Anotehr enterprise which will spring up from Mr. Mulvey's purchase is the coming into existence of the Western Theatrical Exchange, a concern which will control and do the booking for twenty-three theaters, starting at Salt Lake, running up to Butte, Seattle and Portland and back to Salt Lake by way of Baker City, Pendleton, Boise and Pocatello

Mr. Ed Carruthers, Mr. Mulvey's right hand man, has just returned from a trip over the circuit in which he closed all the arrangements. He will leave for New York in the immediate future to arrange the necessary bookings for next season and thinks that as the exchange is now in a position to route attrac-tions for so many important towns, it will secure a stronger line of companies than it has hitherto had. Mr. Car-ruthers says that they will run on the combination principle, as he doubts Estate of Albert Romney, deceased; return of real estate for $2,000 approved Salt Lake's ability to permanently sup-Salt Lake's ability to permanently sup-port a stock company.
