Theatre. - The Home Dramatic Club's presentation of "The Guvnor" yesterday evening was witnessed by two immense audiences. All of the old favorites, Edith Clawson, Ivy Clawson, Mrs. Snell, Birdle Clawson, and Messrs. Wells, Spencer, Young, White and others performed their parts in admirable style. The piece, however, while made the most of by the actors is not as much of a success as others that have been played by the Club. There is too much that appears to approach profanity in the dialogue.

On Saturday afternoon and evening, the greatest success of the Club, "The Banker's Daughter," will be played in the Theatre.

fessed-Christian idea of God was cor-rest, how could it be possible to cre-ate anything in the express image of that which possessed neither body, parts nor passions, and yet have those essentials in the thing dreated? Such an idea was absurd. Christians were taught to look forward to a time when they would be exalted in the presence of God, and yet what would that pres-ence be when it consisted of nothing? There would always be something Independence Day .- Yesterday, the oth, was generally observed as a holfday in the city. The various pleasure resorts were crowded with visitors, and everything passed off peaceably. The celebration exercises at Liberty Park, by the G. A. B., drew out a good Park, by the G. A. R., drew out a good attendance. At Lake Point and Gar-field there was probably the largest crowd that has ever attended those bathing resorts. Beck's Hot Springs, Fuller's Hill and Calder's Gardens, were also busy during the day. The excursion trains to Ogden carried but few persons from this city to witness the celebration there, which was a complete success; the display of fire-works there in the evening was the grandest ever witnessed in Utah.

They pretended that this was the God of the Bible, yet investigation proved that the teachings of the Bible were to the reverse, not only with re-gard to the idea of Deity, but maay other doctrines believed in by the sects of Christendom. The laws iald down in the Scriptures were for the salvaof Christendom. The laws laid down in the Scriptures were for the salva-tion of the human family, and careful inquiry revealed the fact that they had been departed from in later ages. In regard to the personality of the Deity, the Bible declared that the Only Begotten Son, Jesus Christ, was in the express image of His Father's person, and also that man himself was created in the likeness of God.
