

Ida Felt, Miss Annie Felt, Miss Mabel Miner, Miss Jennie Hill.

Mrs. David Evans entertained delightfully at luncheon on Thursday, her guests numbering 12. The table was beautifully decorated in red roses, the centerpiece being an exquisite of cut glass rising from a bowl of the same and standing on a mirror which reflected the deep red roses with which it was filled. The favors were tiny cut glass vases filled with roses. Present were Mrs. Ellen Elliott, Mrs. F. D. Dickford, Mrs. W. B. Whitney, Mrs. A. P. Hirth, Mrs. D. C. McLaughlin, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. William H. King, Mrs. Edna D. Jones, Mrs. William H. Dale, Mrs. Elmer B. Jones, Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. Thomas Marlowe, Mrs. George W. Snow, Mrs. Mary Ann, Mrs. Byron Cummings and Mrs. Lindsay Rogers.

Mrs. David Evans entertained at a second delightful affair this afternoon. Miss Beale Williamson was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Rosalie Cope and Miss Anna Loda.

Miss Helen Fritch, whose marriage takes place next week, was guest of honor at a handkerchief shower party given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. H. E. Melton.

Miss McCormick entertained at luncheon on Thursday in honor of Miss Edna Donnellan, covers being laid for 12. The table was prettily decorated with pink sweet peas and plumosa, and the place cards were heart-shaped and had designs in water colors. The guests were Mrs. Filer, Mrs. Babcock, Mrs. Bird, Mrs. Knevel-Smith, Miss Donnellan, Miss Edna Donnellan, Miss Sherman, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Salisbury, Miss Burke, Miss Dooly.

Miss Rosalie Cope was guest of honor Thursday at a handkerchief shower party, the hostess being Miss Catherine McDonald. The rooms were prettily decorated and about 20 were present.

Mr. C. H. Miller was delightfully surprised at his home 523 Eighth street, on Thursday evening by a number of his friends. Selections on the phonograph and games were among the features of the evening's enjoyment.

Mrs. Shaughnessy will entertain at luncheon at the Knutsford on Monday next in honor of Mrs. Frank Van Horn of New York.

Mrs. Ellsworth Dargatz entertains at 4 o'clock tea on Wednesday, June 24.

Mrs. Julia Taylor and Mrs. Richard Royal Romney have issued invitations for a reception to be given at the home of Mrs. Taylor next Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph J. Daynes and Mrs. Henry T. McEwan will entertain at a reception next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Daynes.

The card party given by Mrs. E. M. Miller yesterday in honor of Mrs. D. C. McLaughlin was one of the delightful events of the week.

Mrs. Joseph Young entertained at a delightful reception this afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. John T. Treasore of Wyoming.

A pretty luncheon was given yesterday by Mrs. Frank Giesbeck and Mrs. A. J. Lowe, a large number of their friends enjoying the pleasant affair.

Mrs. Emma Bledsoe entertained the members of her Sunday school class at a pleasant party on Wednesday.

Miss Edith Ellerbeck entertained the Cup and Saucer club at her home on Tuesday.

Mrs. John Reed entertained at a delightful luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Armstrong of Park City, who has been her guest. The rooms were prettily decorated in pink roses, and covers were laid for six.

An informal musicale was given by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moulton on Wednesday night in honor of Mr. Stenhouse, Miss Lawson, Miss Lamborne, and Mrs. Stenhouse. About 20 guests were entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb entertain a number of their friends at the lake tonight.

Mrs. George R. Hancock was hostess at an exceedingly pretty luncheon on Wednesday, given in honor of Miss Edith Perry. The decorations were in green and white, carnations, sweet peas and plumosa being used. Present to meet the guest of honor were Miss Edna Dean Davis, Miss Mattie Kimball, Miss McMillan, Mrs. Sowles, Miss J. H. Hill, Mrs. Clarence Bratton, Miss of Michigan, Mrs. Enslaw, Miss Critchlow and Miss Hancock.

