ONLY FORTY FEET HIGH.

YORK, PA., Oct. 22.—A balloon passed over York county at 5:30 this morning, traveling eastwardly 40 feet from the ground for a while, then caught a favorable current, arose to a considerable height and continued its eastward flight.

SEEN AT DAYLIGHT.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 22.—A balloon described as a very bright pink ball passed over Rockville, Md., 16 miles from this city, at daylight, traveling eastward very slowly.

A message received here says two balloons passed over Washington, Delaware, this morning. One was identified as the German balloon Dusseldorf which another bureau today received a dispatch from Maj. Hersey, reporting his landing in the "United States" balloon at Guelph, Ontario, at 7:15 o'clock yesterday evening, and that he would probably leave for Milwaukee tomorrow.

THE POMERANIAN LANDS.

ASHBURY PARK, N. J., Oct. 22.—The German balloon Pomermann landed here about 3 a. m. today.

The journey from St. Louis to the point just outside of Ashbury Park where the balloon landed took 10 hours, according to the time record kept by the aeronauts. Mr. Clayton, one of the occupants of the balloon, said they had provisions and gas enough for an additional 500 or 600 miles. He said the voyage was an unusually pleasant one. There was no rain and scarcely any cloudy weather.

L'ISLE DE FRANCE.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—A balloon carrying a French flag which passed over Mount Holly 270 miles northeast of here today, has been reported near Hightstown, N. J., moving in the direction of Long Beach, N. J., not far from Ashbury Park, where the German balloon Pomermann landed. The balloon is the L'Isle de France, and it is the only one that has not landed.

TO BE HEARD FROM.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon, with only one balloon, L'Isle de France, to be heard from, the German contestant Pomermann, which landed at Ashbury Park, N. J., this morning, after a flight of 1,000 miles, will land at Dover, Del., after a flight of 500 miles over its nearest competitor, the German balloon Dusseldorf, which landed at Dover, Del., after a flight of 700 miles, air line from St. Louis.

VERDICT FOR MRS. WARNER.

GIVES $25,000 DAMAGES FOR BEING PLACED IN INSANE ASYLUM.

New York, Oct. 23.—Shortly after midnight this morning the jury in the case of Mrs. Ellen Kenyon Warner, who sued Dr. F. Packer and Dr. S. D. Wilkins in the supreme court at New York City, Rockland county, for $25,000 damages because they induced her to insane and caused her commitment to the Middletown insane asylum, rendered a verdict for the plaintiff.

Mrs. Warner, who is a well known author and educator, is awarded a verdict of $25,000. The court found that she was insane and rational on July 13, 1894, when she was examined by the two alienists and that they were negligent in making their examination.

LOCKWOOD ACCIDENTALLY SHOOTS AND KILLS HIMSELF

Beloit, Wis., Oct. 23.—R. E. Lockwood, well known Idaho newspaper man, accidentally shot and killed himself today at Reggio. He had planned to leave today for Beloit to assume the position of managing editor of Idaho Schmidt, a weekly paper being started by ex-Senator Dubois. For years Lockwood was editor of Welder Signal. He was making a present of a six shooter to a friend, and in showing him how to operate it shot himself through the heart.

AIDING A SUICIDE.

IS PERSON WHO DOES IT GUILTY OF MURDER?

New York, Oct. 23.—Whether a person who aids or abets in the commission of suicide is guilty of murder or aiding the punishment for which is 20 years imprisonment or of a less degree of felony, or is guilty of no crime at all, will be decided by a jury chosen yesterday in general sessions to try the case of the state against James Wadell, who is alleged to have entered into a suicide pact with his wife, Mrs. Wadell, who is alleged not being able to live in a state of congenital bliss decided to die together.

Asphyxiation by coal gas was tried but failed. Wadell then secured a revolver and with it his wife shot and killed herself. His attempt was almost unsuccessful as the pistol missed fire.

ANDRUS ARRAIGNED.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY THEN SECOND MAN ENTERS SIMILAR PLEA.

The same kind of a hue and cry followed the disappearance of 15-year-old Margaret Regan. It appears that young Albert Andrus is not the only one accused of criminal assault upon the girl. The account of her disappearance and the arrest of Andrus on the charge of immoral conduct with the girl was published in the "News." Andrus was arrested by Atty. Soren K. Christensen. A plea of not guilty was entered and the case set for Nov. 6 for hearing.

Imprisonment after arraignment of Andrus, a young man giving the name of LeRoy Olson, was arraigned on charges of the same charge, it being alleged that he had committed the assault upon the girl. He was represented by Atty. H. A. Smith and a plea of not guilty was entered, but there is a probability that in this case a demurral will be filed. The trial date was set for Nov. 6.

On the 10th the trial date was set for Nov. 6 for hearing.

WANTED—205 VOTES.

The same kind of a hue and cry followed R. P. Morris two years ago by a night of 200,000. We want to know if any of those votes to come up to us and Mr. Morris will be the next mayor. Nothing can stop this except a hue and cry on religious lines.

"Our completed canvass shows that if the election were held tonight Morris would be elected mayor. Democratic and independent voters should rally to the polls to help him win.

He is the only man who has never Salt Lake ever had. They should rally as they never rallied before."

When asked as to plans for perfecting the organization, and making a showing on election day, Chairman Morris declared that the work must be done now.

