OFFICIAL CENSORSHIP.

Dr Stewart Concludes That the Public Has No Right to Know.

The city health officers inaugurated a new policy today. Dr. Stewart, who is at the head of the department, is understood to be responsible for it. The discovery of the fact was made today when the newspaper reporters went into the office of the health board to get the names and addresses of persons who are afflicted with contagious or infectious diseases. The clerk informed the reporters that there was no such information for them; that a new rule had been adopted and that he was under instruction to withhold the facts from the public. He admitted that he was sorry but that under the new order of things he could do nothing

The reason for the censorship is said to be the fact that there has been altogether too much publicity given to the spread and prevalence of contagious and infectious diseases and ullments and that the health authorities have concluded to put an estoppel on the press.

Mr. Steele is positive that the animal did not break loose and run away for it was securely fastened and further than that he says that it was entirely too gentle to be guilty of such conduct. In addition to the horse and buggy, Mr. Steele is also minus an overcoat and a fine rug which were in the buggy when it was stolen. He then went into the recorder's office

The opinion of the supreme court was lengthy and went late every detail of the case. The attorneys were warmly complimented on their able arguments and carefully prepared brief, which evinced great ability and research. Every contention of the decense was taken up separately and weighed carefully and not one point was sustained, while on the other hand the contentions of the prosecution were sustained. The court ruled that Horn had had a fair and impartial trial and that there was nothing in the case that warranted a reversal of the judgment of the lower court. The opinion was rendered by Justice C. I. Potter and concurred in by Chief Justice S. T. Corn and Justice Jesse Knight.

It cannot be said that Horn was surprised at the verdict. His manner indicated that he had not expected anything else. He did say, however, that he had been given 51 days in which to prepare for the end.
