

THE DESERET EVENING NEWS.

VOL. V.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH TERRITORY, MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 12, 1878.

NO. 69.

Pioneer Paper of the Rocky Mountain Region.

THE EVENING NEWS.

(Published every evening except Sunday.)

One copy, one year, $10.00

Three months, $3.00

THE DESERET NEWS:

SEMI-WEEKLY.

(Published every Tuesday and Saturday.)

Terms for the Semi-Weekly:

One copy, one year, $5.00

Three months, $1.50

DESERET NEWS: WEEKLY.

(Published every Wednesday.)

Terms for the Weekly:

One copy, one year, $5.00

Three months, $1.50

By Telegraph.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

BOOK BINDING AND PAPER RULING

GEORGE Q. CANNON, EDITOR & PUBLISHER.

(Special to the Deseret News.)

By Telegraph.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

Fashionable Burglars—British Troops for Canada—Anti-Striking Excitement in New York—Embassies—Extensive Land Grants—Foreign Designs—Smallpox in Cincinnati—The Alabama Case—Election—France—National Outbreak.

New York, 10.—Wm. Porter and Thos. Brixley, fashionable burglars, were arrested with the implements of their profession, and offered $5,000 each to be released. They have heretofore moved in aristocratic circles.

A Montreal dispatch says eight regiments of British troops are under orders for Canada.

The greatest excitement was created around the city hall to-day, growing out of the action of the anti-striking grand jury. An immense throng gathered in the court room to be present at the coming in of the jury. Mayor Hall arrived shortly before the meeting of the court. When the grand jury handed in the indictments, one of the number read an address in which they said they had failed to find indictments against many persons implicated in the frauds, because existing laws, as explained by their counsel, do not provide punishment. They trust the next grand jury will bring to light the perjury, forgery and similar crimes by which the treasury was robbed and the city disgraced.

WASHINGTON, Pa., 10.—John O'Connor, a clerk in the paymaster's office of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad company of this city, absconded last night with $10,000 of the funds.

Boston, 10.—Julius F. Hartwell, convicted of embezzling government funds and sentenced to pay a fine and be imprisoned, has been pardoned by President Grant.

PHILADELPHIA, 10.—Stephen F. Maurer, the defaulting city treasurer, has been sentenced to pay a fine of $20,000, with imprisonment in the penitentiary, by a jury of twelve men, for labor, for four years and nine months; and Stokes, the broker, to pay $500 with the like imprisonment for a term of two years and nine months.

WASHINGTON, 10.—Information has been received at the general land office of extensive frauds by land speculators in south western Kansas. The lands in question are open only to actual settlers, in order to evade the law, a well organized system was organized, by which lands were entered upon false representations of settlement by parties using fictitious names and manufacturing false testimony.

J. W. Forney has sent to the President his resignation as collector of the harbor of Philadelphia, and announces his intention of devoting himself exclusively to his journalistic duties and support the principles of the Republican party.

CINCINNATI, 10.—There have thirty-five deaths from smallpox here in the last week. Steps are being taken to invite the Japanese embassy to visit this city.

FORTRESS MONROE, 10.—The remains of the late General Robert Anderson left here this evening in charge of his brother and nephew, with a military escort, and will arrive in New York on Monday.

WASHINGTON, 11.—There are no new developments relative to the treaty of Washington although, as has been stated, our government is not disposed to modify its statement of the case. No formal reply can be made to Lord Granville's note to Schenck till the exact text is received, which is expected at the end of this week. There has been much interest, but no marked excitement at the position of affairs, nor any apprehension that even should England recede from the treaty, the results following would be more serious in their consequences than existed before it was negotiated. Nothing has even been hinted at official circles about the strengthening of our national defenses to meet a possible contingency, and none has expressed an opinion that such measures are necessary. It is reported, in executive quarters, that our government is willing to abide by the results of the tribunal of arbitration in all matters submitted to them, and will expect a corresponding degree of good faith on the part of the British government.

New York, 11.—An Irish woman, Mary Holland, killed her husband, John Holland, at 59 17th St. last evening, in a dispute over his regulations concerning chopping wood, by striking him on the head with a hatchet. She was arrested. She claims that he first seized her by the hair and dragged her some distance.

In Hudson Co., New Jersey, the grand jury have indicted a number of election, and the people of Patterson, N. J., call on Mayor Tuttle to resign, on account of his complicity in the election frauds.

Continging, the defaulting treasurer of the Market Savings Bank left Toronto on Monday for Montreal, Halifax, and South America.

The son and daughter of a Mrs. Thomas, aged 21 and 12, perished in the fire in the first ward, Scranton, yesterday.

day. The family is recently from Wales.

Exits, Pa., 11.—A gas well was being bored at Exits, Pa. The workers, however, when the workers struck a tremendous vein of gas yesterday, which took fire, and is still burning. Wm. Bell was badly injured.

New York, 11.—A man, wearing a silk weaver, last evening, agreed to memorialize Congress against the reduction of the tariff on imported silk goods.

The South American mail steamer arrived with dates from Rio Janeiro to January 22nd.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

Sanches was excited to frenzy by a man named Salento, who made a sudden attack on foreigners. The latter were taken by surprise and unable to defend themselves, and before the authorities could stop the slaughter, thirty-six were killed. They were then rescued by the troops. They fled, but were surprised and sixteen were shot and twenty-four taken prisoners.