He was represented by Atty. H. A. Smith and a plea of not guilty was entered.

There was a probability that in this case a demurral will be filed.

The trial date was set for Nov. 6.

Olson will have a hearing on the 10th.

CHAIRMEN DIFFER ON THE OUTLOOK

Where is the Anti-American Party Sentiment Looking For Relief?

BOTH CLAIM AN ADVANTAGE.

Snow Says It's for Morris and Devine Says His Liberal Fusion Offer Is Winning Votes.

Politics in Salt Lake today look mighty different through the eyes of Chairman James Devine, of the Republican city committee, and through the eyes of Chairman Ashby Snow of the Democrats. Snow declares with enthusiasm and evident sincerity that the Morris sentiment is stronger than ever this morning, and that the sentiment of "beat the Americans" is settling upon his party.

Chairman Devine on the other hand, believes that the liberal Republican offer of fusion, and the refusal of the Democrats to meet the issue with them, has resulted in a great switch of opinion against the Democrats, and in favor of his party.

This spirit has also infused the Republican headquarters. The attaches there say they will win, and today they say it in a very different manner from the formal statement of Senator Parley P. Jensen that the Juvenile band will parade the streets tomorrow night to boom the rally in the Ladies' Literary club, at which Senator Sutherland will be the principal speaker, and that a big time is in store for all who come to the headquarters smoker scheduled for tonight.

MORRIS PORTENTS.

The Democrats on the other hand maintain that they will at once tell the town with Morris posters, and that their organization will not be the least lacking in the final hours of the campaign, when the "beat-the-American" sentiment is counted upon to carry the party.

DEVINE'S VIEW.

Both chairman issued statements today, when asked by the "News," to give their feelings on the local situation. Chairman Devine said: "The unificationendorf of R. P. Morris some days ago in stating the party line that he preferred the American ticket, and that the Republican victory is in line with sentiment expressed by the so-called leaders of the Democratic party in this city. It might as well be understood that the Republicans party has been honest and conscientious in asking the cooperation of all citizens both from the Mormon and Democratic parties in returning to the people a better city government than they have been enjoying for some time past."

"It goes without saying that the Mormon Democratic voter is not going to throw away his vote this much-needed campaign by any sentimental loyalty to your party where no party ties are involved."

"The attitude of the Republican party in the various wards in placing on their councilman ticket men in both parties has clearly shown their disposition to act fairly with all classes of people, and you know, Mr. Wadell, that the action is meeting its just reward by an overwhelming accession to the Republican ticket."

FAITH IN ORGANIZATION.

J. C. Eldridge, Jr., who organized the last Republican campaign and who was a special agent of the police department privately, that "You can talk to the cows come home about church influence, but when a sentiment of 'beat-the-Americans' is general, about 1,000 voters will walk down the street anxious to do this to one who walks down to vote for any particular opposing candidate, and I think that that party has the organization, and the party working hardest to make an effective showing gathering in these votes by a natural law of gravitation, pulling stronger than any other influence."

Eldridge places his faith in a perfected organization, but working for votes and getting the votes registered and voted.

Chairman Snow's statement is in his favorite vigorous style, giving the Democratic view in the light of the most recent developments.

"This falsehood of the Salt Lake Tribune, he declared, that R. P. Morris prefers the American ticket, is contrary to his whole life, which has been lived here where he was born of Mormon parentage, and directly opposed to his written denial." After some strong denunciation of the falsehood of the Tribune concerning Mr. Morris, Mr. Snow concluded.

The same kind of a hue and cry followed R. P. Morris two years ago by a night of 200,000. We want to know if any of those votes to come up to us and Mr. Morris will be the next mayor. Nothing can stop this except a hue and cry on religious lines.

With the Politicians.

The biggest event in local politics tonight is the Republican reception at headquarters, at which informal speeches will be made by party leaders and candidates. An announcement by Secy. Parley Jensen that Senator Reed Smoot would speak is intended today. Secy. Jensen giving out that Senator Smoot will not be present to speak.

Tomorrow night the Republicans follow with another rally this time at the Ladies' Literary club, and the juvenile band is advertised for a juvenile band.

The "Americans" hold a rally last night in the Second ward, the party's sympathizers being given an opportunity to hear A. J. Weber, W. S. Ridgeway and H. J. Dimmick—he of the button-tail coat. The Americans will meet in the hall of the Federation of Labor hall, and S. P. Armstrong was turned loose upon them, after which Frank Christensen helped to earn his salary from the city government by talking for the party that pays it.

Chairman Devine has addressed another speech to the "American" chairman, repeating his first proposition to debate the principles of the campaign on the proposition of Morris' term in office and its results.

One week from next Tuesday the political fires will go out and the party will therefore stop boiling and begin to cool down.

The desperate measures of the "American" campaign are undertaken principally because the leaders know how difficult it will be to hold the party together. Sheer and the frontispiece in office which his police administration ceases.

She is our last chance for victory if we get the other parties mixed in a fight one with the other, or if they fuse anyhow, to make this fusion appear to be forced by the Mormon Church, and the result will be that the church will be forced to turn again and revert to sixteenth century standards of religious persecution.

Another term with the financial freedom of the last will see fusion headed by about everybody not in the inner circle graft, or enjoying the small bits of Jake Raleigh's variety.
