

GLAD NEW YEAR'S NOISY BIRTH.

Event Was Celebrated With Diver Sounds Upon the Streets.

THE WHOLE CITY AROUSED.

In Church and Home Prayer and Thanksgiving Were Heard, Heartfelt Greetings Exchanged.

Anno Domini, 1902, was born, as far as this city is concerned, with the blowing of steam whistles, the explosion of revolvers, shot guns, fire crackers, beer bottles, and a wide and assorted variety of human lungs. The streets resounded with whoops, while in the churches and homes where watch meetings were being held was sung "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow," and "bells pealed right merrily" from one end of the town to the other. Then everybody turned in and bid everybody else a happy new year, and 150 of them or more; scores of people without regard to race, age, sex, color, or previous condition of servitude, moved and carried good resolutions in carload lots—only to be dropped out into the right of way from the side doors of the cars during the coming month; and by 2 a. m. the town was ready for bed.

The midnight services at the Methodist Episcopal and Protestant Episcopal, and the Congregational and Baptist churches were well attended for the most part and enjoyed. In some of the churches as at St. Mark's cathedral, the evergreen decorations were elaborate and the services impressive. There was a large attendance of college men at the University club, where the spacious and handsome apartments were lived with college songs for some time after the old bell from Manila hung up in the reception room had tolled out the festive midnight hour. Choice light refreshments helped out the evening very acceptably.

The Salvation army entertained a large crowd at their Commercial street headquarters, and even the childlike and bland son of Confucius over in Pium alley became infected with the spirit of the occasion and joined in his usual mild, quiet and retiring way. Many of the soldier boys were down from the post and gave considerable of a military air to the streets.

Like New Year's eve, one year ago, the atmosphere was smoky and foggy, but that did not interfere with the festivities, and scores of young people spent the early part of the evening skating on the ponds in the northwest part of the city.

MIDNIGHT SERMON.

Dean Eddie Preaches on the Beauty of Time and What It Means.

Dean Eddie gave an interesting New Year's address last midnight at St. Mark's cathedral. He spoke on "The Beauty of Time and What It Means." The text was "Lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is, that I may know how frail I am."

The speaker used as an illustration the fact that on the lofty tower in Winchester cathedral, England are two great sun dials which mark the flight of time; and on each a single word is inscribed: "Præteritum imputantur." This is to say, "The hours that they are reckoned against us. These are indeed the two great facts regarding time: it flees and it is reckoned up against us. These same facts are expressed by the Psalmist in this prayer: 'Let us know the number, the measure of my days, how brief and fleeting they are.'"

Præteritum means, they flee. There is nothing less onerous than time, nothing so eludes our grasp, nothing so fleeting. In looking down an avenue of trees those furthest from us seem as they recede in the distance to be smaller and closer together. So is time. Each one seems shorter and swifter than its predecessor, and the last but a handbreadth in the spacious days of childhood. Life is a handbreadth, a span long, the smallest measurement of those people. It is a tale interesting and absorbing that ends ere

Itching Skin

Distress by day and night—That's the complaint of those who are so unfortunate as to be afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum—and outward applications do not cure. They can't.

The source of the trouble is in the blood—make that pure and this scaling, burning, itching skin disease will disappear.

"I was taken with an itching on my arms which proved very disagreeable. I concluded it was salt rheum and bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. In two days after I began taking it I felt better and it was not long before I was cured. Have never had any skin disease since." Mrs. Ida E. Ward, Cove Point, Md.

"I was suffering from eczema and could not rest day or night. I had seen Hood's Sarsaparilla advertised in the papers and began taking it. Soon I could rest better, the dyspeptic trouble from which I had suffered was relieved and now I am cured and feel as young as I did twenty years ago." M. D. L. MARTIN, Screen Door Factory, Knoxville, Tenn.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Rid the blood of all impurities and cure all eruptions.

we are aware of it. Young in his Night Thoughts says: "The bell strikes one, we take note of him, but from its loss, as if an angel spoke, I feel the solemn sound; if heard aright, it is the knell of my departed hours. Where are they? With the years beyond the food?"

But there is another solemn fact, imputantur. The fleeting hours are reckoned up against us. They are reckoned to our credit as something that we must at last give an account of something we hear people say, 'My time is like so much capital entrusted to me to invest. And it must be invested so as to bring as large returns as possible. We must make the most of it at last. The hours are like merchant ships freighted with cargoes of more or less value which we sent before us to that unseen shore. Time is reckoned against us in the use made of it in making or marring our own life.

CATHOLIC SERVICES.

Bishop Scanlan, Father Kiely and Father Curran the Speakers.

