The event was given as a reunion of this quorum of which Mr. Lunden is its president. There were Lunden is its president. There were over 35 who sat down to an elaborat-luncheon after which an interesting though informal program was had. Bishop Jones and counsel were present, who, together with President Lundin and others made felicitous remarks in-terspersed with singing, chatting and a general good time. The luncheon was in the capable bands of Miss Hannah Lundin assisthands of Miss Hannah Lundin, assist-ed by Mrs, Hans Aderson and was perfect in every detail. The floral de-corations were in chrysanthemums and

A NEW CONCERN.

Another Utah Boy Will Engage in

Piano Business.

Mr, Joseph S, Merrill, a Utah boy of ability, is about to open up a business which in many respects will fill a long-felt want in local musical circles. Be-ing at the present time one of the au-thorities in the west on piano construc-tion and having worked successfully thorities in the west on piano construc-tion and having worked successfully with factories and other large concerns in the East for many years, his suc-cess is already assured. Mr. S. H. Calder, a "Steinway" man for twenty-five years and who was formerly con-nected with D. O. Calder & Sons, pio-neer musical people of the State, will be a member of the new firm, and will be associated with Mr. Merrill in this enterprise. Mr. Calder has a high-class musical education and is consid-ered by musicians everywhere as one or the best tuners in the State. His work for eastern artists and concert work is well known and appreciated by those understanding ine tuning and regulating. The main feature of the new busin-

The main feature of the new busin-ness will be tuning, polishing and re-pairing of musical instruments, es-pecially planos, plano players and or-gans. A few celebrated makes of new planos will be carried. Prices will be consistent with the high quality of instruments carried. All work guar-anteed. Prospective purchasers of pl-anos, as well as those whose musical instruments are in need of repair, will do well to consult Messrs Merrill & Calder. Location of business, 135 East First South. ## Book Announcemeni.

Each Christmas season linds us with a larger, more varied and a better selected stock of books. We are encouraged each year by the growing taste for good books and we are compelled to buy heavily to meet the increasing demand demand.

Our purchases were made early, so we are ready for the early buyer who likes a large and conplete stock to select from. There are thousands of things which are sold for holiday giftwhose value is limited. Many of them hardly last through the holiday season. But a book 18 more likely to be cherished and to be read and reread long after Christmas has been Christmas has become a memory. Christmus has become a memory. For this season the giving of books is becoming increasingly popular. This demand has encouraged us to make a steady improvement in our stock. DESERET NEWS BOOK STORE The Leading Book Concern
