HEARINGS IN THE DISTRICT COURT

Offenders Plead to Various Charges Before His Honor, Judge Howell.

JAP HAS A NARROW ESCAPE

Rock Slide in Ogden Canyon—Kansans Form Club—Brakeman Injured —Wasatch Gun Club.

Ogden, Jan. 15.—In the district court before Judge Howell yesterday the following criminal matters were heard:

August Schroeder, charged with burglary in the third degree, was arraigned, and entered a plea of guilty. He will be sentenced next Monday.

Fred Kirk and William Davis, who burglarized a caboose in the Southern Pacific freight yards on Dec. 16, were arraigned and entered pleas of guilty. They will join the other prisoners for sentence Monday.

THIRTY DAYS FOR VAGRANCY.

Charged with vagrancy, Fred Richards, believed to be an all-around crook, who had been acting as a "stake" for the shoe thieves now waiting sentence in the district court, was yesterday given a sentence of 30 days in the city jail. Richards attempted to show that he is a miner and displayed a union button as evidence of the claim. Detective Pender and Policemen Burke and Chambers, however, swore that he had been in this city since last November and had been seen frequently in company with men of bad repute. He tried hard to convince the court that he is not a vagrant, but the evidence of the officers was too strong and the sentence was passed. A further investigation of his story will be made.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Suit for a divorce has been filed in the district court against William Jones by Jane Jones, who alleges that for more than two years past he has failed to provide her with the common necessaries of life. The couple were married in San Diego, Cal., Nov. 10, 1904.

JAP HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

T. Koshimzu, a Japanese workman, was badly injured yesterday in the Southern Pacific machine shops, while assisting in the installation of a new air compressor in the power house. The laborers lost control of the unwieldy piece of machinery causing it to fall with great force against the old reservoir. A large pipe was broken which caused an explosion of air. Koshimzu was caught between the walls and a piece of machinery and badly mashed and bruised. He was sent to the emergency hospital and later to the Ogden general hospital for surgical attendance, and he will be laid up for some time.

KANSAS CLUB.

The Utah-Kansas Day club with a membership of about 60, was launched last evening at an enthusiastic meeting held at the Carnegie library by the Ogden residents of the "Sunflower" state. The permanent organization will be perfected at a social evening to be held Jan. 29—Kansas day. At the meeting Prof. J. H. Masters acted as temporary chairman. The following committees were appointed: Program, Prof. J. H. Masters, Dr. A. D. Barber and Fred M. Nye; refreshments, Mrs. A. D. Barber, decoration, Miss Kline, Mrs. J. M. Cooper, Mrs. E. P. Mills and Mrs. S. W. Wherry.

ROCK SLIDE IN CANYON.

A rock slide in Ogden canyon yesterday afternoon caused a break in the pipe line of the Utah Light & Railway company's line, which was not repaired until this morning. It was found that the pipe had been injured in three places by the falling rock. There being a number of valves along the line besides the shutting off of the water in cases of emergency so that slight repairs can be made. For the repairing of the brake it was necessary to close down most of the machinery at the power house at midnight.

BRAKEMAN HURT.

Richard Cathway, a Southern Pacific brakeman, was brought to the Ogden general hospital yesterday afternoon, suffering with injuries he received Wednesday evening at Lemay. When the train was approaching the station of Lemay, Cathway swung out too far from the steps and was struck by a switch stand which knocked him to the ground. The unconscious man was taken to Montello, where he was given medical attention and then sent to the Ogden hospital.

PANGUITCH.

SPREAD OF SMALLPOX.

Schools and Assemblies of All Kinds Suspended.

Special Correspondence.

Panguitch, Garfield Co., Jan. 12.—The quarantine physician has been busy the last few days putting flags at the gates of people who have smallpox. Seven houses are thus decorated. Among the number are ex-Mayor Ira W. Hatch and Bishop J. R. Heywood, the latter gentleman is reported as being quite sick today. This disease seems to be spreading rapidly owing to lax quarantine regulation. But the city dads seems to have got a move on themselves and all cases in the future will be cared for. All meetings and schools are suspended for the present.

There is about three inches of snow on the ground, which fell last night and today.

Dr. R. G. Clark left today for Richfield to be present as an expect witness in the murder case of young Heaton of Circleville, which leaves the place without a physician to handle the smallpox cases. Several young men of the town were up before the city justice today for gambling, but nothing was proved against them, and they were discharged.

Understood

It is well understood by reliable dealers that have constituted for years past the standard flavors in all the markets of this country. If the opinion of the best class of consumers is at all worthy of acceptance, they are the purest, strongest, and finest flavoring extracts in the world.

DR. PRICE'S DELICIOUS Flavoring Extracts Vanilla Lemon Orange Rose, etc.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable home hold remedies where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

THE CONVENIENCES OF THE MODERN HOTELS

The old caravansarry provided a roof, a watering trough and nothing else. The posting station provided a roof, a bed and facilities for making tea. The inn provided board and lodging. The family hotel provides all the comforts of home plus certain luxuries unattainable at home. New comers a world New York hotel and provides evening clothes into the bargain. It has laid in a supply of four dozen full dress and Tuxedo suits and a hundred pairs of dress and the 16 valets in charge of them. The patron of this hotel who finds himself far from home in his business garb, with a dinner or theater invitation that requires costume de rigeur need not despair. He notifies the office a valet is sent to his room to take his measure and by and by the proper suit selected from stock and with short shift and fit to match, is laid on his bed.

We suppose this plan fills a long-felt want or it would not have been undertaken. It will certainly make life easier and immeasurably lighter for the stranger in New York. Incidentally it will give a new responsibility to the selection of wearing dress suits—"full suits" the East Side customs shops call them—to many and civic balls. You can scarcely always tell those hired suits, because they seem under other suits in texture and fit, but we guess if a humorous competition existed here this the business relations of its patrons will be distinguishable from those of other men chiefly in that they will be of more sumptuous quality.—New York Mail.

FAIR PLAY.

The children were not allowed in the kitchen, but nobody had ever forbidden them sniffing beside the door to catch the delicious odors which could be obtained by a close application of a small nose to a crack.

"Why, Ethel," said the mother, who discovered them in the entry just outside the kitchen door one Saturday morning, "why are you twitching Tommy and slapping him?"

"'Cause now he isn't playing fair, mother," said Ethel. "He's had five smells and I've only had four, and it's my turn."

"I am, too, playing fair," asserted Tommy, his utterance smothered as he again applied his nose to the crack. "I've got an awful cold, and I can't smell half as much as she can."—Detroit News Tribune.
