful performance of his duties.

Koelling's alleged refusal to return this deposit when Stolzenau became weary of the work, caused the arrest.

PRESIDENT IS MUCH INTERESTED

Appeals to Citizens to Join in Electing Taft and a Republican Congress to Support Him.

AID GOVERNMENT POLICIES

Those of Last Seven Years Should be Continued—Is More Than a Non-Partisan Matter.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 20.—President Roosevelt in a letter to William B. McKinley, chairman of the Republican congressional committee, made public today, appeals to disinterested citizens to join with the national Republican committee and the congressional committee in a movement to elect William H. Taft as president and a Republican Congress to support him. After reviewing some of the important legislation of the last seven years the president declares that Mr. Taft and the Republican Congress to support him. After reviewing some of the important legislation of the last seven years the president declares that Mr. Taft and the Republican Congress to support him.

"The policies which have been adopted upon for seven years past, and which have been so successful in perpetuating the policy of the government as now carried on, the president says, should be given by every good citizen as it is far more than a partisan matter. The letter reads:

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

"Sagamore Hill, Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 20, 1908.—My dear Sir: I have received your letter of Aug. 28. I agree with all that you say as to the amount of affirmative and constructive legislation for the social and economic benefit of our people which has been accomplished by the Congress during the last seven years. The law establishing a national system of irrigation was of vital importance and stands in its line as second to none in the history of the United States. The interstate commerce law has been amended so as to make it a new law, with threefold the efficiency of the old law. The enactment of the pure food law was of almost or quite equal importance."

"The creation of the department of commerce and labor, together with the creation of a bureau of corporations, which marks the beginning of federal control over the huge corporations doing an interstate business, the employers' liability law, the safety appliance law, the limitation of the working hours of railway employees, the meat inspection law, the denatured alcohol law, the anti-rebate law, the laws increasing the powers of the department of justice, the laws regarding the government liable for injuries to its employees, the laws under which the Panama canal was acquired and is being built, the Philippines administered and the navy developed, the laws creating a permanent census bureau, and the reforming of the judicial system, the system of naturalization, the bidding child labor in the District of Columbia, the law providing a commission under which our currency system can be put on a thoroughly satisfactory basis, the laws for the proper administration of the forest service, the laws for the admission of Oklahoma and the development of Alaska, the great work of the department of agriculture, the legal prohibition of campaign contributions from corporations—all these represent but a portion of what has been accomplished by the Congress during the last seven years, and form a record of substantial legislative achievement in harmony with the best and most progressive thought of our people."

"It is urgently necessary, from the standpoint of the public interest, to elect Mr. Taft, and a Republican Congress which will support him, and they seek election on a platform which specifically pledges the party alike in its executive and legislative branches, to continue and develop the policies which have been not merely professed, but acted upon during the seven past years. These policies can be successfully carried through only by the hearty cooperation of the president and the Congress in both its branches, and it is therefore particularly important that there should obtain such harmony between them. To fail to elect Mr. Taft would be a calamity to the country; and it would be equally calamitous to elect him, yet at the same time to elect a Congress hostile to him, a Congress which under the influence of partisan leadership would be certain to thwart and buffet him on every possible occasion. To elect Mr. Taft, and at the same time to elect a Congress pledged to support him, is the only way in which the people can secure the policy of government as now carried on. I feel that all the aid that can be given to this policy by every good citizen should be given for this is far more than a merely partisan matter."

"Both your committee, and the Hitchcock is chairman, are endeavoring to secure the co-operation of disinterested private citizens, whose sole concern in politics is to have the right kind of man carry out the right kind of policy, will join in backing up your committee as well as the national committee in this moving. No service is effective, as valuable as the disinterested service given in such manner by men whose one concern is for the triumph of the principles in which they believe; and I appeal with all the strength there is in me to such men to give support."

Sincerely yours, "THEODORE ROOSEVELT. "Hon. W. B. McKinley, chairman Republican congressional committee, St. James building, New York, N. Y."

COL. STEWART'S CASE BECOMES INTERESTING

New York, Sept. 21.—Officers here of the coast artillery corps have found out, they say, that Col. William F. Stewart, the army officer who has been sent at a desolate post in the southwest, is at present essentially the ranking colonel of their branch in the service, and that unless the retiring board, before which Col. Stewart is presently to be sent, backs up the recent opinion of the medical officers, who forbade Col. Stewart to take the horseman's post a few days ago, Col. Stewart will, in fact, become the senior colonel of the coast artillery, on Dec. 8 next.

That is the date of the retirement of Col. George G. Greenough, the present ranking colonel of the coast artillery.

As Col. Greenough has already obtained a leave of absence, with a view to his approaching retirement under the age limit, Col. Stewart is therefore practically the senior colonel of the coast forces, even though his desert command is far removed from the coast.

Col. Greenough had been detailed to serve on the Corman court-martial soon to convene at Fort Wayne, Detroit, for the purpose of hearing the charges against Col. Corman, but he has also been excused from that duty and his active connection with the army may therefore be said to have been ended.

But Col. Stewart has been reported upon by the army surgeons as suffering from cardiac hypertrophy, dilation and mitral insufficiency.

HASKELL PUTS HEARST IN A HOLE

Asks for Committee of Five Editors to Hear and Determine Charges Hearst Makes.