St. Mary's Cathedral was crowded at all of the services, Bishop Scanlan conducted the earlier services and spoke on the new year, its duties and the new resolutions made on such an occasion and how this day is always a landmark in life. The bishop was much gratified to note the improvements in the parish and diocese during the year, the building of the new cathedral and the general increase in religious work. He confidently hoped for a continuation of the march of improvement during the coming year.

At the 10 o'clock mass at St. Mary's Cathedral this morning Father Kiely preached from the text: "Boast not tomorrow, for thou knowest not what the day will bring forth."

After touching upon the occasion of the birth of a new year, and how small a speck it makes between the two eternities, the preacher went on to say, that all on reaching maturity were impressed with two ideas—a future unending life, and the judgment of an infinitely just God. He maintained that these two ideas were connected with the history of the human race. Continuing, the speaker said that when one reads the newspapers and the records of crimes contained in them, "We exclaim, that man is a paradox." He went on to say, "Did the assassin, who deliberately took the life of President McKinley, whilst presenting himself in the guise of a friend, believe in a future life? Did the murderer of James R. May believe in an infinitely just God? Are the simple-minded rural inhabitants of South Africa, who are struggling to defend their lives and property, ever to share in that peace and goodwill which Christ established on earth? Does a Christian nation, which has a quarter of a million soldiers trying to establish a good nation before in God and retributive justice?"

The preacher then maintained that such questions might be multiplied indefinitely and the answers would all show man's inconsistency.

Father Kiely proceeded to exhort his hearers to strive to bring peace to their own souls so that the greetings that fall from their lips today would be verified and peace and goodwill reign upon the earth.

This service was noted for its excellent music, especially the work of the children's choir, under Miss Nora Gleason.

At Phillips Congregational.

The Phillips Congregational church held its annual meeting last evening, when these officers were elected for the year. Church clerk, Miss Anna Baker; treasurer, W. B. McCartney; deacon, D. B. Willis; deaconess, Mrs. Alice Duggan; trustees, Edward Satter, E. L. Fulton, Hiram Combes; Sunday school superintendent, Professor Farrington. The finances of the church were shown to be in a satisfactory condition, with a good balance to start the new year. A gain was shown in all departments of the church work, an instance of which was the increase in membership during the past year. The pastor, Rev. P. A. Simpkins, preached at the water service following from the text, "So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." The thought of the discourse was along the line of definite consecration to Christian work. The speaker also referred to the motto of the year, which was "Præteritum imputantur." The thought was how insufficient was the fleeting life of man aside from the eternal life of God, while man might move with the Eternal and be consoled with Him. Mr. Simpkins made a special plea for personal consecration. The attendance and interest in the evening were very good.

Holy Communion.

Holy communion was celebrated at both St. Mark's and St. Paul's Episcopal churches this morning. Bishop Leonard and Dean Eddie officiating at St. Mark's, and Rector Walker at St. Paul's.

At the First M. E.

Rev. Dr. J. L. Abritton of the First Methodist church took for his text this morning Matthew 10th chapter, 22nd verse, in which Christ tells His disciples what they may expect if they follow Him and leave their lives. "To build a lofty Christian character requires skill, patience, resolution," said the doctor, "and often costly sacrifice. The scriptures attach great importance to holding on to the end and not letting up."

Dr. Abritton dealt broadly on those topics, and his address was of an encouraging nature.

TEAMS MEET TODAY.

Great Struggle Between Michigan and Stanford Takes Place.

Pasadena, Cal., Dec. 31.—The eleven of Michigan and Stanford took light work today in final preparation for the game tomorrow. There is every indication that the contest will draw one of the largest crowds ever gathered together in southern California for a college event. The sale of seats has been unusually large, and the town is filling up with lovers of the game from all quarters. If tomorrow's weather conditions are as today, the weather will be rather too fair for fast football. Both the Michigan and Stanford teams have, however, been in training here long enough to acclimate them to playing the game under an almost summer sun.

The line-up of the Wolverines will practically be that of the past season, with all the regular varsity men in the list. Officials for the game have not yet been fully decided upon, but it is probable that Dave Brown, Stanford, '95, will referee and W. K. Fausole of Williams will act as umpire.

SKATING CONTESTS TODAY.

Gold Medal Offered for Winner of Fancy Skating Competition.

The skaters were out in full force today at all the ponds, which are in good condition. At Mellens a program of ice sports is being pulled off and a contest for fancy skaters. For the winner of this contest Mellens has offered a gold medal, and it is expected the fight for it will be a sharp one. Toward evening there will be two racing events. The first is a mile open for boys under 15 years of age. The other contest will be a mile open for amateurs. Mellens' hockey team is on hand ready and anxious to play a game with any team in the city.