Among the delightful events of the week was the musicale given by Mrs. Martha Boyle King at the Congregational church on Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Copp gave a lake party on Monday evening, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. George Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hale, Mr. and Mrs. William Hale, Dr. and Mrs. Ellerbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McCurtin, Miss Lawson, Miss Meredith, Miss Dorn, Miss McIntyre, Miss Jasmine Young, Miss Hale, Mr. Saterlee, Mr. Barnes, Mr. Jack Toyle and Mr. Milnes.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the musicale given by Mrs. S. P. Clawson and Mrs. J. E. Hansen on Wednesday night in honor of Miss Rebecca Morris, the affair taking place at the home of Mrs. Clawson on Second street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with rare varieties of roses, including the Rose of Sharon, La France, and others, and a delightful program of music was rendered by Miss Ramsey, Prof. McClellan and young Arthur Peterson. Assisting the hostesses in receiving were Mrs. Pickett, Mrs. Seiden Clawson, Dr. S. H. Clawson and Mr. J. E. Hansen. Miss Jean Spencer presided at the punch bowl in the library and Miss Helen Clawson, Miss Phyllis Burton, Miss Teresa Taylor, Miss Elsie Hansen and Miss Emma Clawson received the guests in the hall. The event was in every way a delightful one, and was enjoyed by a large number of guests.

The box at the post this week was a delightful affair, and was attended by a large number of people from the city. The hall was effectively decorated with yellow roses, palms and vines, and presented an attractive appearance. Mrs. Howlands and Miss Treary with Lieut. Hartman and Lieut. Jackson were hosts.

On Tuesday night Miss Foster entertained at a glass shoe party in honor of Miss Rosanna Oltner, the latter being the recipient of a number of hand-

WILL LIVE IN CHICAGO.

MISS RUTH HANNA.

Senator Mark Hanna's daughter, who is now on her honeymoon, and whose wedding to Joseph M. McCormick was a recent society event, will reside permanently in Chicago. Senator Hanna has presented his daughter with a magnificent residence there as a part of his bridal gift.

some pieces of cut glass. A guessing game was a feature of the afternoon, the prizes being won by Mrs. Parsons and Miss Hardy. The rooms were prettily decorated and refreshments were served.

Mrs. F. M. Bishop entertained the members of the Sewing club at her home this week.

Mrs. W. H. Jones entertained at an unique function last night in the nature of a camp-fire party, her guests being the members of the James B. McKean post and comp.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Rawlins and Miss Rawlins entertained at a second enjoyable affair, the entertainment being held for the first time in the contest were won by Mrs. Ellerbeck and Miss Mantor.

After the ceremony a reception was tendered the young couple, at which about 150 guests were present. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room by Miss May Shields and Miss Clara Deighton. The ushers for the evening were Miss Marilla Hunter of Ogden, Miss Clifton Wayne and Miss Hazel Sapington. Rev. B. M. Hogan, Mr. H. H. Broadbent, Miss Vera Shaver, Miss Lena Broadbent and Mrs. D. B. Brown assisted in receiving the guests. The reception was from 5 till 10. The young couple were the recipients of a large number of handsome presents.

Among the larger weddings of the week was that of Miss Sarah B. Smith and Mr. August Anderson, which took place on Thursday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith. The two parlors were beautifully decorated with pink and white roses and the bride and groom, accompanied by the bridesmaids and groomsmen, entered the hall under an arch decorated with American flags, pink and white roses, carnations, and ribbon streamers, and flanked with palms and ferns. The dining room was in red and green, American Beauty roses forming the centerpiece for the table, and bows of red satin ribbon with fairy lilies shaded in red, and festoons of asparagus ferns and white flowers. The four corners of the table completing the pretty effect. The lawn was brilliantly lit with electric lights and Japanese lanterns, and a dancing floor was laid here while an orchestra furnished delightful music for the dancers.

The bride wore a charming gown of white crepe de chine, and her bridesmaids, Miss Forest Armstrong, and Miss Anne Anderson wore dainty summer dresses. Miss Afton Smith was ring-bearer, and Mr. Ernest W. Smith was best man.

