

FAMILY RECORDS.

WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for FAMILY RECORDS of an approved form. Each book is divided into four forms.

The first form is that of a "FAMILY RECORD," with ruled and printed spaces for births, marriages, and deaths, in each family, also for names, dates, and places, one-page accommodating one family.

The second form is a "CHURCH RECORD," with spaces for blessings, baptisms, confirmations, ordinations, endowments, and patriarchal blessings and various particulars of the same.

The third form is a "SEALING RECORD," with spaces for name of person sealed, birth, death, time, place, etc.

The fourth form is a "BAPTISM FOR THE DEAD RECORD," with spaces for names, dates, birth, death, baptism, confirmation, etc.

Each book is furnished with a little page, on which the person owning the record can enter his or her name. An explanation of the forms, or instructions how to keep the record is also printed in each book, and its pages are numbered.

These Records are well printed and ruled on good ledger paper, substantially bound in full sheep, English roan, or Book. We can furnish them of any size, from one to five quires, or larger, but probably five quires is as large as will be desired. We can also furnish the various forms in a record, proportioned to each other to order.

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday - November 9, 1877. SHORT AND SHARP.

We touch not a wire but it vibrates in every nerve, and the voice that reports not at the throne of heaven.

Truth never need be in a hurry, but a lie must keep all the time on the jump; a lazy lie soon tires itself out, and ends in confusion.

The moral courage that will face obloquy in a good cause is a much rarer gift than the bodily valor that will confront death in a bad one.

"Give the devil his due," says the New York Herald. Yes, yes, but better still, have no dealing with that party at all, then there will be nothing due him.

"There are five preachers (to one editor in the Kentucky Penitentiary.) We hope no one will say that one editor needs at least five preachers.

"Mamma, did they need to have carriages in Jerusalem?" asked a little boy just home from Sunday school. "I don't know, dear, but I heard the minister talking to-day about the Hacks of the Apostles.

The Presbyterian church has just decided that women cannot be permitted to preach in its pulpits. But the Presbyterian, or any other church, hasn't the power to prevent women from lecturing in bed at unseasonable hours of the night.

An Irishman who had been sick a long time, was one day met by the parish priest, when the following conversation took place: "Well, Patrick, I am glad you have recovered. Were you not afraid to meet your God?" "Oh, no, your reverence! It was meeting the other party that I was afraid of!" replied Pat.

"I wish to ask you a question," said Mr. Sharp to one young minister, as he met him in the street. "I am anxious to know where hell is. The Bible I have read, geographies, histories and other books, and I can't find out where it is exactly."