MAY REORGANIZE LEAGUE.

An effort is to be made to reorganize the basket ball league in this city. It was first organized with five teams, but has been reduced to three. A meeting has been called for tomorrow night of all the basket ball teams of the city for the purpose of talking over the situation and reorganizing the league if possible.

HON. HENRY BURKE, OF MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., Recommends Pe-ru-na for Grip, Colds and Catarrh.

Henry Burke

Hon. Henry Burke, Court Officer of the Municipal Court, 401 Broadway, Minneapolis, Minn., writes:

The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio: Gentlemen—After having used Peruna for a few weeks I find that it is a most excellent remedy for the grip and a serious cold. I recommend it to my friends as a fine remedy for people that contract colds or catarrh in the winter time."

—HENRY BURKE.

Mr. Hugh Mooney, 510 West Forty-second street, New York City, Secretary of Union 54, of the Eccentric Firemen of New York, writes:

"I can recommend Peruna to be the only genuine catarrh remedy that I have ever tried. (I have tried a great many during the five years that I have suffered with catarrh.) Subject to colds as I am from drafts and sudden changes of temperature, every now and then I get a new fresh attack of catarrh. At times my nose was stopped up, and there was a noise like the rumbling of thunder in my ears, and a painful headache went with it.

"A friend advised me to take Peruna, as it had cured him; I bought five bottles of it and when these were finished my catarrh had disappeared.

"I bought five more and I have three of them yet, and whenever I get a fresh cold I take a few doses of Peruna as a preventative from catarrh.

"The symptoms never present themselves now." HUGH MOONEY.

Mr. J. B. Reese, Hahna, Md., writes:

"Two years ago I became a sufferer with catarrh which continued to grow worse, and made me miserable. I could scarcely smell at all, and my taste had almost left me. My head ached constantly, and at times I had high fever and bleeding at the nose. I was a perfect wreck.

"I tried several doctors but derived no relief. I read in one of your little booklets called 'Hills of Life' of Peruna being a 'sure cure' for catarrh, and procured a bottle at once. After the use of one bottle I felt some better, so I tried the second and the third, and now I am a well man.

"My health is much better than it has been for three years. All praise is due Peruna."

J. B. REESE.

Prosthetic Dentistry

AS A BUSINESS.

The Making of Artificial Substitutes to Replace the Loss of the Natural Teeth, Such as Plates, Crowns and Bridges, Treated as a business by the

GRISWOLD DENTAL MANUFACTURING COMPANY.

Twelve Years over Walker Bros' Bank.

We have been turning out of our factory during the past two months the finest class of artificial teeth (plates), crowns and bridge teeth yet produced in the state of Utah, at prices unheard of in the West for their lowness.

Our ability to create such a stir in the dental business and throw competition into the ranks of the so-called professional men is the result of the happy combination of the latest and most approved methods, appliances and machinery, together with their proper handling by skilled operators. We have the largest and most thoroughly equipped laboratory for doing all classes of dental work west of Chicago.

We do all grades of plate work, continuous gum work—made entirely of porcelain—artificial teeth mounted on gold and aluminum.

The cheaper kinds are made on plates of rubber, and in many cases the latter prove most satisfactory.

By proper handling very artistic results may be obtained in even these low-priced plates.

We will make any kind of work you want done—and we will guarantee that our prices will be far less than can be made by any other dentist in this western country.

We are able to make a low price on all work because we handle it on a large scale and do more of it. GET THE BEST. It will cost you no more here than inferior work produced by others.

The work of skilled, experienced dentists—the best that can be done. In none too good for your mouth. What must be the result when the unskilled, the amateur dentist, makes an effort to do difficult work?

The Crown and Bridge Teeth that we make are all manufactured from 24-karat gold, and are in every respect superior to similar work produced elsewhere. We are prepared to make artificial dentures of this kind rapidly and perfectly, and will discount the prices of anyone that you may have consulted, and still guarantee the work and material to be the very best that can be produced, let the pieces be what it may.

Our Mission

is to save teeth, but all teeth cannot be saved when they must be extracted in order to prepare the mouth for artificial teeth. We are prepared to do the work positively without pain, and our price is low. No danger, no after effects.

Dr. Griswold, who, for more than twelve years past, has enjoyed the largest private practice in Salt Lake City, imports everything needed out, and personally guarantees every piece of work produced by this company, which was recently organized and incorporated under the state laws of Utah.

If you, as a wearer of artificial teeth, have plates that hurt you, or do not fit, and you have condemned all artificial teeth as worthless, call on us. We will reset your plate at low cost.

If your plate is broken, we will repair it at a cost of from $1.00 to $2.00, and return your plate to you in two hours.
