

RELIEF FUNDS FOR SAN FRANCISCO

California Promotion Committee
Makes Statement Regarding Their Diversion.

SIX MILLIONS CONTRIBUTED.

Of This Great Sum Only Two Packages,
Amounting to $1,285.50, Went Astray.

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—Owing to the fact that wide publicity has been given to charges that a million dollars of the relief fund contributed to San Francisco has been diverted or stolen; and owing to the further fact that those who have sent money to San Francisco are entitled to a correct statement of conditions, the California Promotion committee has sent out the following statement:

More than six million dollars contributed to San Francisco came in small sums ranging from 10 cents up to thousands of dollars. These sums came by mail and express, in all forms, from postage stamps and currency to money orders and bank drafts. Of the entire amount sent but two sums went astray. One a package of currency containing $1,085.50 from Searchlight, sent to the National Bank & Trust company, of Los Angeles, by express, and the other package of $200 sent by mail from Baltimore.

The finance committee of the citizens relief committee of 40, afterwards incorporated as relief and Red Cross funds, consisting of 21 prominent business men of San Francisco, received all funds and the books of this committee were examined by Gen. Bates, a representative of the National Red Cross society, sent from Washington, for that purpose, who declared them kept under a system that guaranteed their correctness. The Massachusetts association for the relief of California sent a committee to San Francisco to investigate the methods of relief work. On its return to Boston, made a report, going into detail and covering every point in the work of relief in San Francisco. The report of this committee resulted in the immediate forwarding of the balance of the money in the hands of the Massachusetts organization.

James D. Hagen of the New York chamber of commerce committee for the relief of San Francisco spent several weeks in San Francisco investigating conditions. After his report was made of the New York body, the funds, amounting to half a million dollars, held by the New York committee, were ordered turned over to the San Francisco relief corporation.

THAW'S TRIAL.

Will Take Place Before Criminal
Branch of N. Y. Supreme Court.

New York, Nov. 22.—Developments in court yesterday make it almost certain that Harry K. Thaw will not be tried for the shooting of Stanford White on Dec. 2, the day recently fixed. On motion of Dist. Atty. Jerome yesterday the case was sent to the supreme court by Justice Greenbaum, who is sitting in the criminal branch. It has been originally planned to try Thaw before Recorder Goff in general sessions.

The change of program came as the result of opposition of Clifford W. Harridge of counsel for the defense, to the district attorney's application for a special panel of 150 talesmen from which to select the jury. When Mr. Jerome heard of the proceedings he withdrew his motion for a special panel and applied for the transfer of the case to the supreme court. It is thought now that the trial will not be reached before Jan. 1 or later.

WRECK OF THE DIX.

Testimony Shows That Mate Dennis
Was Responsible for It.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 21.—That Mate Dennis of the wrecked steamship Dix was wholly to blame for the loss of the vessel Sunday night, which caused the death of more than 50 men and women, is evident from the testimony taken before the United States marine inspectors this morning. Capt. Leimond, master of the Dix, who was among those saved by the steamer Jeanie, testified that he had warned Dennis never to attempt to cross in front of another vessel, but to pass the steamer's stern. Both Capt. Mason and Leimond were before the inspectors and told of the wreck. Capt. Mason of the Jeanie told of the efforts he made to avoid a collision. Leimond testified that he was acting as captain and purser of the Dix and was in his room counting the fares when he heard the mate signal for the boat to slow down.

When he went on deck the Dix was under the bow of the Jeanie and in a moment he was in the water. He said he called to the mate of his vessel and asked him what he was trying to do. He received no response.

Capt. Mason told how he had been overtaken by the Dix and that when he saw there was to be a collision he reversed his engines, but the Dix struck him a glancing blow and went down stern first.

ROOSEVELT MAKES AUTOMOBILE TOUR

Makes Eighty Mile Trip in Six
Hours and Thirty Minutes.

FROM PONCE TO SAN JUAN.

Will Continue to Use Every Effort to Secure Citizenship for Porto Ricans.

San Juan, P. R., Nov. 21.—President Roosevelt today journeyed in an automobile over the famous railroad from Ponce to San Juan and was accorded an ovation by the people of Porto Rico. The 80-mile trip was made in six hours and 30 minutes counting the time taken up by stops made along the route, where the president made short speeches to the people. The president in all his speeches dwelt on the affection he held for the people of Porto Rico, and assured them that he would use every effort to secure citizenship for them—that his efforts would be unceasing to help them along the path of true self-government.

President Roosevelt arrived at Ponce this morning from Colon on board the battleship Louisiana. He was visited on board the vessel by Gov. Winthrop, who extended a welcome to the island. The president at once came ashore and was greeted at the pier by Mayor Opepeimeir of Ponce and a delegation of prominent officials and citizens. The town, which was profusely decorated in the president's honor, was crowded with people from the surrounding country to greet Mr. Roosevelt.

