In 61 games this season Lave Cross, Brooklyn's third baseman, has played without an error, and in 41 games has hit safely 36 times.

St. Louis has five men who are over the 300 mark in the matter of hitting They are McGraw, Burkett, Heidrick Donlin and Donovan.

In Chicago they refer to John Ganzel as the "rubber man." He is said to have the greatest reach of any first baseman in the business.

Peter McCoy, of some note as a minor league player, died on August 24 in St. John's hospital, Springfield, III., of con-sumption, in his 52nd year.

Beckley's work this year has been as good as he has ever done, his fielding and batting having been of great as-sistance to the Cincinnati Reds. Recently my husband, Norman Sel-by, has become possessed of a large sum of money, amounting to $100,000 in
