MISSION WORK IN BALTIMORE.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 5.—The centenary of the birth of Joseph Smith, the organizer and prophet of the Mormon Church, was celebrated yesterday at Sonnenburg's hall. Elder M. L. Sheets was in charge, and the speakers were Elders J. Lloyd Woodruff and E. G. Hughes of Utah. Brother Elihu Call sang a solo.—Baltimore Sun, Jan. 1.

January 7, regular communion services were held. Elders W. B. Martin and G. A. Anderson of Utah, spoke at the services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, yesterday afternoon. Their topics were, respectively, "The personality of the Godhead," and "The individuality of the persons," and "The present and primal organization of the Church."—Baltimore Sun, Jan. 15.

"The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints" was addressed Sunday afternoon by Elder Parker Nelson. He quoted Mosheim, Clark, Smith and some of the reformers, to show how the church had lost its organization, and asserted that in Mormonism a restoration had been effected. Elder Nelson conducted the singing.—Baltimore Sun, Jan. 22.

The above excerpts show how the Latter-day Saints' services are noticed by the local press.

Elders T. W. Stevenson addressed our meeting of Jan. 28 on "Prophecy." Introducing the parable of the olive tree (Book of Mormon rendition), connecting it with previous and present history and future events. Elder W. B. Martin spoke on "Restoration." Another daughter of Zion was born in Baltimore Monday, Jan. 22, to Mr. and Mrs. E. G. and Catherine Jones Hughes; this is the second child, the first being a boy.

E. G. Hughes and Horace Merrill have been chosen as teachers in the theological class of the L. D. S. Sunday school, and J. Lloyd Woodruff as secretary. All three of these brethren are attending modern college here, but find relief from their studies in assisting in the work of truth spreading.

Elders Mark C. Holbrook, of Bountiful, and Geo. Cochran, Salt Lake City, have been assigned to labor in Baltimore; the previous field of the former has been New Jersey and Philadelphia; the latter has labored exclusively in Philadelphia. There is plenty of work for these, and more Elders if they could be had.

Elder J. H. Anderson paid Baltimore a hurried visit last week. He was on business, but took time to call on the Elders and give them the benefit of his encouraging presence and advice. ELDER W. B. MARTIN.

SPOKANE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 5.—A Latter-day Saint Sunday school was organized here Sunday, Dec. 31, 1905, with 11 members, with Elder H. H. Holladay as president, Elder William Holladay and Brother Heber J. Ballantyne as assistants, Miss Myrtle Gramberg, secretary, Mrs. Heber J. Ballantyne, treasurer. We have 22 members in the organization at the present time, who are truly thankful for the privilege of meeting together.

The work of the Lord is progressing very nicely in this part of the vineyard, despite the barriers of indifference and prejudice. The Elders may not see the fruit of their humble efforts at present, but they hope the seed sown will fall upon fertile soil and bring forth fruit in abundance, in time to come.

DEATH OF A VALUED FRIEND.

May, La., Feb. 11.—The many friends and Elders who have enjoyed the acquaintance and hospitality of the family of Brother John D. Mayer will be grieved to learn that the Lord has seen fit to close the chapter of his life's labors after a long illness of several months. His death, which occurred on Jan. 29, 1906, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Dr. C. S. Stewart, in Amite City, La., closed a long, active, and useful career.

John D. Mayer was born Dec. 18, 1834, in Gloucestershire, England; emigrated to America in 1855 and settled in Union county, Arkansas. During the war he served in the ordinance department of the Confederate army. After the close of the war he moved to Mississippi City, Miss., where he engaged in the hotel business until 1884, when he purchased the tract of land now known as the Mayer plantation in St. Helena parish, Louisiana, where he made his home during the remainder of his life.

In 1890 he visited Utah and from that time his home has been a home for the Elders, scores having enjoyed his hospitality.

President Steele expressed himself as well pleased with the progress of the stake for the past year. The membership is increasing, and all other conditions improving, and the people have everything to encourage them. The stake presidency are in perfect accord in all things pertaining to the stake.

Elder Joseph W. McMurrin spoke at some length on the duties of those holding the Priesthood filling all positions with fidelity.

Elder Wm. Y. Jeffs of Iowa was ordained a Patriarch of the Bingham stake. John Walker was set apart as a member of the High Council, Daniel Stowell and Robert M. Newman were set apart as alternate members of the High Council by President Francis M. Lyman.

At the Sunday morning session the house was not adequate to hold the large congregation.

Elder Lyman was the first speaker. He said the object of the quarterly conferences was to give the people opportunity to hear the reports of the various wards and stake organizations, that they may know the condition of the Church. He then directed his remarks to the children, of whom there were quite a number present.

On Sunday afternoon, the general and local authorities of the Church were present and unanimously sustained.

Bishop and set apart to preside over the "Cotton" ward by Elder Lyman. He chose as his counselors Silas D. Ramon and Joseph A. Bybee.

James G. Browning was set apart as alternate member of the High Council of the Bingham stake.

The splendid singing furnished during the conference was much enjoyed. The number present the last session was well represented. On account of deep snow in the mountains, some of the distant wards could not be represented.

REPORTS WERE HEARD FROM ALL WARDS REPRESENTED AND FROM THE STAKE AUXILIARY ASSOCIATIONS, ALL OF WHICH DEMONSTRATED A GENERAL HEALTHY CONDITION OF THE SAINTS IN THIS STAKE.

President William T. Mack reported an increase in faith on the part of those striving to obey the commandments of the Lord. There was quite an increase in population, to the extent that it became necessary to divide one of the wards. Oakley First ward had been divided, and the new ward designated as Oakley Fourth ward. He reported a general good feeling prevailing throughout the stake.

Elder Francis M. Lyman advised the Saints in his usual characteristic fatherly way; laid special stress upon the necessity of the Saints being an example in all things to those coming into our midst from the world—not only in spiritual but also in temporal matters. Elder Lyman earnestly urged the Saints to be temperate in all things, and live lives of purity.

An interesting feature of the conference was Elder Roberts' address Sunday afternoon, taking for his text, "The Prophet Joseph Smith as a Teacher." It was a masterly effort and a grand testimony to the divine mission of the Prophet.

This conference adjourned with the sentiment in the mind of the people that none had been better and that they appreciated very much the presence of the visitors.

The general and local authorities of the Church were unanimously sustained by vote of the conference.

The singing by the stake choir, under the direction of Prof. Henry Otte, with Miss Mae Martindale at the organ, was a very interesting feature, and added much to the enjoyment of the conference.

MARCUS O. FUNK, Stake Clerk.

WORK WEAKENS THE KIDNEYS.

Doan's Kidney Pills Have Done Great Service for People Who Work In Salt Lake City.

Most Salt Lake City people work every day in some strained, unnatural position—bending constantly over a desk—riding on jolting wagons or cars—doing laborious housework, lifting, reaching or pulling, or trying the back in a hundred and one other ways. All these strains tend to wear, weaken and injure the kidneys until they are both in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs. Salt Lake City cures prove it.

Robert C. Kirkwood, engineer on the Oregon Short Line R. R., residence 424 West Fourth South, says: "Like most men who follow the occupation I do, the jarring and jolting of the engine causes a constant strain on the small of the back, and a lameness, soreness and aching is the result. I suffered severely at times with my back and on more than one occasion I have been obliged to use Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the F. & H. Hill Drug Co's store. Not only can I speak positively about the preparation myself, but Mrs. Kirkwood derived so much benefit from the use of the remedy that we both look upon it as of great value. I will be pleased to tell others about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills.

For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