Assisting in receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Smith. The rooms were prettily decorated and the bride and groom were seated in a corner under a canopy of flowers under which the bride party stood. Bishop Bright officiated, and later an elaborate supper was served. Many beautiful presents were received by the happy couple. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. A. Viasing, grandfather of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Hoggan, Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Viasing, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Midgley, Mrs. A. Belling, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Viasing, Mrs. and Mrs. W. C. A. Viasing, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hoggan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hulbert, Miss Mary Logan, Miss Hoggan, Lena Brock, Irene Kelly, Sylvia Glenn, Annie Glenn, Mr. Will Hardy, Mr. Thos. E. Viasing, Jr.

One of the prettiest houses in Salt Lake was that of Miss Ella Leone Leith and Mr. William St. Clair Theobald, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. E. Leith, 32 west Eighth South street, on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. C. E. Perkins of St. Paul's Episcopal church officiating. A very pretty bower was formed in the bay window of the front parlor with American flags, palms and roses. To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by Miss Josie Mulvaney, the bridal party entered the parlor and halted under the bower. The first to enter was the groom, accompanied by Rev. Perkins, then the bridesmaid, Miss Pearl Leith, sister of the bride, and the groomsmen, Mr. Fred Austee. Then the bride entered, accompanied by her brother, Mr. E. W. Reese, who gave her away. She wore a beautiful gown of cream silk voile and carried a large bouquet of bride's roses. During the ceremony the soft strains of Naxos were played by Miss Mulvaney.

After the ceremony elaborate refreshments were served by Misses Cecil, Cannon and Estes, Mrs. J. B. Cecil Jr., Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Bates. Miss Kearney and Miss Anderson presided over the punch bowl. About 40 guests were present and the young couple received a large number of elegant wedding presents.

Among the most elaborate weddings of the past week was that of Mr. Will H. Broadbent and Miss Mary Tonia Shaver, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Shaver, 831 east First South, on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

May Down and Miss Margaret Livingstone, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will be at home to their friends after July 1 at 424 east Seventh South street.

The marriage of Miss Vera Higgins and Mr. Robert Wilson took place on Wednesday at the Mission chapel and was followed by a delightful reception at the bride's home, a large number of the friends and relatives being present. The rooms were bright with June flowers and a delightful time was enjoyed.

Another interesting and pretty nuptial event of Thursday was that of Miss Florence Scholes and Mr. John S. Sears. The marriage was solemnized in the Temple, Apostolic Woodruff officiating, and in the evening an elaborate reception was held at the bride's home. The rooms were done in pink roses and the hall in red, the parlor having a beautiful canopy of flowers and ferns, while about the room were palms and vases of roses. The room up stairs in which refreshments were served was in pink, the table having a Battenberg lace spread over pink silk, and streamers of broad pink satin ribbon extending to the corners. The centerpiece was a vase of pink roses, and candelabra with pink shades were effectively used. The bride wore a handsome gown of white silk with trimmings of real lace. Her attendants were Miss Norma Woodruff, Miss Veda Heeber, and Miss Emily Smith. Assisting were Mrs. O. C. Heeber, Mrs. M. A. Sears, Miss Phoebe Scholes and Miss Mabelie Snow. Punch was served by Miss Lucile Young, and the dining room was presided over by Mrs. Joseph Daynes Jr. After July 1 Mr. and Mrs. Sears will be at home to their friends at 715 Fourth street.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the wedding of Miss Christine Bockholt and Alma C. Clayton, which took place on Thursday, the ceremony being performed in the Temple, and a reception following in the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wolstenholme. The rooms were adorned with roses in various colors, the parlor being in pink and white, the reception hall in red, and the dining room in green and white, the effect throughout being exceedingly pretty. The bride was charming in a gown of cream silk mull with trimmings of lace, and her bridesmaid, Miss Alice Cannon, wore a dainty gown of white dotted swiss. Receiving with the bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. Wolstenholme, Mrs. Bockholt and Mrs. Clayton. A large number were present to celebrate the happy event, and the bride and groom were the recipients of many presents. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton will receive their friends at 329 west North Temple, after July 1.

Among the weddings to take place next week are those of Miss Ella Fisher and Mr. Orson Spencer Squires which will be solemnized next Wednesday.

