

UTAH TEACHERS GATHER AT PROVO

Five Hundred Gather for the Opening Session of the State Convention.

TODAY'S PROGRAM IN FULL.

Papers and Discussions on Many Important Subjects by Leading Educators of the State.

(Special to the "News.") Provo, Jan. 2.—A large number of people took advantage of the invitation to the public to attend the opening session of the Utah State Teachers' association that convened last night in the tabernacle which was filled to its utmost capacity. The decorations, red, blue and yellow were artistically displayed and great credit is due Prof.
Eastmond and his committee. President Lars E. Eggerston of Provo, in a brief speech, full of enthusiasm, wit and earnestness, called the convention to order. The tabernacle choir, under the leadership of Prof. Boshard, sang three selections that added greatly to the enthusiasm already created. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor J. H. Friesby, Pres. George H.
Brimhall of the B. Y. university, Rev.
Dr. S. H. Goodwin, principal Proctor of the State Normal school, all of whom represented Provo, Miss Jennie Camp sang a solo and encores with violin obligato by Prof. Moss, Gunderson, piano accompaniment by Prof. A. C. Lund, entitled "For All Eternity." Responses were made by State Supt.
A. C. Nelson; Dr. J. T. Kingsbury, principal University of Utah, Salt Lake; Supt. J. W. Smith, Sandy, and L. M. Gilliland secretary and treasurer of the association, all giving great praise to the citizens of Provo for the royal hearty welcome that has been given. The announcement that general headquarters had been established at the postoffice building, with branches one at Taylor Bros. Furniture company, and one at the building, corner of First West and Center, where the articles that are manufactured by Provo industries are on exhibition. The first session adjourned until today at 10 a. m. at the tabernacle when Dr.
J. P. Gordy of the school of pedagogy, New York university, N. Y., will deliver a lecture, to which the general public is invited.

After suffering for a period of two years from cancer, Mrs. Minnie J.
Snow passed away at 1:40 o'clock this morning. The end had been expected almost momentarily for several days past, and for a week she had been unconscious more or less of the time.
The maiden name of the deceased was Jensen, and she was married to the late Pres. Snow June 12, 1871. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P.
Jensen, who were among the first converts in Denmark to the tenets of the Latter-day Saints. She was born Oct.
10, 1854, and from childhood was of a religious temperament, entering into duties of the Church with great fervor.
She was president of the Y. L. M. L. A. of Brigham City from its organization until she came to Salt Lake to reside, and since that time has occupied many positions of trust in various Church organizations traveling in their interest from Canada to Mexico. She was a member of the general board of the Y. L. M. L. A. and took part in the most important committee work of that body. Several times elected a delegate to the National Council of Women, she JAILBREAK AT GOLDFIELD.

Two Prisoners Awaiting Trial for Stealing Ore Escaped from Jail.
(Special to the "News.")
Goldfield, Nev., Jan. 1.—A successful escape from prison was made here early this morning by O'Donnell and Riley, awaiting trial for stealing ore from the Little Florence mine. The men were being permitted to exercise in the prison yard, and with them was one George Gibson, whose trial for shooting Engineer Mansell will soon take place. Gibson had been granted permission to use the telephone, and the latter remembered that he had left a shotgun behind the door of the room where the telephone is located. He left the other two prisoners long enough to

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The wedding of Miss La Prele Hatch and Don E. Ray took place last night at the bride's home, Abram Hatch, the father of the bride performing the ceremony at 6 o'clock in the presence of the relatives and near friends and about 75 guests present. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the parlor in white and green with a canopy of white carnations and ferns and streamers of white satin bunting. The library in red with carnations, ribbons and pennants of colleges with which the groom has been connected, and the dining room also in red, the table having a centerpiece of red carnations while streamers of red ribbon extended from the chandelier to the corners.
The bride wore a handsome gown of fete crepe de chine over taffeta with trimmings of duchesse and rose point lace and carried a shower bouquet of hills of the valley. Her bridesmaid, Miss Minnie Ray, wore a gown of pink crepe de chine over silk of the same shade and carried pink carnations. The maid of honor, Miss Aldora Hatch, wore a dainty gown of white silk mull, and Mr. Lee Weber was best man. Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs.
D. W. McAllister and Mr. and Mrs.
Will Ray, and Miss Jane Wilson and Miss Mignon Denhaier served punch.
Miss Sarah Wilson played the bridal music and an orchestra furnished delightful selections during the evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray will be at home after Jan. 15 at 1098 Third avenue.

Another home wedding of last night was that of Miss Ethel A. Barr and of this city and Paul Lincoln of Boston, Dean Brewster officiating, and the event taking place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. W. Nutting.
Only members of the family were present, and a dinner for these followed the ceremony. The rooms were prettily decorated in the holiday colors carried out in flowered ribbons. The bride wore a gown of blue silk with lace trimmings and had no attendants.
Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln left last night

FOUND A WAY.