TERMS HIM A FALSE ACCUSER

Has Distorted Public Records and Manufactured Statements for Base Political Purposes.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Gov. Haskell, of Oklahoma, tonight gave out the following letter, which he said he had telegraphed to William Randolph Hearst:

"William R. Hearst, care New York American, New York City: "Sir—You are stating in speech and press in substance, that during the year 1899, when Atty. Gen. Frank S. Mummett of Ohio, had several cases pending in the supreme court of that state against the Standard Oil company, I sought to influence him to dismiss those suits. I have said, and now repeat, that your statement is absolutely false and I have never had any relations of any kind or character with the Standard Oil company. Your conflicting statements prove nothing."

"You, as a newspaperman, may and should desire a reputation for truthfulness. I, as a public official, demand that those who accuse me stand forth with public records and manufactured statements for base political purposes. I do not want your money; I simply desire to expose you to the public as a false accuser, who has distorted public records and manufactured statements for base political purposes."

"For the purpose of forever settling this infamous slander which you are circulating, I now propose that a committee of five or any three of them, composed of the editors of the Springfield, Mass., Republican, the Chicago Journal, the New York World, the Indianapolis News and the St. Louis publican, be selected to hear you and me, under oath and all other evidence they may desire as to the truth or falsity of your charge, at the earliest possible moment and render their decision to the public in writing."

"Should this committee find your charges sustained I shall withdraw all the currents and the development of the campaign. Should the verdict be against you, as I know it will, there need be no other penalty than the public contempt due every assasin of character. "C. N. HASKELL."

PARIS SCENE OF $5,000,000 FIRE

Central Telephone Building Is Burned, Employees Having to Flee for Their Lives.

SERVICE MUCH DEMORALIZED

Will Take More Than a Month to Re-establish—Sunday Record Day in Parisian Fire Department.

Paris, Sept. 21.—Fire broke out last night in the central telephone building and spread with such rapidity that the telephone employees were forced, after brief and ineffectual efforts to extinguish the flames, to flee hastily to the streets. The entire building was soon in flames and this, together with the Place des Victoires, was totally destroyed. The loss is estimated at $5,000,000, but a much greater loss is likely to be involved through the complete interruption of the all telephonic communication in the center of Paris, as well as communication with the provinces and abroad.

The telephone building was comparatively new, and was fitted with the most modern central battery system. It will take more than a month to re-establish the service. The origin of the fire is a mystery, but it is believed to have been due to a short circuit. It is asserted also that it may have been of incendiary origin, but nothing has as yet been found to prove this.

Telephone carpenters, when they first discovered the flames, tried to extinguish them, but were forced to desert on account of the volume of black smoke and the pungent fumes from the burning gutta-percha. In a short time the flames enveloped the entire building and were bursting through the roof, leaping skyward like a blast furnace.

At 2 a. m. the fire was still burning, but the firemen were beginning to get it under control.

Sunday was a record day in the history of the fire department, the men being out all morning and afternoon for a big fire in a department store in the Faubourg Saint Denis. Damage to the extent of $800,000 was done here, but the loss is covered by insurance.

The firemen were first discovered by a workman, who, on entering the cellar, saw smoke arising. He was forced back, but the open door established a draft, and in a moment the flames were roaring up the narrow shafts in which cables were carried to the third and fourth floors.

Two hundred telephone operators bravely stood at their posts and cut off all the currents, when realizing their helplessness in the face of the terrific spread of the fire, they fled out of the building.

The firemen quickly tried to make their way into the cellar with smoke helmets, but the fumes from the burning gutta-percha forced them to retire. Within 20 minutes the third and fourth floors were a mass of flames and there was a series of explosions.

Whitney's History of Utah at Half Price.

The Deseret News takes pleasure in announcing that it has secured the sole rights to the HISTORY OF UTAH, by Orson F. Whitney, originally published by the George Q. Cannon & Sons Co.

This work, which was begun in 1890, and printed in three large volumes (the fourth volume issued being biographical, and not a part of the direct history of Utah), is one of the largest and most exhaustive of the direct history of the state from the foundation down to the year 1890, at the time of the issuance of the manifesto, and includes the history of the Church from its organization in New York. The first ten chapters are devoted to this subject.

In the three volumes are included 235 full page steel plates, mostly portraits of leading figures in the history of the State, originally obtained at a cost of many thousand dollars. The volumes each contain approximately 800 pages, a total of 2,351 pages in the three. The binding is quarto size, full morocco with gilt edges, no other style of binding being issued.

The three volumes were originally sold at $30.00, and several thousand sets were placed throughout the state at that figure. The "News" having obtained the unsold copies of the edition, will place them on the market at the coming October Conference and sell to the first comers at HALF THE ORIGINAL PRICE, OR $15.00 FOR THE THREE VOLUMES. No single volumes will be sold. Without doubt many libraries throughout the country will avail themselves of this rare opportunity, and Utah people who desire to add this work to their libraries are urged to call at the Deseret News book store and inspect the work during Conference.

The low price at which this rare work is offered will undoubtedly exhaust the edition in a short time. The work will then be out of print, so that every book-lover should avail himself of this last chance.

The original subscribers, who already have the first three volumes of the History of Utah are entitled to the fourth volume (containing individual biographies) free, by addressing George Q. Cannon & Sons Association.

The "News" has no interest in the fourth volume, the work being complete as above stated, in the three volumes, now offered at $15.00.
