On Monday morning at 10 o'clock a meeting of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone Company will be held here. It is proposed to increase the capital stock from $1,000,000 to $2,500,000, and it now seems probable that the proposition will carry.

liff church lasting a month, he received $350. The amount was raised for him by thank offerings at the church. A reception is to be held in connection with the services at liff church tomorrow morning.
It is expected that work will soon be commenced on the Sheldon Jackson college building. The trustees have two sets of plans in hand and will shortly pass upon them. Already the money for the building has been provided, and the college now has such an income as to ensure that the trustees believe further delay unnecessary.
On Friday last the "News" published a special dispatch from Mercur announcing that Samuel Christensen fell from a new meeting house there, breaking a leg and fracturing several ribs. Yesterday the unfortunate man died, and the "News" has four columns in distressing circumstances. They live at 1007 South Third West street.

BOARD'S POWERS ARE LIMITED.

Judge Cherry Renders a Decision in the Vaccination Case.

CANNOT EXCLUDE CHILDREN

Held that Health Board Exceeded its Authority—An Appeal Will be Taken.

Arguments in the Cox mandamus suit were concluded shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when Judge Cherry immediately announced his decision. His honor sustained the decision of the board of health, and the relators demurred to the defendants' answer holding that the board of health has no authority to exclude unvaccinated children from the schools, and that their exclusion by the board of education was contrary to law. The defendant was given until Monday to amend its answer or take an appeal to the Supreme court.
In rendering his decision Judge Cherry said the allegation of the existence of smallpox had not been denied by petitioner, neither had the allegation that petitioner's child was in good health been denied. His honor took it for granted that both statements were true. The case was a perplexing one and affected a great many people. He was of the opinion, however, that the powers of the board of health were limited. "It," said his honor, "the board of health could become our physicians and dictate the treatment we were to receive there is no telling where it would end. While I believe both the board of health and the board of education acted in the utmost good faith and with the best intentions, I am of opinion that the board of health has assumed legislative authority which it does not possess. If disaster should follow the ruling, thoughtless people would charge it to the court, and although personally I think it is better to be vaccinated than run the risk of taking smallpox, these considerations have nothing to do with the decision of this case, which is purely a question of law. School children are no more liable to carry infection than any other persons who frequent public places. The board of health may close churches, schools, places of amusement, stop all public gatherings and impose quarantine. But the exclusion of unvaccinated children from the schools is in effect compulsory vaccination and I hold that it is a rule the board of health cannot enforce. The demurrer to the answer is sustained and the writ ordered to issue."

COUNCIL COMMITTEES MEET.

Petitions Considered and Routine Business Transacted.

At last evening's meeting the street committee considered the petition of Zion's Savings bank, asking for building privileges on the street and sidewalk at Nos. 176 to 180 west Second South street, and will recommend the same be granted.
The committee also decided to recommend the expenditure of $175 for the traveling of Austin street, in North Salt Lake.
In the matter of the petition of Duncan McFadden et al, asking for the naming and numbering of street fronts in Plat 1, the committee will recommend that the city attorney draw an ordinance covering the subject.
The irrigation committee appointed Canning, Howe C. and Engineer Kelsey a sub-committee to confer with the East Jordan Canal company as to the terms whereby the city may acquire perpetual right to conduct its water from Utah lake through the East Jordan ditch to the city.
Action on the removal of Policeman Davies by Chief Hilton was not taken at the meeting. It will probably be considered before Tuesday's meeting, however.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Now that a special election for congressman is a certainty, party candidates are freely talked of. Among those most prominently mentioned on the Democratic side are C. S. Varian, Fisher Harris, Major Young, Judge King, Judge Henderson and D. C. Dunbar. As to the Republican candidate it looks pretty much as though Secretary of State Hammond might secure the nomination with very little or no trouble. His friends declare that he will get it by acclamation.

IN APRIL.

Probability that Special Election Will be Held Then.

Within the next week will be held meetings of the State committees of both political parties for the purpose of arranging for the special congressional election, which the respective chairmen have been unofficially informed will be held on Tuesday, April 3d. It is likely that the Governor's proclamation will not issue until the middle of next week. Meanwhile arrangements are under way looking to the holding of the election on the first Tuesday in April.

BRUTAL ASSAULT UPON MISS SMITH

Villain Attacks the Young Lady in a Lonesome Ogden Spot.

FRANK BERRY IS SUSPECTED

Tallies With Description—Has Been Considered a Well Behaved Young Man Heretofore.

[SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS"]

Ogden, Jan. 27.—Miss Bessie Smith was assaulted at about 9:15 o'clock last night by an unknown man, who was, however, frightened off before his dastardly purpose was accomplished.
The young lady lives at the corner of Robinson and Taylor avenues, in Nob Hill, and having taken the Twenty-fifth street car at Washington avenue, she rode to the end of the line and proceeded to walk from there to her home.
She had gone about one and a half blocks when a man jumped out from among the vegetation along the street, knocked Miss Smith down and clutched her throat. The young lady succeeded in giving vent to a terrible scream, and this brought Mr. and Mrs. Craig, living near by, to her rescue. The approach of Mr. Craig frightened the villainous assailant, and he ran away before his purpose had been accomplished.
Although badly frightened, Miss Smith was able to give a very minute description of the fellow, which Mr. Craig immediately communicated to the police.
Riding in the same car with Miss Smith was a young man, Frank Berry, employed by the Ogden Paint, Oil & Glass company, who claims to have sighted from the car at Lafayette avenue. The motorist and a passenger named Norton, however, say that he rode farther. Berry says that he got off at Lafayette avenue and went to see Mr. Michael upon a matter of business, but found no one at home and returned down town.
The morning Berry was taken to Miss Smith's home for identification. The young lady was unable to say positively that he was her assailant, but her description as to height, face and clothing, as given to the police, tallies well with Berry, that the officers are inclined to believe he is the guilty party, especially as he rode up on the same car. The young man has always been considered reputable and well behaved.
Miss Smith says that at the time of the assault she was on the way home from a visit to the family of Mr. and Mrs. Gasberg, who live down town.
The affair has created quite a sensation.