In spite of the early hour, the landing place was crowded with an expectant throng, many of whom had been in their places all night, to witness the incoming of the Louisiana. As the president stepped ashore the crowd cheered him, crying: "Viva al presidente."

When the greetings were over the president, accompanied by Gov. Winthrop, was driven to the city hall, Mrs. Winthrop and Mrs. Roosevelt following. The president was kept busy acknowledging cheers all along the two miles march from the landing place to the principal plaza of the town. At the entrance to the plaza a huge arch had been erected from which little girls threw flowers to both President and Mrs. Roosevelt as they passed.

At the city hall an address of welcome was read to the president. He delivered his reply from the balcony of the building, addressing the largest crowd that had ever assembled in Ponce.

"I shall continue to use every effort to secure citizenship for Porto Rico. I am confident this will come in the end and all that I can personally do to hasten that day I will do. My efforts will be unceasing to help you along the path of true self-government, which must have for its basis a union of order, liberty, justice and honor."

In conclusion the president said: "I salute you from my heart as fellow citizens."

The reference to the citizenship brought out enthusiastic applause from the people. After leaving Ponce the president was driven to the Roosevelt high school. Here several hundred school children had been assembled and sang "America" as the president drove up. The cornerstone of this school was laid in April, 1903, by the president's daughter, now Mrs. Longworth. The president was greatly pleased with his reception at the school, and made a short address.

The presidential party left Ponce at 10:30 o'clock, the time set by the schedule for the run to San Juan over the famous military road. Eleven vans conveyed the party.

Stops of three minutes each were made at Juana Diaz, Coamo and Alamo. At each place the president was welcomed by the mayor, and spoke briefly from his automobile.

Passing through the Caguas and the Cayey tobacco districts, where American capital has worked a wonderful development, the president was greatly impressed with the fertility and flourishing condition of the plantations. At Caguas Mrs. Roosevelt was showered with flowers and received many presents. Between towns along the military road scattering crowds eagerly waited the chance of seeing a glimpse of the president. People from the outlying plantations, some on foot from the mountain districts, miles away, ponies, women, children, beggars and cripples, all came to pay tribute.

GIRLS ACCUSE THEIR MOTHER

She is Arrested on Charge of Having Procured an Illegal Operation.

THEY SAW HER KILL INFANTS.

Then This Human Fiend Burned
Their Bodies in Kitchen Stove.

New York, Nov. 21.—The spectacle of two women denouncing as a murderer the woman who brought them into the world but whom they refused to call "mother," was witnessed in the office of Dist. Atty. Jerome today. The women are Mrs. Wilhelmina Ihrig of this city and Mrs. Marie Scoch. The mother whom they accused is Mrs. Wilhelmina Eckhardt, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of having performed an illegal operation. Both Mrs. Ihrig and Mrs. Scoch asserted that they did not wish to be known as the daughters of Mrs. Eckhardt, who, they said, is not worthy to bear the name "mother."

Both declared they had seen Mrs. Eckhardt kill hour-old infants and dispose of the bodies by burning them in her kitchen stove. They said also that they had seen Mrs. Eckhardt perform criminal operations upon women in her East Ninety-third street home, and Mrs. Ihrig declared that her mother had quarreled with her because she refused to assist in burning the bodies of babies.

Mrs. Scoch told the district attorney that when she was three days old her mother wrapped her in a bundle of rag and cast her into the street. She was rescued by her grandmother, who reared her.

When she came to this country she found her mother conducting a disorderly house and she declared that her mother sought to have her become an inmate of the place. She refused. The first she knew of her mother's present occupation, she said, was when Mrs. Eckhardt's little adopted son made a discovery in the house which led to the exposure and Mrs. Eckhardt's arrest. When she learned of the discovery made by the little boy Mrs. Scoch said she went to her mother about it, and she declared Mrs. Eckhardt proposed that they go into partnership. This she did after consulting with a representative of the county medical society, and with a view of causing Mrs. Eckhardt's arrest. It was while occupying this position in her mother's house, she says, that she procured evidence which resulted in Mrs. Eckhardt's arrest. She declared that she saw her mother perform an operation on Anna Jackson, otherwise Sally Brown, a colored woman, to whom a child was born in the house, and her mother told her how easy it was to kill a child and to dispose of it by burning the body in the stove.

She declared that her mother actually did kill the baby by twisting its neck, and that afterward she burned it.

Mrs. Ihrig came here four months ago from Regensburg, Germany. She testified that she lived with her mother after coming here, and that in August last she saw her mother burn the bodies of infants. She says that she quarreled with her mother because the latter wanted her to burn the bodies in the stove. She told the district attorney also the name and address of another woman who, she said, had seen Mrs. Eckhardt burn the bodies of infants.
