BRIGHAM CITY. BRIGHT BUSINESS PROSPECTS.

First National Bank an Important Factor - Wedding Bells.

Special Correspondence. Brigham City, Boxelder Co., Jan, 13. -The citizens of Brigham City are feeling highly elated today over the prospects which are held out for a busy and prosperous year. The Brigham City Electric Light company has engineers on the ground making estimates for the installation of an entirely new and up-to-date lighting plant; a proposition has been received by influential business men for the erection of a first-class canning factory, and the Bear River canal people have written a letter which convinces those interested that the canal on the East side is only a matter of a few months in the future. FLOURISHING BANK BUSINESS.

The First National bank of Brigham City, which started up on Dec. 9, 1901, finds itself doing a splendid business. It has money on deposit that has not been in circulation for a good many years, the owners having stored it away on their premises. The institu-tion recently filed a warranty deed with the county recorder in which was onveyed to them the large three story Tek building commonly known as the Co-op. Store." The bank is situated a the southeast corner of the building and is proud of the fact that there is not a better bank corner in the whole state. President L. N. Stohl and Cashier J. D. Peters have been busy he last week in signing $7,500 in cur rency. The bills are now full legal tender. The first bill signed was for ten dollars and will be kept by Ole Poterson, assistant cashier. A large umber of these bills, the first ever is sued from Brigham City, are now in circulation. Following are the names of the officers of the bank: President, Lorenzo N. Stohl; vice president, Lu-cius A. Snow, cashier, John D. Peters; assistant cashier, Ole Peterson: direc tors, Lucius A. Snow, John L. Edwards, James Nelsen, S. N. Lee, Neis Jenson, Aima Nelson and Peter M. Hansen. WEDDING BELLS.

The following marriage licenses were issued the last few days by County Clerk Joseph Jensen: David Everett 26, of Pocatello, and Mary Nelson, 32 of Brigham City; M. F. Johnstone, 27 and Olive Gidney, 23, both of Mantua; N. B. Marbie, 31, and Tena Germer, 26,

both of Deweyville. LUCIN CUT-OFF TO SALT LAKE

May Complicate R. R. Land Matters - Young Ladies' Grand Ball.

Special Correspondence. Brigham City, Boxelder Co., Jan. 14 .--Some of our citizens claim to be in posession of information, which they deem cliable, that the Southern Pacific pany will surely build the proposed cut-off from Lucin around the south end of Great Salt Lake to Salt Lake City, abandening the road as now construct ed by way of Corinne. Should this be done it would have the effect of bring-ing all the shipping of the county to Brigham City, and would also reduce Local lawyers give it as their opinion, however, that it will not be possible for the Southern Pacific to abandon this road for the simple reason that the grant of the large tracts of land from the government was made with the express stipulation that the road be main ained. In consequence of this the set tlers on railroad lands have been per suaded to pay a higher price for land than they otherwise would have done. The land included in the said grant lies equally on each side of the oad as now constructed, being forty miles in width. A great deal of this land has been sold and the proceeds appropriated by the company. Now, if appropriated by the company. they change the course they would mix matters up fearfully.
