SABBATH SERVICES.—Elder Brigham Young, jun., spoke upon the capabilities of the land now under cultivation in this Territory to support a much larger population than dwell at present in these valleys, if it be properly tilled; and deprecated the practice of men taking up and trying to cultivate more land than they can properly work. We should not let our minds dwell upon the acquisition of wealth, to the exclusion of the duties which God requires us to perform, and the seeking earnestly for salvation. The counsels given us by the servants of God should have paramount influence with us. If we fail to abide in them we shall lose the very things we hope to obtain; if we obey them we shall enjoy the promised blessings.

Elder N. H. Felt spoke on the first principles of the gospel, and on the miracles performed in gathering the thousands from the nations of the earth who have been brought here, and in opening up and wresting wealth from them from the forbidding region which these valleys were when first settled, as a consequence of the preaching of those principles and their being believed and obeyed.

Elder E. L. Sloan made a few remarks on the greatness and importance of the events that are occurring with such rapidity, and the necessity of the Saints preparing themselves for the accomplishment of the purposes of the Lord by strictly keeping His commandments.

Afternoon.
Elder Orson Pratt quoted from the sixth paragraph of the twelfth chapter, second book of Nephi; also from the fifth page of the book of Doctrine and Covenants; and the standard which God declared by His prophets He would set up in the last days. He quoted from the writings of several of the prophets recorded in the Bible, and from the revelations given through Joseph the Prophet, confirmatory of the views he enunciated concerning the building up of Zion, the inception and development of the work of God, and those things which must yet come to pass in fulfillment of the predictions made by the servants of God.

THEATRICAL.—On Saturday night the farce of "On and Off," was very spiritedly played, all the characters exerting themselves to make its performance satisfactory, in which they succeeded. "Paul a Dhoil" followed, and drew much and repeated applause.

To-morrow night, the exciting sensational drama of "Earnest Maltravers" will be presented. It has many strong and attractive points, of which the impregnation of barrel on his daughter's head, is not the least among the former, and the presence of the Zingari among the latter. It is a piece which scarcely ever fails to draw, where anything will draw; and does not permit the excitement to flag till the end. The farce is the amusing one of "The Mummy," in which Mr. Margates will personate that antiquated specimen of Egyptian mortality.

Crowded.—Yesterday, the weather was too cold to permit of the services being conducted in the New Tabernacle, and the meetings were held in the Old Tabernacle. At two o'clock, the hour for commencing the afternoon meeting, the building was crowded and very many were compelled to go away unable to get seats. We presume, as soon as the weather warrants, the meetings will be held in the larger building.

"A large number of invalids from the North spent the winter in Florida. The climate is said to be very favorable." [—Ex.]

But a few years will pass away until large numbers from the North, to us east, will seek health and happiness during the summer months in the Rocky Mountains, breathe the pure air here, visit the "Dead Sea of the West," Great Salt Lake, bathe in the mineral waters of the warm springs, and make fashionable watering places of spots which were a dreaded wilderness a few years ago. Will they give the "Mormons" credit for pioneering the way through incredible difficulties and hardships? Very doubtful.

COMMENDABLE.—The Rocky Mountain News of the 9th encourages the people of Colorado to plant and cultivate fruit and ornamental trees, taking the ground that Colorado is a fruit-growing country, which the News thinks, has been sufficiently proved by the experience they have already had in fruit growing. He points to the example set by Salt Lake, and intimates that the attempt has been so eminently successful here, he believes it would not be any less so there. The advice of the News to the Coloradians on the subject is sound, and they will be wise if they follow it. Fruit, shade and ornamental trees are luxuries that with rank almost among necessities, and while wondering how a people can live in such a country for years without trying to have them, we can well imagine how bleak and bare-looking must be the place that lacks them. If the editor of the News can induce his fellow citizens in that Territory to plant fruit and ornamental trees he will confer a public benefit vastly greater than if he had discovered and made them a present of a gold mine.

MEANT TO KILL.—The Register, a Colorado paper, gives the details of a murder committed near Black Hawk toll gate on the night of the 6th inst. "Dirty John Sutton and Michael Rock" had a quarrel. Sutton stabbed and cut Rock in an interesting way, placing him in a semi-sausage-meat condition. Rock was recovering, when the two met near the toll gate, and re-opened "the war." Rock was shot dead by Sutton, and somebody, to keep his hand in practice, introduced a morsel of lead into the murderer. Sutton is in jail, with a bullet in him, and it is uncertain whether he will die from it. There were threatening made to lynch him. A later paper informs us Sutton is dead. The Register says:

"In dying, he committed the only good act of his life, or, at least, the best one. He has long been a desperate character. He killed two men in Kansas before coming here, and has threatened to kill at least a dozen men in this country. The news of his death is invariably received with pleasure. There probably was not a worse man in the country than he. A violent death was such as he deserved to meet."

ATTENDED TO.—Darius Cartwright was arrested to-day on a charge of stealing, and after examination before Alderman Clinton, Justice demanded his services for fifteen days for the benefit of the city.

Charles Cressy, an old hand, was arrested last night for stealing and tried to-day. He was very impartial in his attentions, and displayed that quality of mind, in not disregarding trifles, which characterizes all great men. The results of his appropriations would have almost started a second hand variety store. His Honor decreed that he be invested with the decoration of the knights of the street, and serve the city one hundred days graced with the hall and chain.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—We learn from R. L. Campbell, County Superintendent of Schools, that the winter term of the 7th Ward School closed on Friday, when the pupils passed a brief examination in the English branches. The Superintendent assured us that it was one of the best examinations he ever attended. The proficiency of the pupils, who were mostly juvenile, reflected much credit on their preceptor, Mr. F. S. Richards; and the order and decorum manifested were equal to that of our best schools. We take pleasure in chronicling the item, and have no doubt that Franklin S., with a suitable room and some school apparatus, would rear up a school in that district that would be an honor to the Trustees and Ward, and a credit to our city.

PROFESSIONAL.—Madame Scheller is playing a brief engagement as the star, at the Irwins' theatre, Cheyenne, previous to opening in this city. She had played "Marie," "Mathilde" and "Pauline" in the "Lady of Lyons," and was drawing crowded houses, at last dates. Her acting is spoken of in high terms by the Cheyenne papers, and her singing is eulogized very strongly.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Waldron are looked for to-morrow or Wednesday. George is well known here and will receive a hearty welcome from the theatre-going public. His lady is spoken of as a clever and accomplished actress.

MADE A RAID.—The Indians in New Mexico wanted some mutton, and helped themselves, without the owner's leave, to five thousand head of sheep, from the Rio Puerco on the 17th ult. They were pursued by a party from Corrales, but report does not say that they were overtaken. Other outrages committed by them in that region are talked of.