To Be Clear of the Coffee Troubles.
"Husband and myself both had the coffee habit and finally his stomach kidneys got in such a bad condition that he was compelled to give up a good pos-sion that he had held for years. He was too sick to work. His skin was yellow, and I hardly think there was an organ in his body that was not affected.
"I told him I felt sure his sickness was due to coffee and after some discussion he decided to give it up.
"It was a struggle, because of the powerful habit. One day we heard about Postum and concluded to try it and that it was easy to leave off coffee.
"His fearful headaches grew less frequent, his complexion began to clear, kidneys grew better until at last he was a new man altogether, as a result of leaving off coffee and taking Postum.
"Although I was never as bad off as my husband, I was always very nervous and never at any time very strong, only weighing 95 lbs. before I began to use Postum. Now I weigh 115 lbs. and can do as much work as anyone my size I think.
"Many do not use Postum because they have not taken the trouble to make it right. I have successfully foiled a great many persons who have drunk it at my table. They would remark, 'You must buy a high grade of coffee.' One young man who clerked in a grocery store was very enthusiastic about my 'coffee.' When I told him what it was, he said, 'why I've sold Postum for four years but I had no idea it was like this. Think I'll drink Postum hereafter.'
Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read 'The Road to Wellville,' in page. 'There's a Reason.'

their home.
Miss Constance Kirkpatrick and John R. Van Fleet were quietly married on New Year's eve at the Knutsford, only members of the family being present, and Judge Morse performing the ceremony. Later the bridal couple left for Nevada, where they will reside.

A pretty church marriage of last night was that uniting Miss Teresa S.
Strom and Rev. Albert Buxton, pastor of the Christian church, the ceremony being performed at the groom's church with Rev. W. A. Paden officiating and a reception following in the parlors.
The elders of the church acted as ushers and the reception was in charge of the Ladies' Aid society.

A brilliant affair of last night was the reception and dancing party given at Gordon academy, by the faculty for the pupils of the institution, the rooms being beautifully decorated in red and green, while a Christmas tree stood on the platform as a central feature from which the decorations radiated. One corner was arranged in Japanese effect with lanterns, etc., and in another pretty corner punch was served.
There was a grand march led by members of the faculty, and joined by teachers and students and, at the followed, the program being done in hand painted blue and white violets, the school flowers and colors.

The lobby and gymnasium of the Y.
M. C. A. building were filled yesterday afternoon on the occasion of the New Year's reception, many of Salt Lake's prominent citizens being present. There were refreshments, and excellent music by Nettleton's orchestra, and local vocal talent. The association glee club sang several selections in the well rendered songs by M. J. Brines and Hugh W. Dougan.
Many ladies were present in brilliant costumes. Those who received were Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. John Derr, Mr. and Mrs.
W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. W.
Mont Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. John S.
Bransford, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Druhl, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Honnold, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. E.
Pearsall, Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Silver, Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Plummer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs.
L. L. Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Cox. Refreshments were served by the ladies' section of the association, of which Mrs. A. J. Gorham is chairman. She was assisted by Mrs. W. V.
Rice, Mrs. L. C. Miller, Mrs. E. V. Silver, Mrs. W. M. Ferry, Mrs. F. B.
Stephens and Mrs. Oscar L. Cox.

Misses Margaret Whitney, Blanch Squires and Burdette Clawson went to Provo yesterday to be guests of Miss Edith Dusenbury at a week's house party.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Tracy give a dinner tomorrow in honor of Miss Laura Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Paul entertained at cards last night for Lieut. and Mrs. Butcher, the amusement being 500, and nine tables being played.

This afternoon, Mrs. W. L. Green and Miss Sara Truax will receive informally at Mrs. Green's home, No. 5 Emery flats.

Mrs. Lafayette Hanchett entertains the Plate club this afternoon.

Mrs. Hart J. Fitzgerald, 1258 east South Temple, will entertain at luncheon on Saturday next for Mrs. Gertrude S. Lewis of Niles, Michigan.
Other guests will be Mrs. E. R. Coates of Chicago, and Mesdames T. H. Fitzgerald, D. M. Landreth, C. D. Moore, VanArman and C. E. Allen.

COL. M. M. MURDOCK DEAD.

Editor of Wichita Eagle and a Foremost Citizen of Kansas.

Wichita, Kan., Jan. 1.—The sleep of everlasting peace gently closed the life of Col. M. M. Murdock, editor and owner of the Wichita Eagle and postmaster of Wichita, at 12:50 o'clock this morning. Death came to him while asleep.
He had been unconscious since Monday, and his son, Congressman Victor Murdock, who hurried to this city from Washington, did not arrive in time to speak to his father before the end.

Col. Murdock was undoubtedly the most noted man in Kansas during the past 25 years. His powerful pen shaped the destiny of the Republican party on many occasions. He figured in some of the exciting scenes of the early history of the state, notably Quantrell's raid on Lawrence.

He was born in Virginia, but came to Kansas before the Civil war. Before coming to Wichita in 1871, he owned and edited a paper at Burlingame. He stuck to Wichita during its dark days, when property values depreciated to nothing, and this one fact made him the foremost citizen of the southwest.
Probably there was no more brilliant writer in the west than Col. Murdock. Until two months ago he took an active part in the paper, but was forced to retire and to take a respite from his duties as postmaster.
