Twelve of the Virginius prisoners are suffering so from the effects of ill usage at the hands of their captors that it has been necessary to send them to the hospital.

New England congressmen have

New England congressmen have received information that the financial stringency is now so little feit that many of the large manufactories will start this week on full time; the large Fall River mills began running to day. Under the new system of selecting steamers to carry the European mails, the P. M. General has designated twenty-four steamers, belong-ing to different lines, to carry the mails during January. This gives twenty-four mails, there being two mails every Saturday. The days of sailing will be January 1, 3, 6, 7, 8, 10, 13, 14, 15, 17, 20, 21, 22, 24, 27, 28,
