CRITICAL ANALYSIS.

UNIVERSITY OF DESERET,
Salt Lake City, June 8th, 1887.

By carefully examining DeLand's Chemical Baking Powder with the microscope and with chemical reagents, I find that it is free from Alum, Starch, Flour, Bone Ash, Ammonia and White Earth; and that it consists essentially of Cream of Tartar and Bi-carbonate of Soda.

The Baking Powder examined I purchased at Barnes & Davis, in this city.

J. T. KINGSBURY, Chemist.

MANUFACTURERS, CHEMISTS, GOVERNMENTS, PRINCIPALITIES OR POWERS are unable to disprove the Statement on every can of DeLand's Chemical Baking Powder—Made of Pure Grape Cream Tartar and Bi-Carb. Soda only. No filling whatever."

CAUTION—Use one fourth less of this Baking Powder, and one-half less shortening with all recipes than with other Brands. d

$1 000 REWARD for any medicine in the world that will cure as bad a case of Itching, Ulcerated and Bleeding Piles as will one fifty-cent box of Dr. Emall's Magic Balm of Healing Ointment. It acts as a soothing lubricator, absorbs the tumors and allays the intense itching at once as nothing else will. No pile cure ever acquired so large a sale in so short a time. Sold at every drug store, or sent by mail. Address Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution, Salt Lake City. Or Cleveland, Ohio, January 21, 1887—Send me five gross Emall's Magic Balm soon as possible. This will make nearly one hundred and fifty dozen I have bought since July 15, 1884. I now sell more of your Balm, or Ointment at retail over my counter than of all other balms and ointments combined. It sells better than any medicine I have in my store.—S. P. NOTICE.

ALL PERSONS INTERESTED THEREin, will take notice—and should remember—that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Utah and Salt Lake Canal Company, will be held at the office and place of its general business, 123 w. North Temple Street, Salt Lake City, on Saturday, October 1st, 1887, at 11 a. m.

There are several matters that should be considered by the stockholders, but the most important question is, how shall what water, of right belonging to the company, be obtained, retained and used for the purposes for which the canal was constructed? for homes and fortunes are at stake.

EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, - September 27, 1887.

IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD.

News Notes Gathered from Various Sources.

Tucson, (A. T.), Sept. 23.—Governor Zulick to-day granted a further respite of 30 days to John A. Johnson, sentenced to be hanged August 12th for complicity in the Clevenger murder, and respited till Sept. 23d. His attorneys promise to have proof to commute his sentence to imprisonment for life. Wilson, who was recently executed for the crime, made a confession in which he stated that Johnson knew nothing of the murder.

Seattle, (W. T.), Sept. 23.—Governor Semple to-day granted a respite till February 15th in the case of George H. Miller, who at the May term of the District Court in this city was sentenced to be hanged for the murder of James M. Coleman in February, 1886. Miller has had three trials, and before the Supreme Court next February the point will be argued as to whether the discharge of the jury at the first trial without a verdict was not equivalent to an acquittal.

When the Rawlins coach arrived Sunday, a young Arapahoe Indian woman was taken off dead, having died that morning three miles this side of Beaver. She was the wife of one of the Carlisle school boys, and was returning with her husband and two other boys to the Shoshone agency. She had been sick for some time and was in hopes to reach her friends before dying, but death's unerring arrow entered the coach and claimed her life, which was yielded up and she failed to reach her friends alive.—Lander (Wyo.) Clipper.

Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 23.—An excursion train of two cars arrived here this morning having on board 65 excursionists, who registered at the Palace Hotel from Dubuque, Iowa, bound for California. Among the number was a pretty young lady named Miss Bedford, who by chance made the acquaintance of a gentleman at La Junta, Col., whose name on the hotel register reads "A. T. Wellington, Chicago," also bound for the Pacific Coast. After the sight-seers had breakfasted Mr. Wellington hired a handsome rig and drove to the Pullman car to take Miss Bedford out for a drive as per agreement made upon his arrival. He was informed that she was at the Palace Hotel, but upon his return she could not be found, according to his own statement. Several gentlemen, very much excited, surrounded his buggy late this afternoon and demanded that he make known the whereabouts of the lady, who had been placed in their charge and for whose safe return to her happy home in Iowa they were responsible. He simply reiterated his former statement and told the anxious inquirers that even if he had taken Miss Bedford for a drive it was none of their business. Language more forcible than elegant was used by all, and after much wrangling the gentlemen from Iowa departed, swearing they would make it hot for the handsome man from Chicago if he did not produce the lady before train time.