The distinguished Brazilian statesman, Viscount Itaboraite, is dead.

An outbreak of anarchy in the town of Sordilla, in the Argentine States, resulted in a fearful massacre.

BREVITIES.

Moths smashed a $300 mirror in a house at Exits, Pa. They did it by eating off the cord by which it was suspended.

Maine kept down her surplus population last year with 113 fatal accidents, 77 drownings, 52 suicides, and eight murders.

An Illinois mother was so indignant at her daughter's not studying at her school of the class that she knuckled the school teacher down with a curling-iron.

In Switzerland the editors who advocate woman's rights are prosecuted according to law, and one narrowly escaped conviction in the Canton of Uri lately.

The politicians of Atlanta are clever. One party got up a ballot box with a movable bottom and magnanimously allowed the other party to keep the key.

A preacher once remarked, that were it not for the interposition of sleep, by which all men are separated once in twenty-four hours from the consciousness of their own meanness, they would all die of self-contempt.

Colonel H. D. Cook, of Normal, Ill., has patented an iron shingle, the shingles are about six by thirteen inches, lap each other so as to insure a waterproof roof, and are fastened by headless nails. The patent is said to be less expensive than slate.

There are three gatherings of coffee in a year in Brazil. Nothing is more beautiful than a coffee plantation in full bloom. The snowy blossoms all burst forth simultaneously, and fields seem covered with a delicate mantle of white which exhales a fragrance not unworthy of Eden. But the beauty is ephemeral, for the snow white flowers and the delightful odor pass away in twenty-four hours.

The whole accumulations of the race all the capital of the world would keep it alive for three years. Those who possess the capital might live the longest; but the laborer and the capitalist must keep on working, both dependent on each other, or they will both starve.

"Six things," says Hamilton, "are requisite to create a home. Integrity must be the architect, and fidelity the upholsterer. It must be warmed by affection, and lighted up by cheerfulness, and industry must be the ventilator, renewing the atmosphere and bringing in fresh salutary air by day, while over all, as a protecting glory and canopy, nothing will suffice except the blessing of God."

Justice is said to be blind, but the Court of the Queen's Bench in England is so circumstanced that it is there lingers and earliest as well as eyes. Mr. Justice Blackburn, complaining of the influence of the Court of the room, says: "This court is so ingeniously constructed that when the window is shut we cannot breathe, when it is open we cannot hear, and at no time can we see."

The queer gestures and sounds of a hen looking about for a place to deposit her egg; her self-important gait; the side-way turn of her head, and cock of her eye, as she peers into one and another, and the way in which she suddenly with the idea that the egg in question is the most important thing that has been brought to pass since the world began. A speckled, black and white hen, sitting on a nest of straw, says: "This court is so ingeniously constructed that when the window is shut we cannot breathe, when it is open we cannot hear, and at no time can we see."

The circulation of some of the leading London newspapers are as follows: Daily Telegraph, 170,000; Standard, 140,000; News, 90,000; Times, 70,000; Advertiser, 60,000; Post, 8,500. A few of the weekly sensational papers circulate a million copies each weekly. The circulation of the Times, so much smaller than any one would imagine, is due to its very heavy price, six pence, and the majority of its immense number of readers read it in coffee houses and restaurants, where it is also a customer to hire the Times as much as an hour from newsmen, a single copy thus serving for a number of persons.

Special Notices.

LEA & FERRIS SAUCE.—Pronounced by Connoisseurs "THE ONLY GOOD SAUCE." It improves Appetite and Digestion, and is a stimulant for the system. We are directed by Messrs. Lea & Ferris to procure all parties making or vending counterfeits. JOHN DUNN'S, 257 So. 4th St., New York.

Care for Cough or Cold.—As soon as there is the slightest uneasiness of the chest with difficulty of breathing, or indication of cough, take during the day a few "Brown's Great Peppermint Cure."

MODELS! MODELS!

MRS. JOSEPH BULL

SEE TEACHES the popular system of CUTTING by the celebrated

CURTIS Mathematical MODELS.

Every family in the Territory should be in possession of them. They will enable a CUT and FIT PERFECTLY, any one without trying on, at all styles of Dresses, Blouses, Skirts, Wrappers, Cloaks, &c. or the LATEST FASHIONS. Also Children's Clothing, Costly, Pants and Vests.

THE ABOVE MODELS INSURE A PERFECT FIT!

Ladies desirous of testing these facts can do so by calling on Mrs. J. Bull, 17th Ward, half block east of Union Square.

TERMS MODERATE. CUTTING AND FITTING done. PATTERNS CUT TO ORDER.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

H. WALLACE

Respectfully returns thanks to his numerous customers for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him, and trusts by strict attention to business to merit a continuance of their favors. Feb. 7, 1878. I will be removed to my STORE on First Ward, Street, near door to Mrs. Stenhouse's Millinery Establishment, where I trust to see my friends.

PURE HOME-MADE CANDIES

Also, Fruit, Nuts, Baking Soda, and all kinds of confectionery.

Staple and Fancy Groceries.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.

225 N. 1st St.