LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

WILL CLOSE OUT .- The City Council decided last night to close up the City liquor store by the end of the present month, and cease the retail liquor business from that

THE EMIGRATION.-The following dis, patch has been courteously handed in for publication-

" NEW YORK, July 10, 9 a.m. "Brigham Young-Patterson's company, over 400, leave here to-night, all well. "W. C. STAINES."

"SAXEY"-Our friend Joseph C. Rich, who with his father, Gen. C. C. Rich, is now on a visit to their relatives in the States has written to his mother, and we are permitted to make extracts from the letter. It may be interesting to "Saxey's" friends to know that he comes honestly by his habit of spelling the English language and of getting off funny things in such style as he does, for another member of a collateral branch of the great Rich family, in the person of "Josh Billings," is guilty of similar atrocities in orthography and wit. Blood will tell. He writes from Boston, 29th ult.:

"This leaves us well. The meeting of the Rich family is over, and was attended by nearly fifteen hundred of the family. It was a grander affair than I anticipated.
The Mormon delegation were the heroes of the occasion, and we have done much to aliay prejudice and acquaint them with our doctrines. Truro is situated over 100 miles from here at what is called the "jumping cff place" on Cape Cod. We were treated splendidly by all, notwithstanding the fact that we believed in polygamy and told them that we believed in polygamy and told them all about wives and everything else. They nearly taked us to death. Eliza [Mrs. Rich] is becoming a pretty good preacher, especially on polygamy. We will go to the Jublice to-day, and leave for Albany, N. Y., this evening on our way to New York and Philadelphia. From New York father will go into Kentucky, where I may that the property of the polygamy of the polygamy is not we shall be separated till. meet him; if not, we shall be separated till we get home. In this family gathering we have had a better opportunity to preach to the people than I ever had before.

"Sister Saras Jane's letter was read to the assembly of over 2,000, and warmly applauded; also one from "Josh Billings," who, with Ben Butler, are relatives of

CAN'T FAIL TO ADMIRE.-"Wyoming," writing from this city, June 30, that very GENERAL BANKING BUSIwet day, to the Colorado People, is good enough to say-

"You cannot fail to admire the wonderwith a wonderful growth and a still more wonderful people rest under the shadow of these mountains, all along this most wonderful valley."

Nevertheless, W. thinks, nor do we blame him, that Colorado possesses superior attractions, and he urges the Coloradans to Corrected Weekly by George Goddard. "advertize" for an immigration of pro-"advertize" for an immigration of pro-ducers. That's right. The News is ever open for that kind of business. As for Utah, she looked after and secured the pro-ducers first and she has not forgotten to look after them now. The non-producers come soon enough of their own option, without asking.

Comparisons,-The Indianapolis Journal has the following-

"The Mormon women dress so simply and neatly that odious comparisons are made by the unprejudiced between their attire and the comparatively flashy cos-tumes of their Gentile sisters."

THEY DON'T WANT IT .- A petition was presented to the City Council last night signed by citizens residing in the Fifteenth Ward, complaining that a drinking saloon had been established in that part of the City, contrary to the wishes of a majority of the people living in that locality, and praying for its abatement. The petition also set forth that preparations were makeing for the establishment of another saloon in the same portion of town, and asked that it should not be allowed to open. The New Hotel for freeh baled hay. Two hundred matter was referred to the City Marshal and the Chief of Police, that they might see that the law was enforced.

sends information to Marshal McAllister concerning a prisoner named McCausland. stealing. It appears he has been before the Courts at Pioche three times on as to any separate charges, similar to the one with which he is now charged. Mr. Kane wiso states that McCausland also, in conjunction with two others, stole a number of cattle at Shoal Creek, in this Territory, which cattle were sold by McCausland in now held in this City on a charge of horse junction with two others, stole a number of cattle at Shoal Creek, in this Territory, which cattle were sold by McCausland in Pioche, he giving a bill of sale for the same in his own name, and getting $150 as his share of the proceds of the plunder.

Contro Ur. - Many individuals who have been for some time resisting the city ordinances by doing business without license, are beginning to see that their course will not eventually prove to be a paying one, and are now asking the city authorities for license. This is caused by the widely established opinion that these Salt Lake City. matters will undoubtedly come out in favor of the city. Of course they will be so decided. It could not possibly be otherwise and be in accordance with law, justice and good order. We are not aware that there is a legal gentleman in the city who possesses an opinion other than this. We have advised the non-license payers all along to change their course and be good, law-abiding citizens, and had the advice been followed at an earlier date they would probably have saved a good deal of extra expense, besides having to eventually pay up all back claims of the city against them.

There are one or two cases, we understand, where parties still have some slight doubts about the matter resulting favorably to the city, and who have asked license to be granted to them on special terms, which are that, instead of paying license at the intervals specified by law, they should give security for the payment of license in the event of the city being victor in the impending cases.

Such applications are rather novel, and, it might be said, ridiculous, and, it is needless to say, have not been entertained by the city authorities.

There need be no special or half way course in this matter. The city must be sustained, good order maintained and the laws respected. There is not a right thinking, respectable person but will sus ain the municipal authorities in performing strictly and impartially their official duties.

JUBILANT.-The "Greeleyites" in town, and they number not a few, are quite jubiphilosopher. We noticed a large number of Greeley hats, owned by Cincinnati endorsers, adorned with alips of paper on which the action of the Baltimore Convention was announced. Many of the possessors of smiling countenances have been shouting on the street to-day, "I'm for Greeley," lant to-day over the nomination of the old
