A STEP TOO FAR IN SLANDER.

THE double tragedy that occurred la this city on Saturday has been the common topic of conversation among all classes of the community. The general sentiment is opposed to mob violence, but universally acgulescent in the justice of the death dealt out to the assassin. It was the industry against their bet leaked out that the defence will en-right that he should die, but wrong that for those bitten the dust deavor to prove an alibi, General Joe Shelby being their princi-Joe Shelby being their princi-pal witness; and further that the winston gang consisted in this instance to go a little alow Committees were stringing up criminals in the region around, Utah kept free from the spirit of bear but to a certain limit and bemob violence and oriminals were youd that there is no accounting for mob violence and criminals were what there is no accounting for in Tennessee. The summary vengeance paid to the swarthy murderer who shot Saturday. down the Chief of Police was a new thing in the annals of Salt Lake City. But it was incited by an apparently irresistible and general impulse. The crowd was swept on by a common feeling of implacable anger and revenge, not unmixed with a sentiment of stern justice. There was not the slightest doubt of apparently irresistible and general the guilt of the murderer. He had shot down a brave and noble man. one that he knew was an officer in

We are not apologising for the not of Saturday. We are against grace to the protession to which they mob law in any shape. We are in favor of the law, first, last and all defended without encouraging vithe time. But the situation ought lent resistance to the constituted to be correctly stated, because of the efforts that are being made to put a false construction upon the whole affair.

It is stated editorially in a public print in this city that the wretched murderer was "while in the office knocked down by the officers in charge, beaten with billies and brass knuckles, and mercilessly kicked while down," and that "the officers ave up their victim to the crowd."

An attempt is also made by the same disreputable sheet to make this a psouliar case such as "never had a parallel in American history," Of course the statement is false and the inferences drawn are erroneous. The fact that they were published in that infamous concern is enough to establish their untruth. While the murderous creature was being searched, he made violent resistance and was struck once by an officer. The person who knocked down the nagro assassin and bruised his face in the jail yard was not an officer; the men who handled the rope and strung the wretch up in the stable were not cilicere; it was not a "Mormon" outrage; the pelice did not give up the prisoner, he was thrown into the jail, and raising himself quietly from the position into which he had been cast, he darted out like a cat into the ing out of the door, and met his fate at the hands of the mob. And since we have noticed the vile thing, which is destitute of the smallest spark of honor or even of common manhool, we will say further that the murder of one of our bravest officers and the wounding of another is but the natural result against the worst characters that drift into the mountains, but must take blows, kicks, assaults with deadly weapons, raids from gange of drunken soldiers, and all kinds of completely in the dark on the subviolence, without the exercise of physical force. Never has an officer been compelled to use his club, after being bitten and bruised and placed in mortal danger by some vagabond or ruffian, but the organ of the prostitutes, the apologist for the

THE Danver Inter-Ocean : continues to display its ignorance of the "Mormon" question. The editorial remarks are based upon letters written by A. Kauffmann, who wascent here to study the subject. How well he does it may be seen from the following excerpt:

admitted to view the remains from "Like all confederations of priests, the Mormon priesthood realizes the importance of keeping the people in a state of ignorance, for ignorance is superstitions and guilible. The Mormon church teaches the doc-trine of revelation, and all that is needed is that a leader in the church arise and proclaim that the Lord has transmitted a communication to Geo. M. Ottinger and W. G. Phillips, transmitted a communication to him, and all his congregation accepts it as truth. Hence it is but reasonsub committee: The Police Force and Fire Brigade able to presume that the Mormon schools are only pretended educa-lional institutions. N. Pall-bearers-John Y. Smith, Anexcepting in select or private schools. Bo we see that the pride of our country, the Public School, is a farce in Utah." Allen. Family and relatives.

The whole of that paragraph is untrue. The "Mormon prisethood" have always advocated and supported the cause of education; there is nothing in "Mormon" theory or practice which justifies the utterance of the absurdity about accept ing as truth the claim of a leader that the Lord has transmitted a communication through him; the reasonable presumption is nothing but falsehood and assumption; the schools are frequented by a great of its infigence and teachings.
