turb Meetings. New York, Sept. 17.—Alexander Berkman, the anarchist, wants a ju-dicial ruling on the question whether the police have a right to arrest him when he disturbs a public' meeting. His lawyer, Myer London, has raised the question before Judge Swann of general sessions, on a motion to have set aside the judgment of Magistrate Corrigan, who sent Berkman to the workhouse for five days for disorder-ly conduct at the meeting of the un-cmpioyed at Copper Union. Berkman has served the five days and is back on the East Side. Lawyer London said that Magistrate Corri-gan had no jurisdiction and there was no evidence which warranted the magistrate in committing Berk-man for disorderly conduct. If the magistrate's judgment was allowed to stand, the police would arrest Berk-man every time he appeared in pub-lic.

Judge Swann took the case under advisement.

THE PERFIDY OF THE TRIBUNE.

Years ago a judge decided that members of the Church could not be naturalized, because, as the Tribune explained, Mormons can never become good citizens. Speaking of this famous decision, the Tribune said:

"Let President Woodruff do by Church and State as he has done by polygamy; let him suspend the old "Let President woodruff do by Church and State as he has done by polygamy; let him suspend the out rule if he pleases; let him do it in a straightforward manner; let him tell the People's party to dissolve; let him instruct his people to join the national parties of the country and discuss national polities and vote as they please, and the Mormon question will be over and there will be no occasion for such a decision as that of Judge Anderson's."—Tribune, Dec. 7, 1890.

The People's party did dissolve. The people did join the National parties. They are even now discussing national polities and are voting as they please, but the Tribune is continuing its savage, un-American crusade.

The perfidy of that sheet is comparable only to the logic of the hungry wolf in its argument with the lamb.