Miss Emily Davis and Mr. Ernest F. Schettler will be married next Wednesday in the Temple, a reception to follow in the evening at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miner announce the engagement of their daughter, Anna, to Mr. G. Spencer Chambers of this city. The marriage will take place in July.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding reception of Miss Ruth Winter and Francis Davis on Wednesday, June 24.

William Yates announces the engagement of his daughter, Carrie, to Harry Harmon. The wedding will take place on June 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hammer announce the engagement of their daughter, Agnes, to Heber Wickens. The marriage will take place June 24.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Thornburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Nora, to Mr. Reuben Farr of Ogden. The marriage will take place June 25.

A double wedding was one of the events of the week, the function celebrating the marriage of Miss Mima McOmie of Murray, and Mr. Joseph D. Barker of Taylorsville, and Miss Emma Barker, and Mr. Joseph McOmie. The wedding took place in this city at the home of Mrs. J. P. McOmie, the friends and relatives being present.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myron E. Crandall Jr., a reception was given on Thursday night celebrating the marriage of Miss Ella Post of Chicago, and Andrew C. Peterson of St. Johns, Ariz.

Miss Leonore Driggs and Mr. George R. Steele were married on Wednesday, the ceremony being performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Tamm. The house was prettily decorated, and a reception held for the relatives and friends.

Two quiet weddings of the week were those of Miss Ruth Bywater and Joseph M. Jorgensen, and Miss Charlotte Aloys of Center, Utah, and Dr. Mark C. Meyers of this city.

Miss Libbie Kirk of Tooele, and Edgar Rich of this city were united in marriage at the latter place on Thursday, and a reception held in their honor at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Next Monday night another reception will be given in their honor at the home of Mr. E. E. Rich. They will make their home here.

Mr. W. J. Beattie and Mrs. Alice M. Horne have returned from a pleasant trip to Sevier, taken in the interests of the Relief Society.

Mrs. Eugene Lewis has gone east for the summer.

Miss Althea Wheeler, who has spent the past winter in the east at college, has returned for the vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Madsen left this week for a trip through Yellowstone park. They will be absent about a month.

Montague Allen returned today from Lawrenceburg, N. J., where he has been attending school. After spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hancock he will leave for his home in Park City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brulaker and children left Thursday for the east on a two weeks' pleasure trip.

Miss Mabel Renshaw, formerly of this city, but now of Butte, is visiting Salt Lake friends for a short time.

Miss Josephine Younger of Covington, Ky., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Benton Brown.

The Misses Mae and Maude Smith of Beaver are visiting friends in Salt Lake on their return home from Diamondville, Wyo., where they have been teaching school during the past year.

Miss Louise Walden left Thursday morning for a six month's visit with relatives in Kentucky.

Mrs. Ernest Pratt and son, Neill, have

PRETTY BRIDESMAID'S GOWN.

Frock of pink mohair trimmed with white Honiton lace made a charming costume for a young lady. It cleans perfectly, is cool and wears well. The yoke is of finely tucked mousseline de soie. The sleeve is only partly gathered into the lace cuff, making it both cool and pretty in effect. The upper part is tucked; tucks also trim the hem.

White chip hat, trimmed with large white roses and pink Liberty ribbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Smith of Montpelier, Ida., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith.

W. H. Tibbals and daughter, Miss Mildred, will return from the east tomorrow.

Mr. Robert Dunford will be home shortly from West Point to spend the summer with his mother and sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Tuttle and children left on Monday last for a visit in Colorado and Wyoming.

Mrs. Franklin and daughter, Miss Helen, have returned from Park City where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Cunningham.

Mrs. A. C. Ewing has returned home from the south, where she has spent the past two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Moylan C. Fox and Miss Jessie Fox arrived this week from the east and are at home once more at their home on Brigham street.

Mrs. T. J. Almy is contemplating going east to make her home and the house at 801 First street is to be sold.

Verne Earls leaves today to spend the summer months in New Mexico.

Miss Angie Galloway of Grand Island, Neb., is a guest for the summer of Miss Irma Walker.

Miss Nellie Cullen is home from Notre Dame, where she has attended school during the past year.

Mrs. Wade Mosby will leave shortly for Denver and Minneapolis to visit a few months with relatives and friends.