A special from San Carlos, Arizona, Sept. 23, says that W. B. Horton, a post trader there, was shot and killed by the Apache scout, Corporal John. Horton was standing in front of the store. The Indian stole up and shot him through the side. The Indian attempted to escape, but in two hours afterward was taken and shot. He lived two hours. Horton was from Holmes County, Miss., and had been principal of the Tucson public schools for several years. He was territorial superintendent of public schools two years, and was well and popularly known throughout Arizona. Another account says that Horton was standing in front of his store when the Indian came from behind and passed around and in front of him at a distance of about five feet and shot at him, the bullet entering his left side below the ribs and coming out through the spine. He lived about three-fourths of an hour and was conscious most of the time, attending to business. He said: "Good-by, fellows; I can't pull through. Tell all the boys good by." When first shot he said: "What did he shoot me for? I have never done an Indian an injustice in my life." No cause can be given for the assult. There had never been a word of difference nor was there a word uttered by either. The Indian was immediately pursued by scouts and others, and, making resistance, was mortally wounded, a bullet entering his left eye. The Indian died about half an hour after the death of Horton.—Arizona Star.

ST. JOSEPH STAKE CONFERENCE.

The Quarterly Conference of the St. Joseph Stake of Zion convened at Pima on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 17th and 18th, 1887.

There were present on the stand Presidents Layton and Johnson of the Stake Presidency; also Bishops, High Councilors and representatives from the various wards.

Conference was called to order by President Layton. After the usual opening exercises he offered a few appropriate remarks and called for reports from bishops, a number of whom responded. The various quorums of priesthood, and the Sunday schools were also reported.

Elder R. A. Allred spoke on the subject of improvement and unity, and Presidents Layton and Johnson occupied the balance of the time on Saturday, encouraging the Saints generally to be prompt in attending their meetings, instructing the different officers in the line of duty, and advising the brethren to leave off freighting as fast as possible and improve their homes, etc. Choir sang an anthem. Benediction by Elder N. W. Birdno.

Sunday 10 a. m. Prayer by Elder Enoch Burses.

Elder Joseph K. Rogers gave an able discourse on the organization of the Church.

President Layton urged the necessity of securing the land in the Gila Valley; also getting titles to the same.

Counselor Johnson spoke on the same subject; also on making improvements, etc.

Benediction by Bishop M. H. Merrill.

2 p. m.—Opening prayer by Elder J. M. Morly.

The sacrament was administered.

The clerk read the statistical reports and also presented the general and local authorities, who were all unanimously sustained.

The following speakers addressed the assembly: Bishop M. H. Merrill and Elders Wm. C. Moody and S. J. Despain. They spoke on the subects of working for our dead, reformation among the Saints, etc. President Layton gave much good instructions and encouraged home industry. Conference adjourned with benediction by Patriarch Wm. McBride.

JOSEPH EAST, Clerk.

A Hallow-e'en Ceremony.

Everyone, from Aunt Bethiah to twelve year old Tom, gathered in the long hall to try "snuffing the candle." A curious little English song is chanted by the participants in this ceremony, which runs:

Trip it lightly! Step it stately!
(How the candle winks and flares!)
Hark the echoes move sedately
Up the wild old oaken stairs.
Silvery heads and merry children
Glide in rythmic movement slow,
Toward the wavering flame bewildering;
One by one, we watch them go.
Now, with dainty hand, the maiden
Grasps her clinging, sweeping train,
Swiftly bounds, good saints all aiding
As she clears the candles flame.
Step it stately, trip it lightly,
She will live the year out brightly.

A solitary candle is placed on the floor, over which each dancer springs, keeping time to the measure of the tune. As each one makes the trial, the onlookers watch the flame. If it burns steadily, the year will be one of unruffled joy and health; if it flares to the right, illness may be anticipated; if to the left, trouble of mind or business. If the light is extinguished, it is a token of death or irremediable sorrow and misfortune during the next twelve months.—American Magazine for October.
