

NEWS NOTES.

Nevada wants a State University where its Senators can be taught to manufacture their own speeches.

Arabella Goddard was wrecked on the coast of Queensland, and lost her grand piano.

The Missouri Democrat asks, "Shall we have an election carried in St. Louis by wholesale swindling?" That question might have been asked in Tooele county, Utah.

Twenty-five cents per dozen is all the poor women and girls receive for making the fancy scarfs and ties worn by men and boys, and for which they have to pay from twenty-five cents to dollars apiece.

When an interviewer calls upon General Sherman, the General places a bottle of brandy on the table, says he has got to step out for a moment, and is not seen again until the next morning.

There is so much artificial butter made in the vicinity of Boston, that tallow has become scarce in that city. The butter factories can make tallow taste as near like butter as many farmers make butter taste like tallow.

A resident of Erie, Pa., refused to marry his affianced who had come over from Germany for the purpose, because she had not brought a feather bed with her. She has now brought suit for breach of promise against him, and claims $1,000 damages.

A woman forty-five years old died in an insane asylum in Edinburgh after having been confined to her bed for five years. After her death it was found that her bones had become soft and light, and had in fact almost disappeared. She suffered no pain.

Rossiter W. Raymond, in a letter to the Brooklyn Eagle, explains that the term "nest-hiding" simply means keeping home troubles secret, and says shame on the black-guard who can fish from the obscene abyss of his own consciousness a criminal significance for such a word and such a thing.

Attorney General Williams has not been in a proper state of mind since he cut that ridiculous figure as the President's nominee for Chief Justice; but why he should distribute his bad temper over the South, which had nothing to do with either his incompetency or his failure, is a little singular.—Ex.

The New York Central Railroad is one of the most prosperous corporations in the country. Hereafter it is announced to pay its stockholders quarterly dividends of two per cent. No wonder it finds no difficulty in disposing of its bonds for the purpose of raising funds to complete its four tracks through from Albany to Buffalo.

A correspondent of the Graphic, bent on investigating the Eddy ghost-shop, in Chittenden, Vermont, has measured and weighed some "materialized" spirits. The height of these seen on a single evening varied from four feet to six feet three inches, and "Honto," the noted Indian spirit, on being weighed four times successively, turned the scale at 88, 58, 58 and 65 pounds respectively.

All the engines on this and the Humboldt Division are draped in mourning, out of respect for the memory of Smith and Greator, the two engineers who were killed last week. The deepest gloom is cast over the entire railroad fraternity. Both engineers stood high in the esteem of the officers and employees with whom they mingled. Each leaves a wife and daughter.—Truckee Republican.

A young Briton lately lost a large sum by betting on spiders. He wagered that a spider which he would produce would cross a plate quicker than a spider to be produced by a friend. Each spider to have his own plate. His spider, however, on being started, would not stir, whilst his rival ran with immense speed. The bet was consequently lost; and the loser soon found out the reason why—his friend had a hot plate.

It is an interesting, if not edifying fact, that there are 30,000 individuals in New York city who live on other people's earnings, who are, in fact, professional thieves. These, with the beggars, make a rather large dependent community for any city. These facts are said to come from the police themselves, which does not speak well for the enforcement of the act against professional thieves.

Senator Conkling told the delegates to the New York Republican Convention that President Grant does not favor a third term. "Very well," says the Boston Globe, "but is Conkling sure he knows?"