Earl Hanover will pass a part of his summer vacation in Provo canyon.

Mr. M. H. Stevenson of Baltimore, Md., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Glass.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Wherry arrived Wednesday from Kansas, where they were married June 10. They will be at home shortly at Fourth and B streets.

Mrs. Egbert Roberts and Miss Ethel Barr leave on Tuesday next for San Francisco, from which port they will sail on the Sevia, June 25, for Honolulu. Mrs. Roberts goes to visit her son, Albert P. Taylor, a well-known newspaper man of Honolulu.

Mrs. C. N. Leving and daughter, Adele, left last Wednesday evening for Denver to visit with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Grant W. Little and children left this week for Kansas City, where they will visit for some time, and later will go to Omaha to visit relatives and friends before returning to Salt Lake.

Miss Mabel Renshaw, formerly of this city, but now of Butte, is visiting Salt Lake friends for a short time.

Miss Josephine Younger of Covington, Ky., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Benton Brown.

The Misses Mae and Maude Smith of Beaver are visiting friends in Salt Lake on their return home from Diamondville, Wyo., where they have been teaching school during the past year.

Miss Louise Walden left Thursday morning for a six month's visit with relatives in Kentucky.

Mrs. Ernest Pratt and son, Neill, have

A SUMMER PICTURE HAT.

Hat of blue straw, with long plume to match, which crosses the flat crown from left to right. Underframing of cream lace, trimming of pale lavender satin ribbon.

WEDDING BELLS

A pretty wedding was that of Miss Rowena Ottiger of this city and Mr. Abraham Hatch of Heber, the wedding being celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ottiger, on Wednesday night. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Romney at 8 o'clock and afterward a delightful reception was held for the relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hatch have gone to Heber to reside.

Miss Rose Vick and Mr. Lorenzo King were married on Wednesday, the ceremony taking place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson. June flowers abounded in the decorations, and the affair was an exceedingly pretty one. Mr. and Mrs. King will be at home to their friends after July 1, at 62 west Third north street.

The wedding of Miss Louise Vowles and Mr. Will G. Swanner was celebrated on Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, the ceremony being performed at 8 o'clock by Bishop Joseph Washington. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and refreshments were served.

On Wednesday evening Miss Ivy Glenn and Leroy Hoggan were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, where a large number had gathered to celebrate the happy event. The parlor was prettily decorated and in a corner was a canopy of flowers under which the bride party stood. Bishop Bright officiated, and later an elaborate supper was served. Many

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. W. J. Beattie and Mrs. Alice M. Horne have returned from a pleasant trip to Sevier, taken in the interests of the Relief Society.

Mrs. Eugene Lewis has gone east for the summer.

Miss Althea Wheeler, who has spent the past winter in the east at college, has returned for the vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Madsen left this week for a trip through Yellowstone park. They will be absent about a month.

Montague Allen returned today from Lawrenceburg, N. J., where he has been attending school. After spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hancock he will leave for his home in Park City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brulaker and children left Thursday for the east on a two weeks' pleasure trip.

Miss Mabel Renshaw, formerly of this city, but now of Butte, is visiting Salt Lake friends for a short time.

Miss Josephine Younger of Covington, Ky., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Benton Brown.

The Misses Mae and Maude Smith of Beaver are visiting friends in Salt Lake on their return home from Diamondville, Wyo., where they have been teaching school during the past year.

Miss Louise Walden left Thursday morning for a six month's visit with relatives in Kentucky.

Mrs. Ernest Pratt and son, Neill, have

Schramm's

WHERE THE CARS STOP.

LYON & CO.

The Way a Ring Fits.

Has a great deal to do with the way the lady values it. Now, it's not much of a lover who does not know the size of her finger, but such cases do occur, and we are willing to exchange the ring if it doesn't fit. Good values here in engagement and wedding rings. Tel. 1070-2. East Side. 143 Main Street.

DIAMONDS.

SAVE MONEY

1/3 OFF SHIRT WAIST SUITS DRESS SHIRTS TAILOR MADE SUITS CHILDREN'S DRESSES Z.C.M.I. JUNE CLEARANCE SALE MONDAY JUNE 22nd AND WEEK.

